Introduction

All praise is due to Allah, whom we praise and seek help, guidance and forgiveness from. We seek refuge with Allah from the evils within ourselves and from the burden of our evil deeds. He whom Allah guides, will never be misled; and he whom He misguides, will never have one who will guide him.

And I bear witness that there is no god but Allah, the Protector of the righteous, and I bear witness that our Prophet Muhammad is His servant and messenger.

“O believers! Be mindful of Allah in the way He deserves, and do not die except in ‘a state of full’ submission ‘to Him’.” (Ali-Imran: 102)

“O humanity! Be mindful of your Lord Who created you from a single soul, and from it He created its mate, and through both He spread countless men and women. And be mindful of Allah—in Whose Name you appeal to one another—and ‘honour’ family ties. Surely Allah is ever Watchful over you.” (An-Nisaa: 1)

“O believers! Be mindful of Allah, and say what is right. He will bless your deeds for you, and forgive your sins. And whoever obeys Allah and His Messenger, has truly achieved a great triumph.” (Al-Ahzab:70-71)

The best of the speech is embodied in the Book of Allah, and the best of the guidance is the guidance given by Muhammad. And the evillest affairs are their innovations; and every innovation is misguidance.

To proceed:

This is a summary of the science of grammar, which I have made as an introduction for students of grammar.

This summary serves as a key for the student. It suffices for the student to read it several times, and then gradually progress in the study of grammar, until their speech becomes clear and correct.

And I ask Allah for success and guidance.

مقدمة

إِنَّ الْحَمْدَ لِلَّهِ نَحْمَدُهُ وَنُسْتَعِينُهُ وَنَسْتَغْفِرُهُ، وَنَعُوذُ بِاللَّهِ مِنْ
شُرُورِ أَنْفُسِنَا وَمِنْ سَيِّئَاتِ أَعْمَالِنَا، مَنْ يَهْدِهِ اللَّهُ فَلَا مُضِلَّ لَهُ،
وَمَنْ يَضِلَّ فَلَا هَادِيَ لَهُ.
وَأَشْهَدُ أَنْ لَا إِلَهَ إِلَّا اللَّهُ وَحْدَهُ لَا شَرِيكَ لَهُ، وَأَشْهَدُ أَنَّ مُحَمَّدًا
عَبْدُهُ وَرَسُولُهُ.

{يَا أَيُّهَا الَّذِينَ ءَامَنُوا اتَّقُوا اللَّهَ حَقَّ تَقَاتِهِ ۖ وَلَا تَمُوتُنَّ إِلَّا وَأَنتُمْ مُسْلِمُونَ} (آل عمران: 102)

{يَا أَيُّهَا النَّاسُ اتَّقُوا رَبَّكُمُ الَّذِي خَلَقَكُمْ مِنْ نَفْسٍ وَاحِدَةٍ وَخَلَقَ
مِنْهَا زَوْجَهَا وَبَثَّ مِنْهُمَا رِجَالًا كَثِيرًا وَنِسَاءً ۚ وَاتَّقُوا اللَّهَ الَّذِي
تَسَاءَلُونَ بِهِ وَالْأَرْحَامَ إِنَّ اللَّهَ كَانَ عَلَيْكُمْ رَقِيبًا} (النساء: 1)
{يَا أَيُّهَا الَّذِينَ ءَامَنُوا اتَّقُوا اللَّهَ وَقُولُوا قَوْلًا سَدِيدًا * يُصْلِحْ لَكُمْ
أَعْمَالَكُمْ وَيَغْفِرْ لَكُمْ ذُنُوبَكُمْ ۗ وَمَنْ يُطِيعِ اللَّهَ وَرَسُولَهُ فَقَدْ فَازَ
فَوْزًا عَظِيمًا} (الأحزاب: 70، 71)

إِنَّ خَيْرَ الْحَدِيثِ كِتَابُ اللَّهِ، وَخَيْرُ الْهَدْيِ هَدْيُ مُحَمَّدٍ صَلَّى اللَّهُ
عَلَيْهِ وَآلِهِ وَسَلَّمَ، وَشَرُّ الْأُمُورِ مُحَدَّثَاتُهَا، وَكُلُّ بِدْعَةٍ ضَلَالَةٌ.
أَمَّا بَعْدُ:

فَهَذَا مُخْتَصَرٌ فِي عِلْمِ النَّحْوِ، جَعَلْتُهُ كَمُقَدِّمَةٍ لِطُلَّابِ النَّحْوِ،
وهذا المختصر كالْمِفْتَاحِ لِلطَّالِبِ.

فَيَكْفِي لِلطَّالِبِ أَنْ يَقْرَأَهُ مَرَّاتٍ، ثُمَّ يَتَدَرَّجُ فِي عِلْمِ النَّحْوِ، حَتَّى
يَسْتَقِيمَ لِسَانُهُ.

وَأَسْأَلُ اللَّهَ التَّوْفِيقَ وَالسَّدَادَ.

General Summary of Syntax

1- The term "word" in the terminology of grammarians: a term that is designated in Arabic for a singular meaning.

- The term "speech" in the terminology of grammarians: a composed expression that conveys a benefit worth pausing for.

Speech is divided into three categories:

A - Noun: something that indicates meaning in itself and is not associated with time.

B - Verb: something that indicates meaning in itself and is associated with one of the three-time frames.

C - Particle: a term that indicates meaning in another and is not associated with time.

Signs of a noun: accepting the genitive case (جرّ), tanwin (التنوين), the definite article "al" (ال), and the vocative particle (النداء).

A verb is divided into past (مَاضٍ), present (مُضَارِع), and imperative (أَمْر). The sign of a past and present verb is accepting "qad" (قد). The sign of a present verb is accepting "sin" (س) and "sawfa" (سوف). The imperative verb indicates a request.

- A word is divided into two categories: declinable (Mu'rab) and indeclinable (Mabni).

Declinable (Mu'rab): That whose ending changes due to the varying factors affecting it.

Indecidable (Mabni): That whose ending remains in a single state, even if its position in the sentence changes.

The indeclinable (Mabni) from nouns include pronouns, demonstrative pronouns, relative pronouns, conditional nouns, noun-verbs, and interrogative nouns.

مُلَخَّصٌ عَامٌّ لِعِلْمِ النَّحْوِ

1- الكَلِمَةُ فِي اصْطِلَاحِ النَّحْوِيِّينَ: اللَّفْظُ الْمَوْضُوعُ وَضَعًا عَرَبِيًّا لِمَعْنَى مُفْرَدٍ.

- الْكَلَامُ فِي اصْطِلَاحِ النَّحْوِيِّينَ: اللَّفْظُ الْمُرَكَّبُ الْمُفِيدُ فَائِدَةً يُحْسِنُ السُّكُوتَ عَلَيْهَا.

يُنْقَسِمُ الْكَلَامُ إِلَى ثَلَاثِ أَقْسَامٍ:

- أ - اسْمٌ: مَا دَلَّ عَلَى مَعْنَى فِي نَفْسِهِ وَلَمْ يَقْتَرِنْ بِزَمَانٍ.
 - ب - فِعْلٌ: مَا دَلَّ عَلَى مَعْنَى نَفْسِهِ، وَاقْتَرِنْ بِأَحَدِ الْأَزْمِنَةِ الثَّلَاثَةِ.
 - ج - حَرْفٌ: كَلِمَةٌ دَلَّتْ عَلَى مَعْنَى فِي غَيْرِهَا، وَلَمْ تَقْتَرِنْ بِزَمَانٍ.
 - عَلَامَاتُ الْاسْمِ: قَبُولُهُ الْجَرِّ وَالتَّنْوِينِ وَالِ، وَالنِّدَاءِ.
- يُنْقَسِمُ الْفِعْلُ إِلَى مَاضٍ، وَمُضَارِعٍ، وَأَمْرٍ، وَعَلَامَةُ الْفِعْلِ الْمَاضِي وَالْمُضَارِعِ قَبُولُ «قَدْ»، وَعَلَامَةُ الْمُضَارِعِ قَبُولُ السِّينِ وَسَوْفَ وَالْفِعْلُ الْأَمْرُ يَدُلُّ عَلَى الطَّلَبِ.

- الْكَلِمَةُ تَنْقَسِمُ إِلَى مُعَرَّبٍ وَمَبْنِيٍّ:

- الْمُعَرَّبُ: مَا يَتَغَيَّرُ آخِرُهُ لِاخْتِلَافِ الْعَوَامِلِ الدَّاخِلَةِ عَلَيْهِ.
- الْمَبْنِي: مَا يَلْزَمُ آخِرُهُ حَالَةً وَاحِدَةً وَإِنْ تَغَيَّرَ مَوْقِعُهُ فِي الْجُمْلَةِ.
- الْمَبْنِيَّاتُ مِنَ الْأَسْمَاءِ نَحْوُ الضَّمَائِرِ، وَأَسْمَاءِ الْإِشَارَةِ، وَالْأَسْمَاءِ الْمَوْصُولَةِ، وَأَسْمَاءِ الشَّرْطِ، وَأَسْمَاءِ الْأَفْعَالِ، وَأَسْمَاءِ الاسْتِفْهَامِ.

- The imperative and past tense verbs are always indeclinable (fixed), and the present tense verb is always declinable (variable) except when it is connected to the emphatic Nun (نون التوكيد) or the feminine plural Nun (نون النسوة), in which case it becomes indeclinable.

- All particles (letters) are indeclinable.

- The signs of inflection (اعراب) are divided into original signs and subsidiary signs:-

The original signs are four: Dammah (ُ), Fathah (َ), Kasrah (ِ), and Sukoon (ْ).

The subsidiary signs are seven: Waw (و), Alif (ا), Ya (ي), Nun (ن), Fathah (َ), Kasrah (ِ), and omission (of a letter).

- The nominative case (رفع) has four signs: one original, which is "Dammah," and three subsidiary, which are: Waw, Alif, and Nun.

-The accusative case (نصب) has five signs: one original, which is "Fathah," and four subsidiary that substitute for it, which are Ya, Kasrah.

- The genitive case (جر) has three signs: one original, which is "Kasrah," and two subsidiary signs that substitute for it, which are: Ya and Fathah.

- The jussive case (جزم) has two signs: one original, which is "Sukoon," and one subsidiary, which is the omission of the weak letter (حرف العلة).

- The six nouns (الأسماء الستة) (father, brother, father-in-law/mother-in-law's male relative, mouth, possessor (meaning owner), and 'hanu' (an archaic term referring to something of low regard)) are in the nominative case with Waw, put in the accusative with Alif, and put in the genitive with Ya, provided that they are in the construct state (added to something, but not the speaker's pronoun 'ya' (ياء المتكلم), are not diminutive, and are singular.

-The dual is put in the nominative case with Alif and put in the accusative and genitive case with Ya.

- الفِعْلُ الأَمْرُ والمَاضِي مَبْنِي دَائِمًا، وَالْمُضَارِعُ يُعَرَّبُ دَائِمًا إِلَّا عِنْدَ اتِّصَالِهِ بِنُونِ التَّوَكِيدِ أَوْ نُونِ النُّسُوءِ فَإِنَّهُ بُيِّنِي.
- الحُرُوفُ كُلُّهَا مَبْنِيَّةٌ.

- عِلَامَاتُ الإِعْرَابِ تَنْقَسِمُ إِلَى عِلَامَاتٍ أَصْلِيَّةٍ وَعِلَامَاتٍ فَرْعِيَّةٍ:
فَالْعِلَامَاتُ الْأَصْلِيَّةُ أَرْبَعَةٌ وَهِيَ: الضَّمَّةُ، الْفَتْحَةُ، الْكَسْرَةُ، السُّكُونُ.
وَالْفَرْعِيَّةُ سَبْعَةٌ، وَهِيَ: الْوَائِ، الْأَلِفُ، الْيَاءُ، النُّونُ، الْفَتْحَةُ، الْكَسْرَةُ، الْحَذْفُ.

- الرَّفْعُ لَهُ أَرْبَعُ عِلَامَاتٍ: وَاحِدَةٌ أَصْلِيَّةٌ وَهِيَ "الضَّمَّةُ"، وَثَلَاثَةٌ فَرْعِيَّةٌ وَهِيَ: الْوَائِ، وَالْأَلِفُ، النُّونُ.
- النَّصْبُ لَهُ خَمْسُ عِلَامَاتٍ: وَاحِدَةٌ أَصْلِيَّةٌ وَهِيَ "الْفَتْحَةُ"، - وَأَرْبَعَةٌ فَرْعِيَّةٌ تَنْوِبُ عَنْهَا وَهِيَ الْيَاءُ، الْكَسْرَةُ.
- الْجَرُّ لَهُ ثَلَاثُ عِلَامَاتٍ: وَاحِدَةٌ أَصْلِيَّةٌ وَهِيَ "الْكَسْرَةُ"، وَعِلَامَتَانِ فَرْعِيَّتَانِ تَنْوِبَانِ عَنْهَا وَهُمَا: الْيَاءُ، وَالْفَتْحَةُ.
- الْجَزْمُ لَهُ عِلَامَتَانِ، وَاحِدَةٌ أَصْلِيَّةٌ، وَهِيَ "السُّكُونُ"، وَوَاحِدَةٌ فَرْعِيَّةٌ وَهِيَ حَذْفُ حَرْفِ الْعِلَّةِ.
- الْأَسْمَاءُ السَّتَّةُ (أَبٌ، أَخٌ، حَمُو، فُو، ذُو بِمَعْنَى صَاحِبٍ، هُنُ) تُرْفَعُ بِالْوَائِ، وَتُنْصَبُ بِالْأَلِفِ، وَتَجْرُ بِالْيَاءِ، بِشَرَطِ أَنْ تَكُونَ مُضَافَةً إِلَى غَيْرِ يَاءِ الْمُتَكَلِّمِ، وَأَنْ تَكُونَ مُكَبَّرَةً وَمُفْرَدَةً.
- يُرْفَعُ الْمُثَنَّى بِالْأَلِفِ، وَيُنْصَبُ وَيُجَرُّ بِالْيَاءِ.

- The masculine plural sound noun (جمع المذكر السالم) is put in the nominative case with the "waw" (و), and is put in the accusative and genitive cases with the "yaa" (ي).
 - The feminine plural sound noun (جمع المؤنث السالم) is put in the nominative case with the "dammah" (ضمة), and is put in the accusative and genitive cases with the "kasrah" (كسرة).
 - The "nun" (ن) of the masculine plural sound noun and the dual noun is dropped when followed by a possessive.
 - The diptote (اسم ممنوع من الصرف) is put in the nominative case with the "dammah" (ضمة), and is put in the accusative and genitive cases with the "fatha" (فتحة).
 - The Five Verbs (الأمثلة الخمسة) are every present tense verb (فعل مضارع) connected to the dual "alif" (ألف الاثنين), such as: "yaf'alaan, taf'alaan (يفعلان، تفعلان)", or the plural "waw" (واو الجمع), such as: "yaf'aloon, taf'aloon (يفعلون، تفعلون)", or the feminine singular "yaa" (ياء المخاطبة), such as: "taf'aleen (تفعلين)", so it is put in the nominative case with the presence of the "nun" (ثبوت النون) as a substitute for the "dammah" (الضمة), and is put in the accusative and subjunctive mood (تنصب وتجزم) with the deletion of the "nun" (حذف النون) as a substitute for the "fatha" (الفتحة) and the "sukoon" (السكون).
 - The weak verb in the present tense (الفعل المضارع المعتل الآخر) is put in the subjunctive mood (يجزم) with the deletion of the weak letter (حذف حرف العلة), and the weak letters are: "al-waw (الواو), al-alif (الألف), and al-yaa (الياء)".
 - The nouns in the nominative case (المرفوعات) are seven: "the subject (الفاعل), the substitute subject (نائب الفاعل), the subject (المبتدأ), the predicate (الخبر), the name of "kaana" and its sisters (اسم كان وأخواتها), the predicate of "inna" and its sisters (خبر إن وأخواتها), and the attribute of a noun in the nominative case (التابع للمرفوع)".
- Added to these are the name of "kaada" and its sisters, the name of the particles resembling "laysa," and the predicate of "laa" of negation for the gender.
- The subject linguistically (الفاعل لغة): is the one who originates the action, or performs the action, or is characterized by the action. Terminologically (واصطلاحاً): a noun in the nominative case preceded by a verb.
 - The substitute subject (نائب الفاعل): It is a singular noun that was originally in the accusative case, then the subject was deleted, and it took its place and took its rules.

- يُرْفَعُ جَمْعُ الْمَذَكَّرِ السَّالِمِ بِالْوَاوِ، وَيُنْصَبُ وَيُجَرُّ بِالْيَاءِ.
- يُرْفَعُ جَمْعُ الْمُؤَنَّثِ السَّالِمِ بِالضَّمَّةِ، وَيُنْصَبُ وَيُجَرُّ بِالكَسْرِ.
- تُحذفُ نُونُ جَمْعِ الْمَذَكَّرِ السَّالِمِ وَنُونُ الْمُثَنَّى لِلإِضَافَةِ.
- الاسمُ المَمْنُوعُ مِنَ الصَّرْفِ يُرْفَعُ بِالضَّمَّةِ وَيُنْصَبُ وَيُجَرُّ بِالْفَتْحَةِ.
- الْأَمْثَلَةُ الْخَمْسَةُ، هِيَ كُلُّ فِعْلٍ مُضَارِعٍ اتَّصَلَ بِهِ أَلِفُ الْاِثْنَيْنِ نَحْوُ: "يَفْعَلَانِ، تَفْعَلَانِ" أَوْ وَاوِ الْجَمْعِ نَحْوُ "يَفْعَلُونَ، تَفْعَلُونَ"، أَوْ يَاءِ الْمُخَاطَبَةِ نَحْوُ "تَفْعَلِينَ"، فَتُرْفَعُ بِثُبُوتِ النُّونِ نِيَابَةً عَنِ الضَّمَّةِ، وَتُنْصَبُ وَتُجَرَّمُ بِحذفِ النُّونِ نِيَابَةً عَنِ الْفَتْحَةِ وَالسُّكُونِ.
- الْفِعْلُ الْمُضَارِعُ الْمُعْتَلُّ الْآخِرُ، يُجَرَّمُ بِحذفِ حَرْفِ الْعِلَّةِ، وَحُرُوفُ الْعِلَّةِ هِيَ: "الْوَاوُ، وَالْأَلِفُ، وَالْيَاءُ".
- الْمَرْفُوعَاتُ سَبْعَةٌ "الْفَاعِلُ، وَنَائِبُ الْفَاعِلِ، وَالْمُبْتَدَأُ، وَالْخَبَرُ، وَاسْمُ كَانٍ وَأَخَوَاتِهَا، وَخَبَرُ إِنَّ وَأَخَوَاتِهَا، وَالتَّابِعُ لِلْمَرْفُوعِ".
- وَيَلْحَقُ بِهَا اسْمُ كَادَ وَأَخَوَاتِهَا، وَاسْمُ الْأَحْرَفِ الْمُشَبَّهَةِ بِلَيْسَ، وَخَبَرُ لَا النَّافِيَةِ لِلْجِنْسِ.

- وَالْفَاعِلُ لُغَةً: هُوَ مَنْ أَوْجَدَ الْفِعْلَ، أَوْ قَامَ بِالْفِعْلِ، أَوْ اتَّصَفَ بِالْفِعْلِ.
- وَاضْطِلَاحًا: اسْمُ مَرْفُوعٍ تَقَدَّمَ عَلَيْهِ الْفِعْلُ.
- نَائِبُ الْفَاعِلِ: وَهُوَ اسْمٌ مُفْرَدٌ كَانَ فِي الْأَصْلِ مَنْصُوبًا، فَحُذِفَ الْفَاعِلُ، وَحَلَّ مَكَانَهُ وَأَخَذَ أَحْكَامَهُ.

The Subject (Mubtada): It is the noun that comes at the beginning of a nominal sentence.

The Predicate (Khabar): It is the noun that comes after the subject, completing the meaning of the sentence, and it is permissible to pause at it.

- "Kana" and its sisters enter the nominal sentence, raising the subject (Mubtada), which is then called its name (Ism Kana), and putting the predicate (Khabar) in the accusative case, which is then called its predicate (Khabar Kana). They are thirteen verbs: "Kana (was/were), Dhalla (remained/continued), Bata (spent the night), Adha (reached forenoon), Asbaha (reached morning), Amsa (reached evening), Sara (became), Laysa (is not), Zala (ceased), Bariha (ceased), Fatia (ceased), Infakka (unfastened/separated)".

They are divided into three categories:

First: Those that function without a condition, and they are the first eight verbs: "Kana (was/were), Dhalla (remained/continued), Bata (spent the night), Adha (reached forenoon), Asbaha (reached morning), Amsa (reached evening), Sara (became), Laysa (is not)".

Second: It is conditional that a negation, prohibition, or supplication precede it, and they are four: "Zala (ceased), Bariha (ceased), Fatia (ceased), Infakka (unfastened/separated)".

Third: It is conditional that "ma" al-masdariyya (gerundive "ma"), substituting for an adverb of time, precede it, and it is "Dama (lasted)".

"Kada" and its sisters: They are modifying verbs like "Kana" that enter the nominal sentence, raising the subject (Mubtada), which is then called its name (Ism Kada), and putting the predicate (Khabar) in the accusative case, which is then called its predicate (Khabar Kada). Its predicate (Khabar) is always a verbal sentence with a present tense verb.

Grammarians have divided them into three categories according to their meaning:

1- Verbs of approximation: They indicate the nearness of the predicate (Khabar) (Kada (almost), Karaba (nearly), Awshaka (about to)).

2- Verbs of hope, they indicate the meaning of hope in the occurrence of the predicate (Khabar) (Asa (may/perhaps), Ikhlawlaqa (deserves), Hara (likely)).

المُبْتَدَأُ: هُوَ الاسمُ الواقعُ فِي أَوَّلِ الجُمْلَةِ الاسْمِيَّةِ.
الخَبَرُ: هُوَ الاسمُ الواقعُ بَعْدَهُ الْمُتَمِّمُ لِمَعْنَى الجُمْلَةِ، وَيَصِحُّ
 الوقُوفُ عِنْدَهُ.

- كَانَ وَأَخَوَاتُهَا تَدْخُلُ عَلَى الجُمْلَةِ الاسْمِيَّةِ، فَتَرْفَعُ الْمُبْتَدَأُ وَيُسَمَّى اسْمُهَا، وَتَنْصِبُ الخَبَرَ وَيُسَمَّى خَبَرُهَا، وَهِيَ ثَلَاثَةٌ عَشَرَ فِعْلًا:
 "كَانَ، ظَلَّ، بَاتَ، أَضْحَى، أَصْبَحَ، أَمْسَى، صَارَ، لَيْسَ، زَالَ، بَرِحَ، فَتَى، انْفَكَ".

وَهِيَ ثَلَاثَةٌ أَقْسَامُ:

الأوَّلُ: يَعْمَلُ بِلا شَرْطٍ، وَهِيَ الْأَفْعَالُ الثَّمَانِيَّةُ الْأُولَى: "كَانَ، ظَلَّ،
 بَاتَ، أَضْحَى، أَصْبَحَ، أَمْسَى، صَارَ، لَيْسَ".

الثَّانِي: يُشْتَرِطُ أَنْ يَتَقَدَّمَ عَلَيْهِ نَفْيٌ أَوْ نَهْيٌ أَوْ دُعَاءٌ، وَهِيَ أَرْبَعَةٌ:
 "زَالَ، بَرِحَ، فَتَى، انْفَكَ".

الثَّالِثُ: يُشْتَرِطُ أَنْ يَتَقَدَّمَ عَلَيْهِ «مَا» الْمَصْدَرِيَّةُ النَّائِبَةُ عَنْ ظَرْفِ
 الزَّمَانِ، وَهُوَ "دَامَ".

كَادَ وَأَخَوَاتُهَا: أَفْعَالٌ نَاسِخَةٌ مِثْلَ كَانٍ تَدْخُلُ عَلَى الجُمْلَةِ الاسْمِيَّةِ
 فَتَرْفَعُ الْمُبْتَدَأُ وَيُسَمَّى اسْمُهَا، وَتَنْصِبُ الخَبَرَ وَيُسَمَّى خَبَرُهَا،
 وَخَبَرُهَا دَائِمًا جُمْلَةٌ فِعْلِيَّةٌ فِعْلُهَا مُضَارِعٌ.

وَقَدْ قَسَمَهَا النُّحَاةُ إِلَى ثَلَاثَةِ أَقْسَامٍ بِحَسَبِ دَلَالَتِهَا.

1- أَفْعَالُ الْمُقَارَبَةِ: وَتُفِيدُ اقْتِرَابَ الخَبَرِ (كَادَ، كَرَبَ، أَوْ شَكَ).

2- أَفْعَالُ الرَّجَاءِ: وَتُفِيدُ مَعْنَى الرَّجَاءِ فِي حُصُولِ الخَبَرِ (عَسَى
 .اخْلَوْلَقَ، حَرَى).

3- Verbs of Commencement: They convey the meaning of beginning an action, which is their predicate. They are numerous; some grammarians have counted up to more than twenty verbs. The most famous of these are: (shara'a (began), tafiqa (started), 'aliqa (commenced), ansh'a (initiated), akhadha (started), ja'ala (made/began), habba (began), halhala (started), ibtada'a (initiated).

- Inna and its Sisters: These are particles that govern the nominal sentence (subject-predicate sentence). They put the subject in the accusative case, and it is called its name (ismuha), and they put the predicate in the nominative case, and it is called its predicate (khabaruha). They are six particles: Inna (indeed), Anna (that), Ka'anna (as if), Lakinna (but), Layta (would that/if only), La'alla (perhaps).

- Laa Naafiyah Liljins (Laa negating the genus): It governs the nominal sentence, functioning like "Inna." It puts the subject in the accusative case, and it is called its name (ismuha), and it puts the predicate in the nominative case, and it is called its predicate (khabaruha). It functions like Inna under four conditions:

- 1- Its name (subject) and predicate must both be indefinite nouns.
- 2- Its name (subject) must precede its predicate.
- 3- There should be no separation between it and its name (subject).
- 4- It should not be preceded by a preposition.

- Dhanna and its Sisters are divided into two categories: Verbs of the Heart (mental state) and Verbs of Transformation.

Verbs of the Heart are divided into two categories:

A- Verbs of Certainty: These are verbs indicating the certainty of the occurrence of the second object, such as: "ra'aa (saw/believed), 'alima (knew), wajada (found), ta'allama (learned/knew)."

B- Verbs of Conjecture: They indicate the favoring of the occurrence of the second object, such as: "dhanna (thought), hasiba (reckoned), za'ama (claimed), 'adda (considered), khaala (imagined)."

3- Verbs of Transformation: Such as (Ja'ala - made, Sayyara - transformed, Wahaba - granted, Ittakhadha - took, Taraka - left).

3- أفعال الشروع: وتُفيد معنى البدء في الفعل الذي هو خبرها، وهي كثيرة أوصلها بعض النحاة إلى نيف وعشرين فعلاً، وأشهرها: (شَرَعَ، طَفِقَ، عَلِقَ، أَنشَأَ، أَخَذَ، جَعَلَ، هَبَ، هَلْهَلْ، ابتدا).

- إنَّ وأخواتها: حروف ناسخة تدخل على الجملة الاسمية، فتَنْصِبُ الاسمَ ويُسمَّى اسمُها وترْفَعُ الخبرَ ويُسمَّى خبرُها، وهي ستة حروف: إنَّ، أنَّ، كَأَنَّ، لَكِنَّ، لَيْتَ، لَعَلَّ.

- لا النافية للجنس: تدخل على الجملة الاسمية فتعمل عمل «إنَّ»، - فتَنْصِبُ المبتدأَ ويُسمَّى اسمُها وترْفَعُ الخبرَ ويُسمَّى خبرُها. وتعمل عمل إنَّ بأربعة شروط:

1- أن يكون اسمها وخبرها نكرتين.

2- أن يتقدم اسمها على خبرها.

3- ألا يفصل بينها وبين اسمها.

4- ألا يدخل عليها حرف جرّ.

- ظَنَّ وأخواتها تنقسم إلى قسمين: أفعال القلوب، وأفعال التحويل:

فأفعال القلوب: تنقسم إلى قسمين:

أ- أفعال اليقين: وهي الأفعال الدالة على تحقق وقوع المفعول به الثاني،

كـ "رَأَى، عَلِمَ، وَجَدَ، تَعَلَّمَ"

ب- أفعال الرجحان: وتُفيد ترجيح وقوع المفعول الثاني، كـ "ظَنَّ،

حَسِبَ، زَعَمَ، عَدَّ، خَالَ."

ج- وأفعال التحويل: كـ (جَعَلَ، صَيَّرَ، وَهَبَ، اتَّخَذَ، تَرَكَ).

The Dependents (Tawabi') follow their Matbu' (that which they depend on) in grammatical case (i'rab) whether it is nominative (raf'), accusative (nasb), or other, and they are four: (The Adjective (Na't), the Conjunction (Atf), the Emphasis (Tawkid), the Substitute (Badal)).

- The Adjective (Na't): It indicates the description of its Matbu', or its clarification, or its praise, or its dispraise. It follows it in grammatical case (i'rab), in definiteness or indefiniteness, in masculine or feminine gender, and in singular, dual or plural number.

- The most well-known Conjunctions are: "and (waw), so/then (fa), then (thumma), or (aw), or (am), but (bal)".

- The Substitute (Badal) has four types: Badal al-Shay' min al-Shay' (Substitute of a thing for a thing), Badal al-Ba'd min al-Kul (Substitute of a part from the whole), Badal al-Ishtimal (Substitute of containment), and Badal al-Mubayin (Substitute of discrepancy).

- Emphasis (Tawkid) is of two types:

1- Semantic Emphasis (Tawkid Ma'nawi), and its most famous words are: "Nafs (self), 'Ayn (essence), Kulla (all of it), Kilta (both of them - feminine), Jami' (all), 'Amma (general)" on the condition that the Mu'akkad (that which is being emphasized) precedes it, and that the Mu'akkad is definite (Ma'rifa), and that it matches it in grammatical case, and that it is added to a pronoun that refers back to the Mu'akkad.

2- Verbal Emphasis (Tawkid Lafzi): It is the repetition of the Mu'akkad with its own word, or with its synonym.

- The Absolute Object (Maf'ul Mutlaq): It is a verbal noun (masdar) that is mentioned after a verb from its own word (root) to confirm its meaning, or to indicate its number, or to indicate its type.

- The Object (Maf'ul Bih): It is the accusative noun on which the action of the subject falls, and its occurrence is either in the aspect of affirmation, or its occurrence is in the aspect of negation.

- The Adverbial Object (Maf'ul Fih): It is what is mentioned for the sake of an action that occurred in it, whether it is an adverb of time (zarf al-zaman) or an adverb of place (zarf al-makan).

التَّوَابِعُ تَتَّبَعُ مَتَّبُوعَهَا فِي إِعْرَابِهَا مِنْ رَفْعٍ أَوْ نَصْبٍ أَوْ غَيْرِهِ، وَهِيَ أَرْبَعَةٌ: (النَّعْتُ، الْعَطْفُ، التَّوَكِيدُ، الْبَدَلُ).

- النَّعْتُ: يُفِيدُ وَصْفٍ مَتَّبُوعِهِ أَوْ تَوْضِيحِهِ أَوْ مَدْحِهِ أَوْ ذَمِّهِ، وَيَتَّبَعُهُ فِي الإِعْرَابِيَّةِ وَفِي التَّعْرِيفِ أَوْ التَّنْكِيرِ، وَفِي التَّذْكِيرِ أَوْ التَّأْنِيثِ، وَفِي الْإِفْرَادِ أَوْ التَّثْنِيَةِ أَوْ الْجَمْعِ.

- حُرُوفُ الْعَطْفِ أَشْهَرُهَا: "الْوَاوُ، الْفَاءُ، ثُمَّ، أَوْ، أَمْ، بَلْ"

- الْبَدَلُ أَرْبَعَةُ أَنْوَاعٍ: بَدَلُ الشَّيْءِ مِنَ الشَّيْءِ، وَبَدَلُ الْبَعْضِ مِنَ الْكُلِّ، وَبَدَلُ الْإِشْتِمَالِ، وَبَدَلُ الْمُبَايِنِ.

- التَّوَكِيدُ نَوْعَانِ:

1- تَوَكِيدٌ مَعْنَوِي وَأَشْهُرُ أَلْفَاظِهِ: «نَفْسٌ، عَيْنٌ، كَلًّا، كِلْتَا، جَمِيعٌ، عَامَّةٌ» بِشَرْطِ أَنْ يَسْبِقُهَا الْمُؤَكَّدُ، وَأَنْ يَكُونَ الْمُؤَكَّدُ مَعْرِفَةً، وَأَنْ تُطَابِقَهُ فِي الإِعْرَابِ، وَأَنْ تُضَافَ إِلَى ضَمِيرٍ يَعُودُ إِلَى الْمُؤَكَّدِ.

2- تَوَكِيدٌ لَفْظِي: هُوَ تَكَرَّرُ الْمُؤَكَّدِ بِلَفْظِهِ، أَوْ بِمُرَادِفِهِ.

- الْمَفْعُولُ الْمُطْلَقُ: هُوَ مَصْدَرٌ يُذَكَّرُ بَعْدَ فِعْلٍ مِنْ لَفْظِهِ تَأْكِيدًا لِمَعْنَاهُ، أَوْ بَيَانًا لِعَدَدِهِ، أَوْ بَيَانًا لِنَوْعِهِ.

- الْمَفْعُولُ بِهِ: هُوَ الْأِسْمُ الْمَنْصُوبُ الَّذِي يَقَعُ عَلَيْهِ فِعْلُ الْفَاعِلِ، وَإِمَّا أَنْ يَكُونَ وَقُوعُهُ عَلَى جِهَةِ الثُّبُوتِ، وَإِمَّا أَنْ يَكُونَ وَقُوعُهُ عَلَى جِهَةِ النَّفْيِ.

- الْمَفْعُولُ فِيهِ: هُوَ مَا ذُكِرَ لِأَجْلِ أَمْرٍ وَقَعَ فِيهِ مِنْ ظَرْفِ الزَّمَانِ أَوْ ظَرْفِ الْمَكَانِ.

- The Ma'ful Ma'ah (Object Accompanied): It is the accusative noun that is mentioned to indicate who performed the action with, and it must be singular. It must be preceded by the "waw" (و) of accompaniment or association.
- The Ma'ful Li Ajlih (Object for the Reason): Also called "Ma'ful Li Ajlihi" or "Ma'ful Min Ajlihi" (Object for the sake of/from the sake of it). It is an accusative verbal noun that comes to explain the reason for the occurrence of the action, and it must share the time and the agent with it.
- The Name of Laa Naafiya Lil-Jins (Laa negating the genus): It is either singular, such as: "Laa rajulun fi ad-dar" (No man is in the house). Its ruling is that it is built on what it would be منصوب (accusative) with. Or it is a Mudaf (construct phrase), and its ruling is Nasb (accusative case), such as: "Laa talibu 'ilmin khasir" (No seeker of knowledge is a loser). Or it is similar to a Mudaf, and its ruling is Nasb (accusative case), such as: "Laa kareeman khuluquhu makrooh" (No one noble in character is disliked).
- The particles of Nidaa (vocative/calling) are: "Ya, Ay, Aa, Hiya" for the distant, and "Al-Hamza" for the near.
- The Munadaa (vocative/called) has five types: either it is Mufrad (singular), or Nakirah Maqsudah (definite indefinite), or Nakirah Ghair Maqsudah (indefinite indefinite), or Mudaf (construct phrase), or Shibh bil-Mudaf (similar to construct phrase). As for the Mufrad and the Nakirah Maqsudah, they are built on what they would be مرفوع (nominative) with, in the place of Nasb (accusative case). As for the Nakirah Ghair Maqsudah, the Mudaf, and the Shibh bil-Mudaf, they are منصوب (accusative) with Fatha.
- The Haal (Adverbial State): An accusative extra noun that clarifies the state of the subject, or the object, or both of them together.
- The Tamyiz (Specification/Discrimination): It is an accusative indefinite noun that comes to explain the ambiguous of nouns or relations.

- المفعول معه: هو الاسم المنصوب الذي يُذكر لبيان مَنْ فَعَلَ مَعَهُ الفِعْل وَيَكُون مُفْرَدًا، وَلَا بُدَّ أَنْ تَسْبِقَهُ واو المصاحبة أو المَعِيَّة.

- المفعول له: وَيُقَال لَهُ: "المفعول لِأَجْلِهِ أو المفعول مِنْ أَجْلِهِ"، وَهُوَ مَصْدَر قَلْبِي مَنْصُوب يَأْتِي لِبَيَان سَبَب وَقُوعِ الفِعْل، وَلَا بُدَّ أَنْ يُشَارِكُهُ فِي الزَّمَانِ وَفِي الْفَاعِلِ.

- اسم لَا النَّافِيَةِ لِلْجِنْس: إِمَّا أَنْ يَكُون مُفْرَدًا، مِثْل: الْأَرَجُلُ فِي الدَّارِ، وَحُكْمُهُ أَنَّهُ يُبْنَى عَلَى مَا يُنْصَب بِهِ، أَوْ مُضَافًا وَحُكْمُهُ هُوَ النَّصْب، مِثْل: لَا طَالِبَ عِلْمٍ خَاسِرٍ، أَوْ شَبِيهَا بِالْمُضَافِ وَحُكْمُهُ هُوَ النَّصْبُ مِثْلُ "لَا كَرِيمًا خُلِقَ مَكْرُوهٌ"

- أَدَوَاتُ النَّدَاءِ هِيَ "يَا، أَي، آ، هيا لِلْبَعِيدِ، وَالْهَمْزَةُ لِلْقَرِيبِ.
- المُنَادَى خَمْسَةُ أَنْوَاعٍ: إِمَّا أَنْ يَكُون مُفْرَدًا، أَوْ نَكْرَةً مَقْصُودَةً أَوْ نَكْرَةً غَيْرَ مَقْصُودَةٍ، أَوْ مُضَافًا، أَوْ شَبِيهَا بِالْمُضَافِ، فَأَمَّا الْمُفْرَدُ وَالنَّكْرَةُ الْمَقْصُودَةُ، فَيُبْنَى عَلَى مَا يُرْفَعُ بِهِ فِي مَحَلِّ نَصْبٍ.
وَأَمَّا النَّكْرَةُ الْغَيْرُ مَقْصُودَةٍ، وَالْمُضَافُ وَالشَّيْبَةُ بِالْمُضَافِ، فَيُنْصَبُ عَلَى الْفَتْحِ.

- الحَالُ: اسْمٌ فَضْلَةٌ مَنْصُوبٌ يُبَيِّنُ هَيْئَةَ الْفَاعِلِ، أَوِ الْمَفْعُولِ بِهِ، أَوْ كِلَاهُمَا مَعًا.

- التمييز: هُوَ اسْمٌ نَكْرَةٌ مَنْصُوبٌ يَأْتِي تَفْسِيرًا لِلْمُبْهَمِ مِنَ الذَّوَاتِ أَوْ النَّسَبِ.

- Exception (Istithna): It is taking out what comes after the exception particle from the ruling of what precedes it, for example: "The students attended except Zaid." - The exception particles are: "illa", "ghair", "siwa", "khala", "ada" and "hasha".

- If the sentence is complete and affirmative, the exception with "illa" is in the accusative case.

- If the sentence is negative and complete, it is permissible to have the substitute (badal) case or the accusative case as an exception.

- If the sentence is incomplete, it is according to its position in the sentence.

- The exception with "ghair" and "siwa" is always in the genitive case.

- The exception with "khala," "ada," and "hasha" can be either in the accusative or genitive case.

- The factors of the genitive case (khafdh) according to grammarians are three: the genitive by preposition, the genitive by annexation (idafa), and the genitive by following (taba'iyya).

- Prepositions (Huruf al-jar): They are "From, to, about, on, in, rubba, the ba, the kaf, the lam, and the letters of oath, which are: the waw, the ba, and the ta".

- الاستثناء: هو إخراج ما بعد أداة الاستثناء من حكم ما قبله، نحو: حضر الطلاب إلا زيدًا.
- حروف الاستثناء وهي: إلا، وغير، وسوى، وخلا، وعدا، وحاشا.
- إذا كان الكلام تامًا موجبًا فالمستثنى بإلا يُنصب.
- وإن كان الكلام منفيًا تامًا جاز فيه البدل والنصب على الاستثناء.
- وإن كان الكلام ناقصًا كان على حسب موقعه من الجملة.
- المستثنى بغير وسوى مجزور أبدًا.
- المستثنى بخلا، وعدا، وحاشا، يجوز نصبه وجره.

- عوامل الخفض عند النحاة ثلاثة: المخفض بالحرف، والمخفض بإضافة، والمخفض بالتبعية.

- حروف الجر: وهي "من، وإلى، وعن، وعلى، وفي، ورب، والباء، والكاف، واللام، وبحروف القسم، وهي: الواو، والباء، والتاء".

PREFACE

What are the principles of any science?

Every science has ten principles: (Definition, Subject Matter, Fruit/Benefit, Relationship, Merit, Founder, Name, Source, Ruling on Learning it, Issues/Problems).

Mention the principles of the science of Grammar.

1- Definition: This refers to the comprehensive definition encompassing the issues and topics of the science, preventing anything else from entering into it.

The word "Nahw" (Grammar) has six meanings in the Arabic language: (Intention, Similarity, Direction, Amount, Type/Category, Part).

The context determines the intended meaning.

It is said: "Nahawtu nahwaka," meaning: "I intended your intention."

And from its meanings is "similarity" also. You say: "Marartu birajulin nahwaka," meaning: "I passed by a man like you."

And it is said: "Dhahaba nahw al-bayt," meaning: "He went in the direction of the house."

And it is said: "Lahu ala nahw alfin," meaning: "He owes approximately a thousand."

تَمْهِيد

مَا هِيَ مَبَادِيءُ أَيِّ عِلْمٍ؟

لِكُلِّ عِلْمٍ لَهُ مَبَادِيءٌ عَشْرَةٌ، (الْحَدُّ، الْمَوْضُوعُ، الثَّمَرَةُ، النِّسْبَةُ، الْفَضْلُ، الْوَاضِعُ، الْأِسْمُ، الْأَسْتِمْدَادُ، حُكْمُ تَعَلُّمِهِ، الْمَسَائِلُ).

اذْكُرْ مَبَادِيءَ عِلْمِ النَّحْوِ؟

- 1- الْحَدُّ: وَيُقْصَدُ بِهِ التَّعْرِيفُ الْجَامِعُ لِمَسَائِلِ الْعِلْمِ وَمَبَاحِثِهِ، الْمَانِعُ مِنْ دَخُولِ غَيْرِهِ فِيهِ.
- وَالنَّحْوُ فِي اللُّغَةِ لَهُ سِتُّ مَعَانِي: (الْقَصْدُ، الْمِثْلُ، الْجِهَةُ، الْمِقْدَارُ، الْقِسْمُ، الْبَعْضُ).
- وَالْمُحَدَّدُ لِلْمَعْنَى الْمُرَادِ هُوَ السِّيَاقُ.
- يُقَالُ: نَحَوْتُ نَحْوَكَ يَعْنِي: قَصَدْتُ قَصْدَكَ.
- وَمِنْ مَعَانِيهِ: (الْمِثْلُ) أَيْضًا، تَقُولُ: مَرَزْتُ بِرَجُلٍ نَحْوَكَ؛ يَعْنِي بِرَجُلٍ مِثْلِكَ.
- وَيُقَالُ: ذَهَبَ نَحْوَ الْبَيْتِ يَعْنِي جِهَةَ الْبَيْتِ.
- وَيُقَالُ: "لَهُ عَلَى نَحْوِ أَلْفٍ"، يَعْنِي: مِقْدَارَ أَلْفٍ.

It is said: "In four directions," meaning: four sections.

It is said: "I ate approximately the fish," meaning: I ate part of the fish.

As for in terminology: It is defining the endings of words in terms of inflection (i'rab) and indeclinability (bina') according to their position in the sentence, in a manner that Arabs speak.

The definitions of inflection and indeclinability will come later.

The difference between it (grammar) and morphology (sarf) is that morphology deals with the structure of the word in isolation, regardless of its position in a sentence.

Historically, morphology was a part of grammar, but then it separated from it.

2- Subject Matter: It is the defined area in which the science researches, and the aspect in which its issues are united.

The subject matter of grammar is the Arabic language, from the aspect of researching the endings of Arabic words in their combined state in terms of inflection and indeclinability.

3- Purpose or Fruit: It is the benefit that the student of the science obtains in both this world and the hereafter.

4- Sources: That is, "the resources, sources, and scientific reasons from which the science draws its issues and requirements."

Grammar is derived from the Noble Qur'an, the Prophetic Hadith, and the speech of the Arabs.

5- Merit: That is, the status, honor, and importance of the science among the sciences.

(A means of understanding the words of God and His Messenger.

وَيُقَالُ: "عَلَى أَرْبَعَةِ أَنْحَاءٍ"، يَعْنِي: أَرْبَعَةَ أَقْسَامٍ.
 وَيُقَالُ: "أَكَلْتُ نَحْوَ السَّمَكَةِ"، يَعْنِي: أَكَلْتُ بَعْضَ السَّمَكَةِ.
 وَأَمَّا فِي الْأَصْطِلَاحِ: ضَبُطُ أَوَاخِرِ الْكَلِمَاتِ إِعْرَابًا وَبِنَاءً بِحَسَبِ مَوْقِعِهَا مِنْ
 الْجُمْلَةِ عَلَى نَحْوِ مَا يَتَكَلَّمُ بِهِ الْعَرَبُ.
 وَسَيَأْتِي تَعْرِيفُ الْإِعْرَابِ وَالْبِنَاءِ.
 وَالْفَرْقُ بَيْنَهُ وَبَيْنَ عِلْمِ الصَّرْفِ، أَنَّ عِلْمَ الصَّرْفِ يَتَنَاوَلُ بِنْيَةَ الْكَلِمَةِ مُفْرَدَةً
 بَعْضُ النَّظَرِ عَنْ وَضْعِهَا فِي جُمْلَةٍ.
 وَقَدِيمًا كَانَ عِلْمُ الصَّرْفِ جُزْءًا مِنَ النَّحْوِ، ثُمَّ انفَصَلَ عَنْهُ.

2- الْمَوْضُوعُ: وَهُوَ الْمَجَالُ الْمُحَدَّدُ الَّذِي يَبْحَثُ فِيهِ الْعِلْمُ، وَالْجِهَةُ الَّتِي
 تَتَوَحَّدُ فِيهَا مَسَائِلُهُ.

وَمَوْضُوعُ عِلْمِ النَّحْوِ: هُوَ الْكَلَامُ الْعَرَبِيُّ، مِنْ جِهَةِ الْبَحْثِ عَنْ أَوَاخِرِ
 الْكَلِمَاتِ الْعَرَبِيَّةِ فِي حَالِ تَرْكِيبِهَا مِنَ الْإِعْرَابِ وَالْبِنَاءِ.
3- الْغَايَةُ أَوِ الثَّمَرَةُ: وَهِيَ الْفَائِدَةُ الَّتِي يُحْصَلُهَا دَارِسُ الْعِلْمِ وَمُتَعَلِّمُهُ فِي
 الدَّارَيْنِ.

4- الاسْتِعْدَادُ: أَيِ "الرَّوَافِدُ وَالْمَصَادِرُ وَالْأَسْبَابُ الْعِلْمِيَّةُ الَّتِي يَسْتَقِي مِنْهَا الْعِلْمُ مَسَائِلَهُ وَمَطَالِبَهُ."
 يُسْتَمَدُّ عِلْمُ النَّحْوِ مِنَ الْقُرْآنِ الْكَرِيمِ وَمِنْ أَحَادِيثِ النَّبِيِّ، وَمِنْ كَلَامِ
 الْعَرَبِ.

5- الْفَضْلُ: أَيِ مَا لِلْعِلْمِ مِنْ مَنَزَلَةٍ وَشَرَفٍ وَأَهَمِّيَّةٍ بَيْنَ الْعُلُومِ.
 وَسَبِيلَةٌ لِفَهْمِ كَلَامِ اللَّهِ وَرَسُولِهِ.

6- The Founder, meaning: "The first to initiate the codification and classification in this science, laying its foundation and establishing its principles. This includes the evolution of authorship in the science and its stages."

The first to establish the science of Arabic grammar, lay down its foundations, and define its limits was Ali ibn Abi Talib (may Allah be pleased with him), the Commander of the Faithful. Abu al-Aswad al-Du'ali learned from him.

Abu al-Aswad narrated: "I entered upon Ali ibn Abi Talib (may Allah be pleased with him), the Commander of the Faithful, and found a parchment in his hand. I asked, 'What is this, O Commander of the Faithful?' He said, 'I have contemplated the speech of the people and found that it has become corrupted due to the mingling with these non-Arabs – meaning the foreigners. So, I wanted to establish something for them to refer to and rely upon.' Then he threw the parchment to me, and it was written: 'Speech is all noun, verb, and particle. The noun is what informs about the named, the verb is what is informed by it, and the particle is what comes for a meaning.' And he said to me, 'Follow this pattern (nahw).'"

7- The Name: Meaning the titles given by the scholars of this science to distinguish it from others, until they became its identifiers.

It was called "the science of Arabic" in the era of Abu al-Aswad.

After Abu al-Aswad, the scholars of Arabic agreed to call it "Nahw" (Grammar), taking it from the words of Imam Ali to Abu al-Aswad: "How excellent is this pattern (nahw) that you have followed."

8- The Ruling: Meaning the Islamic legal ruling concerning learning this science among the five categories of Islamic rulings. Learning it is a and it is obligatory on whoever it is communal obligation (fard kifaya), obligatory upon. Whatever is indispensable to fulfilling an obligation is itself obligatory, like one who interprets the Quran and Sunnah.

6- الواضعُ أي: "أَوَّلَ مَنْ ابْتَدَأَ التَّدْوِينَ وَالتَّصْنِيفَ فِي الْعِلْمِ، وَوَضَعَ أَسَاسَهُ وَأَرْسَى قَوَاعِيدَهُ، وَيَشْمَلُ تَطَوُّرَ التَّأْلِيفِ فِي الْعِلْمِ وَمَرَاجِلَهُ." أَوَّلَ مَنْ وَضَعَ عِلْمَ الْعَرَبِيَّةِ، وَأَسَّسَ قَوَاعِيدَهُ، وَحَدَّ حُدُودَهُ، أَمِيرُ الْمُؤْمِنِينَ عَلِيٌّ بْنُ أَبِي طَالِبٍ رَضِيَ اللَّهُ عَنْهُ، وَأَخَذَ عَنْهُ أَبُو الْأَسْوَدِ الدُّوَلِيُّ. رَوَى أَبُو الْأَسْوَدِ، قَالَ: دَخَلْتُ عَلَى أَمِيرِ الْمُؤْمِنِينَ عَلِيِّ بْنِ أَبِي طَالِبٍ رَضِيَ اللَّهُ عَنْهُ، فَوَجَدْتُ فِي يَدِهِ رُقْعَةً، فَقُلْتُ مَا هَذِهِ يَا أَمِيرَ الْمُؤْمِنِينَ؟ فَقَالَ: إِنِّي تَأَمَّلْتُ كَلَامَ النَّاسِ فَوَجَدْتُهُ قَدْ فَسَدَ بِمُخَالَطَةِ هَذِهِ الْحَمَرَاءِ - يَعْنِي الْأَعَاجِمَ - فَأَرَدْتُ أَنْ أَضَعُ لَهُمْ شَيْئًا يَرْجِعُونَ إِلَيْهِ، وَيَعْتَمِدُونَ عَلَيْهِ؛ ثُمَّ أَلْقَى إِلَى الرُّقْعَةِ، وَفِيهَا مَكْتُوبٌ: "الْكَلَامُ كُلُّهُ اسْمٌ، وَفِعْلٌ، وَحَرْفٌ، فَالاسْمُ مَا أَنْبَأَ عَنِ الْمُسَمَّى، وَالْفِعْلُ مَا أَنْبَأَ بِهِ، وَالْحَرْفُ مَا جَاءَ لِمَعْنَى"، وَقَالَ لِي: "انْحُ هَذَا النَّحْوُ"

7- الاسم: أي الألقاب التي أطلقها أهل هذا العلم عليه لتمييزه عن غيره حتى أصبحت أعلاماً عليه.

كَانَ يُسَمَّى بِعِلْمِ الْعَرَبِيَّةِ فِي عَصْرِ أَبِي الْأَسْوَدِ. وَبَعْدَ أَبِي الْأَسْوَدِ، اصْطَلَحَ عُلَمَاءُ الْعَرَبِيَّةِ عَلَى تَسْمِيَّتِهِ بِالنَّحْوِ وَأَخَذُوهُ مِنَ الْإِمَامِ عَلِيِّ لِأَبِي الْأَسْوَدِ: "مَا أَحْسَنَ هَذَا النَّحْوُ الَّذِي قَدْ نَحَوْتُ."

8- الحكم: وَيُقْصَدُ بِهِ الْحُكْمُ الشَّرْعِيُّ لِتَعَلُّمِ هَذَا الْعِلْمِ مِنْ بَيْنِ الْأَحْكَامِ التَّكْلِيفِيَّةِ الْخَمْسَةِ.

وَتَعَلُّمُهُ فَرَضُ كِفَايَةٍ، وَيَجِبُ عَلَى مَنْ وَجَبَ عَلَيْهِ، فَمَا لَا يَتِمُّ الْوَاجِبُ إِلَّا بِهِ فَهُوَ وَاجِبٌ، كَمَنْ يُفَسِّرُ الْقُرْآنَ وَالسُّنَّةَ.

9- ISSUES: These are the subjects that the science investigates and establishes, and which fall under its topic.

Like the subject and predicate, "Kana" and its sisters (verbs with similar grammatical functions)... etc.

10- RELATIONSHIP: That is, the connection of the science and its relationship to other sciences.

It is a science from the sciences of the Arabic language, and its relationship to the rest of the sciences is one of distinction and difference. It is not intertwined with the rest of the sciences, but rather it is an independent science separate from other sciences, although it may share something with them.

HOW CAN ONE MASTER ARABIC SCIENCES?

By learning the rules and training. Knowing the rules and memorizing them is not enough to avoid grammatical errors. Rather, training and applying the rules are necessary.

That is done by listening to eloquent speech, memorizing it, and repeating it, as well as reading eloquent speech and repeating it, until a person reaches grammatical solidity.

9- المسائل: وهي المطالب التي يبحثها، ويُقررها العلم والتي تندرج تحت موضوعه.
كالمبتدأ والخبر وكان وأخواتها .. إلخ

10- النسبة: أي صلة العلم وعلاقته بغيره من العلوم هو علم من علوم اللغة العربية، ونسبته لبقية العلوم التباين والتخالف، فليس متداخلاً مع بقية العلوم، بل هو علم مستقل منفصل عن غيره من العلوم، وقد يشترك معها.

كيف يتقن المرء علوم العربية ؟

بتعلم القواعد والتدريب، فمعرفة القواعد وحفظها لا تكفي لعدم اللحن والخطأ، بل لابد من التدريب والتطبيق على القواعد.
وذلك بسماع الفصح وحفظه وتكراره، وكذلك قراءة الفصح من الكلام وتكراره، حتى يصل الإنسان للمتانة النحوية.

CHAPTER ON SPEECH (Kalam)

What is speech (Kalam) in the terminology of grammarians (Nahwiyyeen)?

"Kalam" is the plural of "Kalimah" (word)

Speech (Kalam) according to grammarians is: the utterance that is composite, meaningful, and provides a benefit upon which silence is acceptable.

"Composite" means consisting of two words or more, such as "Zaid stood up" (Qama Zaidun), "Zaid is standing" (Zaidun Qa'imun).

"Meaningful and provides a benefit upon which silence is acceptable" For example, "If Zaid stood up" (In Qama Zaidun) is not speech (Kalam) according to grammarians because it does not provide a benefit upon which silence is acceptable.

What are the divisions of speech (Kalam)?

The divisions of speech are three: Noun (Ism), Verb (Fi'l), and Particle (Harf).

Each of the Noun, Verb, and Particle has a meaning in the language and meaning in the terminology of grammarians.

What is the definition of the Noun (Ism) linguistically and terminologically?

Linguistically, the Noun (Ism) is that which indicates a named thing

بَابُ الْكَلَامِ

مَا هُوَ الْكَلَامُ فِي اصْطِلَاحِ النَّحْوِيِّينَ؟

"الْكَلَامُ" جَمْعُ كَلِمَةٍ.

الْكَلَامُ عِنْدَ النَّحْوِيِّينَ : فَهُوَ اللَّفْظُ الْمُرَكَّبُ الْمُفِيدُ فَائِدَةً يُحْسِنُ السُّكُوتَ عَلَيْهَا.

«الْمُرَكَّبُ» أَيِ مِنْ كَلِمَتَيْنِ فَصَاعِدًا، كَ "قَامَ زَيْدٌ"، "زَيْدٌ قَائِمٌ"

"الْمُفِيدُ فَائِدَةً يُحْسِنُ السُّكُوتَ عَلَيْهَا." فَمَثَلًا: «إِنْ قَامَ زَيْدٌ»، لَيْسَ بِكَلَامٍ عِنْدَ النَّحْوِيِّينَ لِأَنَّهُ لَا يُفِيدُ فَائِدَةً يُحْسِنُ السُّكُوتَ عَلَيْهَا.

مَا هِيَ أَقْسَامُ الْكَلَامِ؟

أَقْسَامُ الْكَلَامِ ثَلَاثَةٌ : اسْمٌ، وَفِعْلٌ، وَحَرْفٌ.

وَكُلٌّ مِنْ الْأَسْمِ وَالْفِعْلِ وَالْحَرْفِ لَهُ مَعْنَى فِي اللُّغَةِ، وَمَعْنَى فِي اصْطِلَاحِ النَّحْوِيِّينَ.

مَا هُوَ تَعْرِيفُ الْأَسْمِ لُغَةً وَاصْطِلَاحًا؟

فَالْأَسْمُ لُغَةً مَا دَلَّ عَلَى مُسَمًّى

As for the grammarians' definition: it is a word that indicates a meaning in itself and is not associated with a time, such as: Zayd, Amr, tree, pomegranate, sky, independence. The noun indicates a meaning, and this meaning is not associated with a time, meaning it does not indicate a past, present, or future time.

What is the definition of the verb linguistically and grammatically?

Linguistically, the verb is the action.

And in the grammarians' definition: it is a word that indicates a meaning in itself and is associated with one of the three tenses. For example, "fasted" indicates a meaning, which is fasting, and the meaning is associated with the past tense. Likewise, "he fasts" indicates fasting, and the meaning is associated with the present tense. Similarly, "Fast!" indicates fasting, and a request to bring the event into existence in the future, i.e., after the time of speaking, even by a moment.

What are the types of verbs? It is divided into three types: past, present, and imperative.

The past tense is what indicates an event before the time of speaking, such as: said, wrote, fasted, prostrated.

The present tense is what indicates an event that occurs at the time of speaking or after it, such as: he says, he writes, He fasts, he prostrates.

وَأَمَّا فِي اصْطِلَاحِ النَّحَوِيِّينَ: كَلِمَةٌ دَلَّتْ عَلَى مَعْنَى فِي نَفْسِهَا وَلَمْ تَقْتَرِنْ بِزَمَنِ، مِثْلُ: زَيْدٌ، عَمَرُو، شَجَرَةٌ، رُمَانٌ، سَمَاءٌ، اسْتِقْلَالٌ فَالْإِسْمُ يَدُلُّ عَلَى مَعْنَى، وَهَذَا الْمَعْنَى غَيْرُ مُقْتَرِنٍ بِزَمَنِ، يَعْنِي لَا يَدُلُّ عَلَى زَمَنِ مَاضٍ وَلَا حَاضِرٍ وَلَا مُسْتَقْبَلٍ.

مَا هُوَ تَعْرِيفُ الْفِعْلِ لُغَةً وَاصْطِلَاحًا ؟
الْفِعْلُ لُغَةً هُوَ الْحَدَثُ.

وَفِي اصْطِلَاحِ النَّحَوِيِّينَ كَلِمَةٌ دَلَّتْ عَلَى مَعْنَى فِي نَفْسِهَا وَاقْتَرَنْتْ بِأَحَدِ الْأَزْمِنَةِ الثَّلَاثَةِ.

مِثْلُ: «صَامَ» دَلَّتْ عَلَى مَعْنَى وَهُوَ الصِّيَامُ، وَالْمَعْنَى مُقْتَرِنٌ بِالزَّمَانِ الْمَاضِي وَكَذَلِكَ "يَصُومُ" دَلَّتْ عَلَى الصِّيَامِ، وَالْمَعْنَى مُقْتَرِنٌ بِالزَّمَنِ الْحَاضِرِ، وَكَذَلِكَ "صُمَ" دَلَّتْ عَلَى الصِّيَامِ، وَعَلَى طَلَبِ إِجَادِ الْحَدَثِ فِي الْمُسْتَقْبَلِ، أَي: بَعْدَ زَمَنِ التَّكَلُّمِ وَلَوْ بِلَحْظَةٍ.

مَا هِيَ أَقْسَامُ الْفِعْلِ ؟

يُنْقَسِمُ إِلَى ثَلَاثَةِ أَقْسَامٍ مَاضٍ، وَمُضَارِعٍ، وَأَمْرٍ.

فَالْمَاضِي مَا دَلَّ عَلَى حَدَثٍ قَبْلَ زَمَانِ التَّكَلُّمِ، نَحْوُ: قَالَ، كَتَبَ،

صَامَ، سَجَدَ

وَالْمُضَارِعُ مَا دَلَّ عَلَى حَدَثٍ يَقَعُ فِي زَمَانِ التَّكَلُّمِ أَوْ بَعْدَهُ، نَحْوُ:

يَقُولُ، يَكْتُبُ، يَصُومُ، يَسْجُدُ.

And the imperative (command) is: what indicates an event whose occurrence is requested after the time of speaking, such as: "Say," "Write," "Fast," "Prostrate."

What is the definition of a particle (letter)?

The particle in the terminology of grammarians is: a word that indicates a meaning in something other than itself, and is not associated with a tense.

For example: "Hal (- Is/Does), Fi (- In), Lam (- Not), Ala (- On), Min (- From), Al-Baa' (With)." So, the particle "Hal" is a word that indicates interrogation, and this meaning is not complete unless another word is joined to it, so it is said: "Hal ja'a Zayd? (Did Zayd come?)."

And each of the noun, verb, and particle has signs that distinguish it, which the poet (or compiler) will mention.

What are the signs of the noun?

- 1- Tanween (Nunation).
- 2- Accepting Alif and Lam (Definite Article-).
- 3- Jar (Genitive Case/Prepositional Case).
- 4- Accepting a preposition from the prepositions of Jar.
- 5- Nida' (Calling/Vocative).

والأمر: مَا دَلَّ عَلَى حَدَثٍ يُطْلَبُ حُصُولُهُ بَعْدَ زَمَانِ التَّكَلُّمِ، نَحْوُ:
قُلْ، اكْتُبْ، صُمْ، اسْجُدْ.

مَا هُوَ تَعْرِيفُ الْحَرْفِ؟

الحَرْفُ فِي اصْطِلَاحِ النَّحْوِيِّينَ: كَلِمَةٌ دَلَّتْ عَلَى مَعْنَى فِي غَيْرِهَا،
وَلَمْ تَقْتَرِنْ بِزَمَانٍ.

مِثْلُ: "هَلْ، فِي، لَمْ، عَلَى، مِنْ، الْبَاءَ"، فَالْحَرْفُ "هَلْ" كَلِمَةٌ تَدُلُّ
عَلَى الْاسْتِفْهَامِ، وَهَذَا الْمَعْنَى لَا يَتِمُّ إِلَّا إِذَا انْضَمَّ إِلَيْهَا كَلِمَةٌ أُخْرَى،
فَيُقَالُ: "هَلْ جَاءَ زَيْدٌ؟".

وَلِكُلِّ مِنَ الْأَسْمِ وَالْفِعْلِ وَالْحَرْفِ عِلَامَاتٌ تُمَيِّزُهُ، سَيَذْكُرُهَا النَّاطِقُ.

مَا هِيَ عِلَامَاتُ الْأَسْمِ؟

- 1- التَّنْوِينُ.
- 2- قَبُولُ الْأَلِفِ وَاللَّامِ.
- 3- الْجَرُّ.
- 4- قَبُولُ حَرْفٍ مِنْ حُرُوفِ الْجَرِّ.
- 5- النَّدَاءُ.

If a noun accepts one sign, then it is a noun. It is not necessary for every noun to accept all the signs; it is enough for it to accept one sign.

A noun can be:

1- Tanween (nunation): For example: "Muhammadun, Nabiyyan, Rasoolin" (Muhammad, a prophet, a messenger).

2- Preceded by "Al" (the definite article): "As-samaa' " (The sky), "Al-ard" (The earth), "Ar-rasool" (The messenger), "Ar-rajul" (The man).

3- Governed by a preposition (genitive case): As in the saying of God: "Bismi Allahi Ar-Rahmani Ar-Raheem" (In the name of God, the Most Gracious, the Most Merciful).

4- Called (vocative case): Such as: "Yaa ardu" (O earth) [Hud: 11], "Yaa Moosaa" (O Moses) [Al-A'raf: 144].

What are the signs of a verb?

"Seen, Qad, Sawfa"

"Seen" and "Sawfa" precede the present tense verb and indicate the future, such as: "Sayaqoolu As-sufahaa'u" (The fools will say) [Al-Baqarah: 142], "Innee dhaahibun ilaa Rabbee sayahdeen" (Indeed, I am going to my Lord; He will guide me) [As-Saffat: 199], "Wa anna sa'yahu sawfa yuraa" (And that his effort will soon be seen) [An-Najm: 40].

"Qad": It precedes both the past and present tense verbs, such as: "Qad sami'a Allahu" (God has heard) [Al-Mujadila: 1], "Qad naraa" (We have seen) [Al-Baqarah: 114].

The imperative verb is known by its indication of a command; as in the saying of God: "Wa aqueemoo as-salata wa aatoo az-zakata warka'oo ma'a ar-raaki'een" (And establish prayer and give zakah and bow with those who bow [in worship]) [Al-Baqarah: 43].

فَإِذَا قَبِلَ الْاسْمُ عَلَامَةً وَاحِدَةً فَهُوَ اسْمٌ، وَلَيْسَ بِالضَّرُورَةِ أَنْ كُلَّ
اسْمٍ يَقْبَلُ كُلَّ الْعَلَامَاتِ، بَلْ يَكْفِي أَنْ يَقْبَلُ عَلَامَةً وَاحِدَةً.

فَالِاسْمُ يُمَكِّنُ:

1- تَنْوِينُهُ: مِثْلَ: "مُحَمَّدٌ، نَبِيًّا، رَسُولٌ"

2- إِدْخَالُ "ال" عَلَيْهِ: "السَّمَاءُ"، «الأَرْضُ»، «الرَّسُولُ»،
"الرَّجُلُ".

3- يُمْكِنُ جَرُّهُ كَقَوْلِهِ تَعَالَى: "بِسْمِ اللَّهِ الرَّحْمَنِ الرَّحِيمِ".

4- النِّدَاءُ: نَحْوَ: "يَا أَرْضُ" (هود: 11)، "يَا مُوسَى" [الأعراف:
(144)].

مَا هِيَ عَلَامَاتُ الْفِعْلِ ؟

«السَّيْنِ، قَدْ، سَوْفَ»

فَالسَّيْنِ وَسَوْفَ يَدْخُلَانِ عَلَى الْفِعْلِ الْمُضَارِعِ، وَيَدْلَانِ عَلَى
الاسْتِقْبَالِ، نَحْوُ: "سَيَقُولُ السُّفَهَاءُ" (البقرة: 142)، "إِنِّي ذَاهِبٌ
إِلَى رَبِّي سَيَّهْدِينِ" (الصافات: 199)، "وَأَنْ سَعْيُهُ سَوْفَ يُرَى" (النجم: 40).

"قَدْ" تَدْخُلُ عَلَى الْفِعْلَيْنِ الْمَاضِي وَالْمُضَارِعِ، نَحْوُ: "قَدْ سَمِعَ اللَّهُ" (المجادلة: 1)، "قَدْ نَرَى" (البقرة: 114)

وَالْفِعْلُ الْأَمْرُ يُعْرِفُ بِدَلَالَتِهِ عَلَى الطَّلَبِ؛ كَقَوْلِهِ تَعَالَى: "وَأَقِيمُوا الصَّلَاةَ وَآتُوا الزَّكَاةَ وَارْكَعُوا مَعَ الرَّاكِعِينَ" (البقرة: ٤٣)

What are the signs of a particle (or letter)?

The sign of a particle (or letter) is that it does not accept the sign of a noun, nor does it accept the sign of a verb.

مَا هِيَ عِلَامَاتُ الْحَرْفِ ؟
عِلَامَةُ الْحَرْفِ أَنَّهُ لَا يَقْبَلُ عِلَامَةَ الْاسْمِ، وَلَا يَقْبَلُ عِلَامَةَ
الْفِعْلِ.

Chapter on Inflection (I'rab)

What is the goal of the science of grammar (Nahw)?

Know – may Allah teach me and you – that the goal of the science of grammar is inflection (I'rab).

What is inflection (I'rab) linguistically and technically?

Inflection (I'rab) in the language means: change; it is said: "The camel's stomach showed i'rab," meaning its stomach changed.

And it comes in the meaning of: clarification; it is said: "I expressed (a'rabtu) what was within myself," meaning: I clarified and showed it.

And technically it is: changing the endings of words, due to the difference of operative factors (عوامل) entering upon them, either explicitly or implicitly.

What is the meaning of changing the endings of words?

And the meaning of changing the endings of words is: changing the inflectional marks to nominative (رفع), genitive (جر), accusative (نصب), or jussive (جزم).

باب الإعراب

مَا هُوَ هَدَفُ عِلْمِ النَّحْوِ ؟

اعْلَمْ - عَلَّمَنِي اللَّهُ وَإِيَّاكَ - أَنَّ هَدَفَ عِلْمِ النَّحْوِ هُوَ الْإِعْرَابُ.

مَا هُوَ الْإِعْرَابُ لُغَةً وَاصْطِلَاحًا؟

الْإِعْرَابُ فِي اللُّغَةِ: هُوَ التَّغْيِيرُ؛ يُقَالُ: أَعْرَبْتُ مَعْدَةَ الْبَعِيرِ

يَعْنِي تَغَيَّرَتْ مَعْدَتُهُ،

وَيَأْتِي بِمَعْنَى: الْإِبَانَةُ؛ يُقَالُ: أَعْرَبْتُ عَمَّا بِنَفْسِي، يَعْنِي: أَبْنَتْ وَأُظْهِرْتُ.

وَفِي الْاصْطِلَاحِ هُوَ: تَغْيِيرُ أَوَاخِرِ الْكَلِمِ، لاختلاف العوالم الداخلة عليها لفظًا أو تقديرًا.

مَا مَعْنَى تَغْيِيرِ أَوَاخِرِ الْكَلِمِ؟

وَمَعْنَى تَغْيِيرِ أَوَاخِرِ الْكَلِمِ أَي تَغْيِيرُ الْعَلَامَاتِ الْإِعْرَابِيَّةِ إِلَى الرَّفْعِ أَوْ الْجَرِّ أَوْ النَّصْبِ أَوْ الْجَزْمِ.

What are the parts of speech, and what are the meanings of "i'rab" (declension) and "bina'" (indeclinability)?

A word is divided into "mu'rab" (declinable) and "mabni" (indeclinable).

"Mu'rab" is that whose ending changes according to its position in the sentence.

For example, the word "Zayd" is a declinable noun whose ending can be either the "fatha" (accusative case), the "jar" (genitive case), or "damma" (nominative case) depending on its position in the sentence.

"Mabni" linguistically means: stability and permanence.

And in terminology: that whose ending remains in one state, even if its position in the sentence changes.

For example, the word "nahnu" (we) is an indeclinable noun, whose ending always remains in the "damma" case, wherever it occurs in the sentence.

What are the types of "bina'" (indeclinability)?

Indeclinable on the "kasra" (genitive case), such as: "ams" (yesterday), "ha'ula'i" (these).

Indeclinable on the "fatha" (accusative case), such as: "ayna" (where), "kayfa" (how).

Indeclinable on the "damma" (nominative case), such as: "haythu" (where), "mundhu" (since).

Indeclinable on the "sukoon" (absence of vowel), such as: "law" (if), "kam" (how many).

All particles (letters) are indeclinable.

مَا هِيَ أَقْسَامُ الْكَلِمَةِ ، وَمَا مَعْنَى الْإِعْرَابِ وَالْبِنَاءِ ؟
فَالْكَلِمَةُ تَنْقَسِمُ إِلَى مُعَرَّبٍ وَمَبْنِيٍّ
فَالْمُعَرَّبُ: هُوَ الَّذِي يَتَغَيَّرُ آخِرُهُ بِتَغْيِيرِ مَوْقِعِهِ فِي الْجُمْلَةِ.
 فَكَلِمَةُ "زَيْدٌ" اسْمٌ مُعَرَّبٌ يَكُونُ آخِرُهَا إِذَا الْفَتْحُ أَوْ الْجَرُّ أَوْ الضَّمُّ
 عَلَى حَسَبِ مَوْقِعِهَا فِي الْجُمْلَةِ.

وَالْمَبْنِي لُغَةً: الثَّبُوتُ وَالِاسْتِقْرَارُ.
وَفِي الْإِصْطِلَاحِ: مَا يُلْزَمُ آخِرُهُ حَالَةً وَاحِدَةً وَإِنْ تَغَيَّرَ مَوْقِعُهُ فِي
 الْجُمْلَةِ.
 فَكَلِمَةُ "نَحْنُ" اسْمٌ مَبْنِيٍّ، يُلْزَمُ آخِرُهَا الضَّمُّ أَبَدًا أَيْنَمَا وَقَعَتْ فِي
 الْجُمْلَةِ.

مَا هُوَ أَنْوَاعُ الْبِنَاءِ ؟
 الْمَبْنِي عَلَى الْكَسْرِ نَحْوُ: أَمْسٍ، هَوْلَاءِ.
 وَالْمَبْنِي عَلَى الْفَتْحِ نَحْوُ: أَيْنَ، كَيْفَ.
 وَالْمَبْنِي عَلَى الضَّمِّ نَحْوُ: حَيْثُ، مُنْذُ.
 وَالْمَبْنِي عَلَى السُّكُونِ نَحْوُ لَوْ، كَمْ.
 وَالْحُرُوفُ كُلُّهَا مَبْنِيَّةٌ.

What are the indeclinable (fixed case ending) nouns?

The indeclinable nouns are such as: pronouns, demonstrative pronouns, relative pronouns, conditional nouns, noun-verbs, and interrogative nouns.

What are the indeclinable verbs?

The imperative and past tense verbs are always indeclinable (fixed case ending). The present tense verb is always declinable (variable case ending) except when it is connected to the nun of emphasis (nun al-tawkid) or the nun of feminine plural (nun al-niswa), in which case it becomes indeclinable. For example:

"Kataba" (He wrote): past tense verb, indeclinable on the فتحة (fatha - "a" sound).

"Katabu" (They wrote): past tense verb, indeclinable on the واو (waw - represented by the "u" sound).

"Katabna" (They (feminine plural) wrote): past tense verb, indeclinable on the سكون (sukoon - no vowel sound).

"Uktub, Uktubna" (Write (singular masculine), Write (feminine plural)): imperative verb, indeclinable on the سكون (sukoon - no vowel sound).

"Uktuba" (Write (dual)): imperative verb, indeclinable on the فتحة (fatha - "a" sound).

"Uktubu" (Write (plural masculine)): imperative verb, indeclinable on the ضمة (damma - "u" sound).

"Yaktubu" (He writes): present tense verb, مرفوع (marfu' - nominative case) and its sign of رفع (raf' - nominative case) is the ضمة (damma - "u" sound).

"Yaktubna" (They (feminine plural) write): present tense verb, indeclinable on the سكون (sukoon - no vowel sound) because it is connected to the nun of feminine plural.

"Layaktubanna" (He will surely write): present tense verb, indeclinable on the فتحة (fatha - "a" sound) because it is connected to the nun of emphasis.

مَا هِيَ الْمَبْنِيَّاتُ مِنَ الْأَسْمَاءِ؟

الْمَبْنِيَّاتُ مِنَ الْأَسْمَاءِ نَحْوُ: "الضَّمَائِرُ، وَأَسْمَاءُ الْإِشَارَةِ، وَالْأَسْمَاءُ الْمُؤْصُولَةُ، وَأَسْمَاءُ الشَّرْطِ، وَأَسْمَاءُ الْأَفْعَالِ، وَأَسْمَاءُ الِاسْتِفْهَامِ".

مَا هِيَ الْمَبْنِيَّاتُ مِنَ الْأَفْعَالِ؟

الْفِعْلُ الْأَمْرُ وَالْمَاضِي مَبْنِي دَائِمًا، وَالْمُضَارِعُ يُعْرَبُ دَائِمًا إِلَّا عِنْدَ اتِّصَالِهِ بِنُونِ التَّوَكِيدِ أَوْ نُونِ النَّسْوَةِ فَإِنَّهُ يُبْنَى.
مِثَال ذَلِكَ:

"كَتَبَ" فِعْلٌ مَاضٍ مَبْنِي عَلَى الْفَتْحِ.

"كَتَبُوا" فِعْلٌ مَاضٍ مَبْنِي عَلَى الْوَاوِ.

"كَتَبْنَ" فِعْلٌ مَاضٍ مَبْنِي عَلَى السُّكُونِ.

"اَكْتُبْ، اَكْتُبْنَ،" فِعْلٌ أَمْرٌ مَبْنِي عَلَى السُّكُونِ.

"اَكْتُبَا" فِعْلٌ أَمْرٌ مَبْنِي عَلَى الْفَتْحِ.

"اَكْتُبُوا" فِعْلٌ أَمْرٌ مَبْنِي عَلَى الضَّمَّةِ.

"يَكْتُبُ" فِعْلٌ مُضَارِعٌ مَرْفُوعٌ وَعَلَامَةُ رَفْعِهِ الضَّمَّةُ.

"يَكْتُبْنَ" فِعْلٌ مُضَارِعٌ مَبْنِي عَلَى السُّكُونِ لِاتِّصَالِهِ بِنُونِ النَّسْوَةِ.

"لَيَكْتُبَنَّ" فِعْلٌ مُضَارِعٌ مَبْنِي عَلَى الْفَتْحِ لِاتِّصَالِهِ بِنُونِ التَّوَكِيدِ.

What are the types of inflection (‘I‘rāb), and what are the common and specific ones?

There are four types of inflection: nominative (ar-Raf‘), genitive (al-Jarr), accusative (an-Naṣb), and jussive (al-Jazm). Some types are common between nouns and verbs, some are specific to nouns, and some are specific to verbs.

- 1- The noun takes nominative and accusative, but not jussive.
- 2- The verb takes nominative, accusative, and jussive, but not genitive.
- 3- All particles (al-Ḥurūf) are indeclinable (Mabniyyah).

What are the inflectional markers (‘Alāmāt al-‘I‘rāb) for each of the four types of inflection?

First: Nominative, which has four markers, one primary (‘Aṣliyyah), which is "the Dammah," and three secondary (Far‘iyyah), which are: "the Waw, the Alif, and the Nun."

Second: Accusative, which has one primary marker, which is "the Fatha," and four secondary markers, which are: "the Alif, the Ya, the Kasrah, and the omission of the Nun."

Third: Genitive, which has three markers, one primary, which is "the Kasrah," and two secondary markers that substitute for it, which are: "the Ya, and the Fatha."

Fourth: Jussive, which has two markers, one primary, which is "the Sukun," and one secondary, which is the omission of the vowel letter (Ḥarf al-‘Illah).

مَا هِيَ أَنْوَاعُ الإِعْرَابِ، وَمَا الْمُشْتَرِكُ مِنْهَا وَالْخَاصُّ ؟

أَنْوَاعُ الإِعْرَابِ أَرْبَعَةٌ: الرَّفْعُ، الْجَرُّ، النَّصْبُ، الْجَزْمُ.
فَمِنْهَا أَنْوَاعٌ مُشْتَرَكَةٌ بَيْنَ الْأَسْمِ وَالْفِعْلِ، وَأَنْوَاعٌ خَاصَّةٌ بِالْأَسْمِ،
وَأَنْوَاعٌ خَاصَّةٌ بِالْفِعْلِ.

1- الإِسْمُ يَدْخُلُهُ الرَّفْعُ وَالنَّصْبُ وَلَا جَزْمٌ فِيهِ.

2- الْفِعْلُ يَدْخُلُهُ الرَّفْعُ وَالنَّصْبُ وَالْجَزْمُ وَلَا جَرٌّ فِيهِ.

3- الْحُرُوفُ كُلُّهَا مَبْنِيَّةٌ.

مَا هِيَ عَلَامَاتُ الإِعْرَابِ لِكُلِّ نَوْعٍ مِنْ أَنْوَاعِ الإِعْرَابِ الْأَرْبَعَةِ؟

الْأَوَّلُ: الرَّفْعُ، وَلَهُ أَرْبَعُ عَلَامَاتٍ: وَاحِدَةٌ أَصْلِيَّةٌ وَهِيَ «الضَّمَّة»،
وِثْلَاثَةٌ فَرْعِيَّةٌ وَهِيَ: "الْوَاوُ، وَالْأَلِفُ، وَالنُّونُ".

الثَّانِي: النَّصْبُ، وَاحِدَةٌ أَصْلِيَّةٌ وَهِيَ "الْفَتْحَةُ"، وَأَرْبَعَةٌ فَرْعِيَّةٌ وَهِيَ
"الْأَلِفُ وَالْيَاءُ وَالْكَسْرَةُ وَحَذْفُ النُّونِ".

الثَّالِثُ: الْجَرُّ، وَلَهُ ثَلَاثُ عَلَامَاتٍ، وَاحِدَةٌ أَصْلِيَّةٌ وَهِيَ "الْكَسْرَةُ"،
وَعَلَامَتَانِ فَرْعِيَّتَانِ تَنْوَبَانِ عَنْهَا وَهُمَا: "الْيَاءُ، وَالْفَتْحَةُ".

الرَّابِعُ: الْجَزْمُ، وَلَهُ عَلَامَتَانِ، وَاحِدَةٌ أَصْلِيَّةٌ وَهِيَ «السُّكُونُ»
وَاحِدَةٌ فَرْعِيَّةٌ وَهِيَ حَذْفُ حَرْفِ الْعِلَّةِ.

Mention what is inflected with subsidiary signs:

There are seven types that are inflected with subsidiary signs:

- 1- The Six Nouns ('al-'asmā' al-sittah).
- 2- The Dual ('al-muthannā).
- 3- The Sound Masculine Plural (jam' al-mudhakkar al-sālim).
- 4- The Sound Feminine Plural in the accusative case (jam' al-mu'annath al-sālim fī ḥālat al-naṣb).
- 5- The Diptote in the genitive case ('al-mamnū' min al-ṣarf fī ḥālat al-jarr).
- 6- The Five Verbs ('al-'amthilah al-khamsah).
- 7- The Defective Verb in the imperfect tense ('al-fi'l al-muḍāri' al-mu'tal al-'ākhar).

Other than these are inflected with principal signs according to their position in the sentence: nominative with a dammah, accusative with a fatha, genitive with a kasrah, and jussive with a sukun.

اذكر ما يُعَرَّبُ بِالْعَلَامَاتِ الْفَرَعِيَّةِ:

مَا يُعَرَّبُ بِالْعَلَامَاتِ الْفَرَعِيَّةِ سَبْعَةُ أَصْنَافٍ:

- 1- الْأَسْمَاءُ السِّنَّةُ.
- 2- الْمُتَنِّي.
- 3- جَمْعُ الْمَذَكَّرِ السَّالِمِ.
- 4- جَمْعُ الْمُؤَنَّثِ السَّالِمِ فِي حَالَةِ النَّصْبِ.
- 5- الْمَمْنُوعُ مِنَ الصَّرْفِ فِي حَالَةِ الْجَرِّ.
- 6- الْأَمْتَلَةُ الْخَمْسَةُ.
- 7- الْفِعْلُ الْمُضَارِعُ الْمُعْتَلُّ الْآخَرُ.

وغير ذلك فيُعَرَّبُ بِالْعَلَامَاتِ الْأَصْلِيَّةِ حَسَبِ مَوْقِعِهِ فِي الْجُمْلَةِ، رَفْعًا بِالضَّمَّةِ ، وَنَصْبًا بِالْفَتْحَةِ، وَجَرًّا بِالْكَسْرِ، وَجَزْمًا بِالسُّكُونِ.

The Six Nouns

What are the Six Nouns?

The Six Nouns are: "Abun" (father), "Akhun" (brother), "Hamun" (father-in-law or relative by marriage), "Hunun" (vagina), "Fuwun" (mouth), and "Dhu" (possessor, meaning "owner").

They are nominative with the "Waw" in place of the "Dammah," accusative with the "Alif" in place of the "Fathah," and genitive with the "Ya" in place of the "Kasrah."

These three states are exemplified in the verse: "When they said, "Joseph and his brother are more loved to our father than we, while we are a clan. Indeed, our father is in clear error." (12:8).

"Wa Akhuhu" (and his brother) is a conjunction, nominative, and its nominative sign is the "Waw" substituting for the "Dammah."

"Abeena" (to our father) is genitive with "Ilaa" (to) and its genitive sign is the "Ya" substituting for the "Kasrah."

"Abana" (our father) is the name of "Inna" (indeed) and is accusative, and its accusative sign is the "Alif" substituting for the "Fathah."

What are the conditions for the Six Nouns to be inflected with secondary vowels?

Four conditions must be met for the Six Nouns to be inflected with secondary vowels:

First: That they are in the construct state (possessive construction), such as: "And our father is an old man" (28:23). "So his soul permitted to him the murder of his brother, and he killed him" (5:30). If they are not in the construct state, they are inflected with primary vowels, such as: "A father came" and "I passed by a brother."

الأسماء الستة

ما هي الأسماء الستة؟

الأسماء الستة: هي "أَب، واخ، وحم، وهن، وفو، وذو بمعنى صاحب".

فُتْرِعُ بِالْوَاوِ نِيَابَةً عَنِ الضَّمَّةِ، وَتُنْصَبُ بِالْأَلِفِ نِيَابَةً عَنِ الْفَتْحَةِ، وَتُجَرُّ بِالْيَاءِ نِيَابَةً عَنِ الْكَسْرِ.

وَقَدْ جُمِعَتِ الثَّلَاثَةُ فِي قَوْلِهِ تَعَالَى: (إِذْ قَالُوا لِيُوسُفُ وَأَخُوهُ أَحَبُّ إِلَيْنَا أُبَيْنَا مَنَا وَنَحْنُ عُصْبَةٌ إِنَّ أَبَانَا لَفِي ضَلَالٍ مُبِينٍ)

"وَأَخُوهُ" مَعْطُوفٌ مَرْفُوعٌ وَعَلَامَةٌ رَفَعِهِ الْوَاوُ نِيَابَةً عَنِ الضَّمَّةِ.

"أُبَيْنَا" مَجْرُورٌ بِأَلِی وَعَلَامَةُ جَرِّهِ الْيَاءُ نِيَابَةً عَنِ الْكَسْرِ.

"أَبَانَا" اسْمٌ إِنَّ مَنْصُوبٌ وَعَلَامَةُ نَصْبِهِ الْأَلِفُ نِيَابَةً عَنِ الْفَتْحَةِ.

ما هي شروط إعراب الأسماء الستة بالحركات الفرعية؟

يُشْتَرِطُ لِإِعْرَابِ الْأَسْمَاءِ السَّتَةِ بِالْحَرَكَاتِ الْفَرَعِيَّةِ أَرْبَعَةُ شُرُوطٍ:

الأول: أَنْ تَكُونَ مُضَافَةً نَحْوَ: "وَأَبُونَا شَيْخٌ كَبِيرٌ" (القصص: 23)

"فَطَوَّعَتْ لَهُ نَفْسُهُ قَتْلَ أَخِيهِ فَقَتَلَهُ" (المائدة: 30) فَإِنْ لَمْ

يَكُنْ مُضَافَةً أُعْرِبَتْ بِالْحَرَكَاتِ الْأَصْلِيَّةِ نَحْوَ: (جَاءَ أَبٌ) ، (مَرَرْتُ بِأَخٍ).

Secondly: That it is added to something other than the "ya' al-mutakallim" (the first person singular possessive pronoun). If it is added to the "ya' al-mutakallim," it is declined with the original implied vowels, such as: "Jaa'a abee" (My father came). "Abee" is declined as a nominative subject marked with the implied damma.

Thirdly: That it is not diminutive. If it is diminutive, it is declined with the original apparent vowels, such as: "Hatha ubayyu Zaydun" (This is Zayd's little father), "Marartu bidhuwayyi maalin" (I passed by the possessors/owners of some small wealth).

Fourthly: That it is singular. If it is plural, it is declined with the original apparent vowels, such as: "Jaa'a aabaau Zaydun" (Zayd's fathers came), "Marartu bi'ikhwati Zaydun" (I passed by Zayd's brothers). And if it is dual, it is declined with the declension of the dual, which will be explained later.

الثاني: أَنْ تَكُونَ مُضَافَةً إِلَى غَيْرِ يَاءِ الْمُتَكَلِّمِ، فَإِنْ أُضِيفَتْ إِلَى يَاءِ الْمُتَكَلِّمِ أُعْرِبَتْ بِالْحَرَكَاتِ الْأَصْلِيَّةِ الْمُقَدَّرَةِ، نَحْوُ: "جَاءَ أَبِي" فَأَبِي تُعْرَبُ فَاعِلٌ مَرْفُوعٌ وَعَلَامَةٌ رَفْعِهِ الضَّمَّةُ الْمُقَدَّرَةُ.

الثالث: أَنْ تَكُونَ مُكَبَّرَةً، فَإِنْ صُغِّرَتْ أُعْرِبَتْ بِالْحَرَكَاتِ الْأَصْلِيَّةِ الظَّاهِرَةِ نَحْوُ: "هَذَا أَبِي زَيْدٌ"، "مَرَرْتُ بِذَوِي مَالٍ".

الرابع: أَنْ تَكُونَ مُفْرَدَةً، فَإِنْ كَانَتْ مَجْمُوعَةً أُعْرِبَتْ بِالْحَرَكَاتِ الْأَصْلِيَّةِ الظَّاهِرَةِ، نَحْوُ: "جَاءَ آبَاءُ زَيْدٍ"، "مَرَرْتُ بِأَخَوَةِ زَيْدٍ"، وَإِنْ كَانَتْ مُثْنَاهُ أُعْرِبَتْ إِعْرَابُ الْمُثْنَى، وَسَيَأْتِي بَيَانُهُ.

The Dual

What is the dual form, and what is its grammatical declension (i'rab)?

The dual form: It is every noun that indicates two, and it is a contraction for two coordinated (related) nouns, such as: Muhammadan (two Muhammads), Zaydan (two Zayds). The origin of the first is (Muhammad) and (Muhammad), and the origin of the second is (Zayd) and (Zayd).

The dual form is raised (nominative case) with the Alif as a substitute for the Damma, and it is put in the accusative or genitive case with the Ya as a substitute for the Kasra and it is put in the accusative case with the Ya as a substitute for the Fatha.

An example of the nominative case is the Almighty's saying: "Said two men" (Al-Ma'idah: 23). Rajulan (two men): Subject (fa'il) in the nominative case, and the sign of its nominative case is the Alif, substituting for the Damma because it is dual.

An example of the genitive case is the Almighty's saying: "Created the earth in two days" (Fussilat: 9). Yawmain (two days): Noun in the genitive case, and the sign of its genitive case is the Ya, substituting for the Kasra because it is dual.

An example of the accusative case is the Almighty's saying: "And We substituted for them, for their two gardens, two gardens" (Saba: 16). Bijannatayhim (for their two gardens): The Ba is a preposition built on Kasra and has no place in the grammatical declension. Jannatayhim (their two gardens) is a noun in the genitive case with the Ba, and the sign of its genitive case is the Ya, substituting for the Kasra because it is dual, and it is a Mudaf (possessed noun). The Nun of the dual form has been omitted because of the Idafa (possession). And "them" is a connected pronoun built in the position of a genitive Mudaf Ilaih (possessor). The preposition and the noun it governs are related to "We substituted". "Jannatayn (two gardens) is a second object (maf'ul bihi thani) in the accusative case (mansub), and its accusative marker (alamat nasbihi) is the ya substituting for the fatha because it is dual (muthanna)."

المُثَنَّى

مَا هُوَ الْمُثَنَّى، وَمَا إِعْرَابُهُ ؟

المُثَنَّى: هُوَ كُلُّ اسْمٍ دَلَّ عَلَى اثْنَيْنِ، وَكَانَ اخْتِصَارًا لِلْمُتَعَاظِفَيْنِ، نَحْو: مُحَمَّدَانِ، زَيْدَانِ، فَإِنَّ أَصْلَ الْأَوَّلِ (مُحَمَّدٌ) وَ (مُحَمَّدٌ)، وَأَصْلُ الثَّانِي (زَيْدٌ) وَ (زَيْدٌ).

و الْمُثَنَّى يُرْفَعُ بِالْأَلِفِ نِيَابَةً عَنِ الصَّمَةِ، وَيُجَرُّ بِالْيَاءِ نِيَابَةً عَنِ الْكُسْرَةِ وَيُنْصَبُ بِالْيَاءِ نِيَابَةً عَنِ الْفَتْحَةِ.
فَمِثَالُ الرَّفْعِ: قَوْلُهُ تَعَالَى: " قَالَ رَجُلَانِ " (المائدة: ٢٣)
رَجُلَانِ: فَاعِلٌ مَرْفُوعٌ وَعَلَامَةٌ رَفَعِهِ الْأَلِفُ نِيَابَةً عَنِ الصَّمَةِ لِأَنَّهُ مُثَنَّى.

وَمِثَالُ الْجَرِّ: قَوْلُهُ تَعَالَى: " خَلَقَ الْأَرْضَ فِي يَوْمَيْنِ " (فصلت: ٩)
يَوْمَيْنِ: اسْمٌ مَجْرُورٌ وَعَلَامَةٌ جَرَّهُ الْيَاءُ نِيَابَةً عَنِ الْكُسْرَةِ لِأَنَّهُ مُثَنَّى.
وَمِثَالُ النَّصْبِ: قَوْلُهُ تَعَالَى: " وَبَدَّلْنَاهُمْ بِجَنَّتَيْهِمْ جَنَّتَيْنِ " (سبأ: ١٦).

بِجَنَّتَيْهِمْ: الْبَاءُ حَرْفٌ جَرَّ مَبْنِي عَلَى الْكُسْرِ لَا مَحَلَّ لَهُ مِنَ الْإِعْرَابِ، وَجَنَّتَيْهِمْ اسْمٌ مَجْرُورٌ بِالْبَاءِ وَعَلَامَةٌ جَرِّهِ الْيَاءُ نِيَابَةً عَنِ الْكُسْرَةِ لِأَنَّهُ مُثَنَّى، وَهُوَ مُضَافٌ، وَقَدْ حُذِفَتْ نُونُ الْمُثَنَّى لِلِإِضَافَةِ، وَهُمْ ضَمِيرٌ مَبْنِي مُتَّصِلٌ فِي مَحَلٍّ جَرَّ مُضَافٌ إِلَيْهِ، وَالْجَارُ وَالْمَجْرُورُ مُتَعَلِّقَانِ بِبَدَّلْنَاهُمْ.

جَنَّتَيْنِ: مَفْعُولٌ بِهِ ثَانِي مَنْصُوبٌ وَعَلَامَةُ نَصْبِهِ الْيَاءُ نِيَابَةً عَنِ الْفَتْحَةِ لِأَنَّهُ مُثَنَّى.

Masculine Plural Sound Noun

What is the Masculine Plural Sound Noun?

It is what denotes more than two by adding a "waw" and a "nun" at the end in the nominative case, and a "yaa" and a "nun" in the accusative and genitive cases.

It is nominative with the "waw" replacing the "dammah," and accusative and genitive with the "yaa" which has a kasrah (vowel mark) before it and a fatha (vowel mark) after it, replacing the fatha and kasrah.

An example of the nominative case is the Almighty's saying: "Successful indeed are the believers" (Al-Mu'minun: 1). "Al-Mu'minun" (the believers): is a subject (fa'il) in the nominative case, and its sign of being nominative is the "waw" replacing the "dammah" because it is a Masculine Plural Sound Noun.

An example of the genitive case is the Almighty's saying: "And fear the Fire which has been prepared for the disbelievers" (Al-Imran: 131). "Lil-kafirin" (for the disbelievers): "Li" is a preposition, built on kasrah, with no place in the syntax, and "al-kafirin" (the disbelievers): is a noun in the genitive case, and its sign of being in the genitive case is the "yaa" replacing the kasrah because it is a Masculine Plural Sound Noun.

An example of the accusative case is the Almighty's saying: "And we were a people astray" (Al-Mu'minun: 109). "Dallin" (astray): is an adjective in the accusative case, and its sign of being in the accusative case is the "yaa" replacing the fatha because it is a Masculine Plural Sound Noun.

جَمْعُ الْمَذْكُرِ السَّالِمِ

ما هو جَمْعُ الْمَذْكُرِ السَّالِمِ ؟

هُوَ مَا دَلَّ عَلَى أَكْثَرِ مِنْ اثْنَيْنِ بِزِيَادَةِ وَاوٍ وَ نُونٍ فِي آخِرِهِ عِنْدَ الرَّفْعِ ،
وَيَاءٍ وَ نُونٍ فِي حَالَتِي النَّصْبِ وَالْجَرِّ .

يُرْفَعُ بِالْوَاوِ نِيَابَةً عَنِ الضَّمَّةِ ، وَيُنْصَبُ وَيُجَرُّ بِاليَاءِ الْمَكْسُورِ مَا
قَبْلَهَا الْمَفْتُوحُ مَا بَعْدَهَا نِيَابَةً عَنِ الْفَتْحَةِ وَالْكَسْرِ .

فَمِثَالُ الرَّفْعِ: قَوْلُهُ تَعَالَى : (قَدْ أَفْلَحَ الْمُؤْمِنُونَ) (المؤمنون: 1)
الْمُؤْمِنُونَ: فَاعِلٌ مَرْفُوعٌ وَعَلَامَةُ رَفْعِهِ الْوَاوُ نِيَابَةً عَنِ الضَّمَّةِ لِأَنَّهُ
جَمْعُ مُذَكَّرٍ سَالِمٍ .

وَمِثَالُ الْجَرِّ قَوْلُهُ تَعَالَى : (وَاتَّقُوا النَّارَ الَّتِي أُعِدَّتْ لِلْكَافِرِينَ) (ال عِمْرَان: ١٣)

لِلْكَافِرِينَ: اللَّامُ حَرْفُ جَرٍّ مَبْنِي عَلَى الْكَسْرِ لَا مَحَلَّ لَهُ مِنَ الْإِعْرَابِ ،
وَالْكَافِرِينَ: اسْمٌ مَجْرُورٌ وَعَلَامَةُ جَرِّهِ الْيَاءُ نِيَابَةً عَنِ الْكَسْرِ لِأَنَّهُ
جَمْعُ مُذَكَّرٍ سَالِمٍ .

وَمِثَالُ النَّصْبِ قَوْلُهُ تَعَالَى : " وَكُنَّا قَوْمًا ضَالِّينَ " (المؤمنون: 109)
ضَالِّينَ: نَعْتُ مَنْصُوبٌ وَعَلَامَةُ نَصْبِهِ الْيَاءُ نِيَابَةً عَنِ الْفَتْحَةِ لِأَنَّهُ
جَمْعُ مُذَكَّرٍ سَالِمٍ .

The Feminine Plural Sound

Examples include "skies (samawat), Zaynabats (plural of the name Zaynab), gardens (jannat), pigeons (hamamat), stables (istiblat)". It is nominative with the damma, genitive with the kasra, and accusative also with the kasra.

Example of the accusative case: The saying of God Almighty: "His Kursi extends over the heavens and the earth" [Al-Baqarah: 255].

"heavens (السَّمَوَاتِ)": an object of the verb (مفعول به) in the accusative case (منصوب), and its accusative marker is the kasra (ِ) in place of the fatha (َ) because it is a feminine plural sound (جمع مؤنث سالم).

And His saying Almighty: "Then go forth in companies" [An-Nisa: 71].

"companies (ثَبَاتٍ)": an adverb of manner (حال) in the accusative case (منصوب), and its accusative marker is the kasra (ِ) in place of the fatha (َ) because it is a feminine plural sound (جمع مؤنث سالم).

جَمْعُ الْمُؤَنَّثِ السَّالِمِ

نَحْوُ "سَمَوَاتٍ، زَيْنَبَاتٍ، جَنَّاتٍ، حَمَامَاتٍ، اضْطِيبَاتٍ"،
فَيُرْفَعُ بِالضَّمَّةِ وَيُجَرُّ بِالْكَسْرِ، وَيُنْصَبُ أَيْضًا بِالْكَسْرِ.

مِثَالُ النَّصْبِ: قَوْلُهُ تَعَالَى: "وَسِعَ كُرْسِيُّهُ السَّمَاوَاتِ وَالْأَرْضَ" [البقرة: ٢٥٥].

السَّمَوَاتِ: مَفْعُولٌ بِهِ مَنْصُوبٌ وَعَلَامَةُ نَصْبِهِ الْكَسْرَةُ نِيَابَةً
عَنِ الْفَتْحَةِ لِأَنَّهُ جَمْعٌ مُؤَنَّثٌ سَالِمٌ.

وقَوْلُهُ تَعَالَى: "فَانْفِرُوا ثُبَاتٍ" [النساء: ٧١].

ثُبَاتٍ: حَالٌ مَنْصُوبٌ وَعَلَامَةُ نَصْبِهِ الْكَسْرَةُ نِيَابَةً عَنِ الْفَتْحَةِ
لِأَنَّهُ جَمْعٌ مُؤَنَّثٌ سَالِمٌ.

The Indeclinable Noun (Mamnu' min al-Sarf)

What is an indeclinable noun (mamnu' min al-Sarf)?

The indeclinable noun (mamnu' min al-Sarf) is a noun that does not accept tanween (nunation). It is raised with a dammah (nominative), takes a fatha (accusative), and is declined in the genitive case with a fatha instead of a kasrah. It is not nunated, provided that it is not in the construct state (i.e., followed by a genitive noun), or does not occur after "al" (the definite article). If it is in the construct state or occurs after "al," it is declined in the genitive case with a kasrah and accepts tanween.

Example of the genitive case: Allah the Almighty says: "And We inspired Abraham, Ishmael, Isaac, Jacob, the Tribes, Jesus, Job, Jonah, Aaron, and Solomon..." (An-Nisa: 163)

"Ibrahim" (Abraham): A noun in the genitive case governed by "ila" (to), and its genitive marker is the fatha substituting for the kasrah because it is indeclinable (mamnu' min al-Sarf). The names of the prophets that follow are coordinated to it, in the genitive case, and their genitive marker is the fatha substituting for the kasrah because they are indeclinable (mamnu' min al-Sarf), except for "al-Asbat" (the Tribes), which is in the genitive case with a kasrah because it is a broken plural.

And Allah the Almighty says: "They worked for him as he desired, (making) arches, images..." (Saba: 13).

"Maharib" (Arches): A noun in the genitive case, and its genitive marker is the fatha substituting for the kasrah because it is indeclinable (mamnu' min al-Sarf).

"Wa tamathila" (and images): The "wa" (and) is a conjunction particle built on fatha, having no place in grammatical parsing. "Tamathila" (images) is coordinated, in the genitive case, and its genitive marker is the fatha substituting for the kasrah because it is indeclinable (mamnu' min al-Sarf).

المَمْنُوعُ مِنَ الصَّرْفِ

ما هو الاسمُ المَمْنُوعُ مِنَ الصَّرْفِ ؟

المَمْنُوعُ مِنَ الصَّرْفِ: هُوَ اسْمٌ لَا يَقْبَلُ التَّنْوِينَ فَيُرْفَعُ بِالضَّمَّةِ، وَيُنْصَبُ بِالْفَتْحَةِ وَيُجَرُّ بِالْفَتْحَةِ، وَلَا يَنْوَنُ، بِشَرْطِ أَلَّا يَكُونَ مِضَافًا، أَوْ يَقَعُ بَعْدَ أَلِفٍ وَلَامٍ، فَإِنْ أَضِيفَ أَوْ وَقَعَ بَعْدَ أَلِفٍ وَلَامٍ جُرَّ بِالْكَسْرِ، وَقَبِلَ التَّنْوِينَ.

مِثَالُ الْجَرِّ: قَوْلُهُ تَعَالَى: (وَأَوْحَيْنَا إِلَىٰ إِبْرَاهِيمَ وَإِسْمَاعِيلَ وَإِسْحَاقَ وَيَعْقُوبَ وَالْأَسْبَاطِ وَعِيسَىٰ وَأَيُّوبَ وَيُونُسَ وَهَارُونَ وَسُلَيْمَانَ) (النساء: ١٦٣)

إِبْرَاهِيمَ: اسْمٌ مَجْرُورٌ بِـ (إِلَى) وَعَلَامَةُ جَرِّهِ الْفَتْحَةُ نِيَابَةً عَنِ الْكَسْرِ لِأَنَّهُ مَمْنُوعٌ مِنَ الصَّرْفِ، وَمَا بَعْدَهُ مِنْ أَسْمَاءِ النَّبِيِّينَ مَعْطُوفٌ عَلَيْهِ مَجْرُورٌ وَعَلَامَةُ الْجَرِّ الْفَتْحَةُ نِيَابَةً عَنِ الْكَسْرِ لِأَنَّهُ مَمْنُوعٌ مِنَ الصَّرْفِ، عَدَا الْأَسْبَاطِ فَإِنَّهُ مَجْرُورٌ بِالْكَسْرِ لِأَنَّهُ جَمْعٌ تَكْسِيرٌ.

وقوله تعالى: "يَعْمَلُونَ لَهُ مَا يَشَاءُ مِنْ تَحَارِبٍ وَتَمَائِيلٍ" (سبأ: ١٣).

تَحَارِبٍ: اسْمٌ مَجْرُورٌ وَعَلَامَةُ جَرِّهِ الْفَتْحَةُ نِيَابَةً عَنِ الْكَسْرِ لِأَنَّهُ مَمْنُوعٌ مِنَ الصَّرْفِ.

وَتَمَائِيلٍ: الْوَاوُ حَرْفٌ عَظْفٌ مَبْنِي عَلَى الْفَتْحِ لَا مَحَلَّ لَهُ مِنْ الْإِعْرَابِ، وَ "تَمَائِيلٍ" مَعْطُوفٌ مَجْرُورٌ وَعَلَامَةُ جَرِّهِ الْفَتْحَةُ نِيَابَةً عَنِ الْكَسْرِ لِأَنَّهُ مَمْنُوعٌ مِنَ الصَّرْفِ.

The Five Verbs

What are the Five Verbs?

They are every imperfect (present/future) verb that is connected to the dual "alif" (ʾalif al-ithnayn), such as "yafʿalāni, tafʿalāni" (they [dual] do, you [dual] do); or the plural "waw" (waw al-jamʿ), such as "yafʿalūna, tafʿalūna" (they [plural] do, you [plural] do); or the feminine singular "ya'" (ya' al-mukhāṭabah), such as "tafʿalīna" (you [feminine singular] do).

They are raised (nominative case) with the presence of the "nun" (nūn), replacing the "dammah" (ḍammah); and they are made subjunctive and jussive (accusative and genitive cases) by the deletion of the "nun," replacing the "fatha" (faṭḥah) and the "sukūn" (sukūn).

An example of the raised form is the saying of God Almighty:

"And they do not perceive" (Al-Imran: 69), "Or do they not know that God knows what they conceal and what they declare?" (Al-Baqarah: 77), "In both of them are two springs flowing" (Ar-Rahman: 50), "And they do not teach it to anyone" (Al-Baqarah: 102).

An example of the subjunctive form is: "Never will you attain the good [reward] until you spend" (Al-Imran: 92).

"Tanālū" (attain): an imperfect verb in the subjunctive case because of "lan" (never), and its sign of being in the subjunctive case is the deletion of the "nun" because it is one of the Five Verbs.

الأمثلة الخمسة

مَا هِيَ الْأُمْتَلَةُ الْخَمْسَةُ؟

هِيَ كُلُّ فِعْلٍ مُضَارِعٍ اتَّصَلَ بِهِ أَلِفُ الْاِثْنَيْنِ نَحْوُ: «يَفْعِلَانِ، تَفْعِلَانِ» أَوْ وَاوِ الْجَمْعِ نَحْوُ يَفْعَلُونَ، تَفْعَلُونَ، أَوْ يَاءِ الْمُخَاطَبَةِ نَحْوُ "تَفْعَلِينَ".

فَتُرْفَعُ بِثُبُوتِ النُّونِ نِيَابَةً عَنِ الضَّمَّةِ، وَتُنْصَبُ وَتُجْزَمُ بِحَذْفِ النُّونِ نِيَابَةً عَنِ الْفَتْحَةِ وَالسُّكُونِ.

فَمِثَالُ الرَّفْعِ: قَوْلُهُ تَعَالَى: "وَمَا يَشْعُرُونَ" (ال عمران: ٦٩)، "أَوْ لَا يَعْلَمُونَ أَنَّ اللَّهَ يَعْلَمُ مَا يُسِرُّونَ وَمَا يُعْلِنُونَ" (البقرة: ٧٧)، "فِيهِمَا عَيْنَانِ تَجْرِيَانِ" (الرحمن: ١٥٠)، "وَمَا يُعْلَمَانِ مِنْ أَحَدٍ" (البقرة: ١٠٢).

وَمِثَالُ النَّصْبِ: "لَنْ تَنَالُوا الْبِرَّ حَتَّى تُنْفِقُوا" (آل عمران: ٩٢).
تَنَالُوا: فِعْلٌ مُضَارِعٌ مَنْصُوبٌ بِـ "لَنْ" وَعَلَامَةُ نَصْبِهِ حَذْفُ النُّونِ لِأَنَّهُ مِنَ الْأُمْتَلَةِ الْخَمْسَةِ.

"Tunfiqū" (spend): an imperfect verb in the subjunctive case because of "hatta" (until), and its sign of being in the subjunctive case is the deletion of the "nun" because it is one of the Five Verbs.

And an example of the jussive form is the saying of God Almighty: "What you did not know" (Al-Baqarah: 15).

"Takūnū" (you be): an imperfect verb in the jussive case, and its sign of being in the jussive case is the deletion of the "nun" because it is one of the Five Verbs.

"Ta'lamūna" (you know): an imperfect verb in the nominative case, and its sign of being in the nominative case is the presence of the "nun" because it is one of the Five Verbs.

تُنْفِقُوا: فِعْلٌ 1 مُضَارِعٌ مَنْصُوبٌ بِـ « حَتَّى » وَعَلَامَةُ نَصْبِهِ حَذْفُ النُّونِ لِأَنَّهُ مِنَ الْأَمْثِلَةِ الْخَمْسَةِ.

وَمِثَالُ الْجَزْمِ قَوْلُهُ تَعَالَى : "مَا لَمْ تَكُونُوا تَعْلَمُونَ" (البقرة: ١٥) تَكُونُوا: فِعْلٌ مُضَارِعٌ مَجْزُومٌ وَعَلَامَةُ جَزْمِهِ حَذْفُ النُّونِ لِأَنَّهُ مِنَ الْأَمْثِلَةِ الْخَمْسَةِ.

تَعْلَمُونَ : فِعْلٌ مُضَارِعٌ مَرْفُوعٌ وَعَلَامَةُ رَفْعِهِ ثُبُوتُ النُّونِ لِأَنَّهُ مِنَ الْأَمْثِلَةِ الْخَمْسَةِ.

The Weak Verb

in the Imperfect Tense It is made jussive by the deletion of the weak letter. The weak letters are "waw (و), alif (ا), and ya (ي)" such as: yakhsha (يَخْشَى - he fears), yad'u (يَدْعُو - he calls), yarmi (يَرْمِي - he throws), yanmu (يَنْمُو - he grows), yu'ti (يُؤْتِي - he gives).

An example of this is the saying of God Almighty: "And did not fear except Allah" (Al-Alaq: 18)

"Wa lam" (وَلَمْ): A jussive particle of negation and inversion. It inverts the meaning of the imperfect verb to the past tense. It is indeclinable (based on sukun) and has no place in the sentence. "Yakhsha" (يَخْشَى): An imperfect verb made jussive by "lam" (لَمْ), and its jussive sign is the deletion of the weak letter from the end, which is the alif, indicated by the fatha before it. The subject is hidden.

And His saying Almighty: "Then let him call his associates"

(Al-Alaq: 17) The lam is the lam al-amr (the imperative lam), a jussive particle that is indeclinable and has no place in the sentence. "Yad'u" (يَدْعُ): An imperfect verb made jussive by lam al-amr, and its jussive sign is the deletion of the waw from the end, indicated by the damma before it. The subject is hidden, estimated to be "he."

الفِعْلُ الْمُضَارِعُ الْمُعْتَلُّ الْآخِرُ

يُجَزَّم بِحَذْفِ حَرْفِ الْعِلَّةِ وَحُرُوفِ الْعِلَّةِ هِيَ "الْوَاوُ، وَالْأَلِفُ،

وَمِثَالُهُ: قَوْلُهُ تَعَالَى "وَلَمْ يَخْشَ إِلَّا اللَّهَ" (النوبة: 18)
"وَلَمْ": حَرْفُ جَزْمٍ وَقَلْبٌ يَقْلِبُ مَعْنَى الْفِعْلِ الْمُضَارِعِ إِلَى
الْمَاضِي، مَبْنِي عَلَى السُّكُونِ لَا مَحَلَّ لَهُ مِنَ الْإِعْرَابِ.
و "يَخْشَ": فِعْلٌ مُضَارِعٌ مَجْزُومٌ بِ "لَمْ" وَعَلَامَةُ جَزْمِهِ
حَذْفُ حَرْفِ الْعِلَّةِ مِنْ آخِرِهِ وَهُوَ الْأَلِفُ بِدَلِيلِ الْفَتْحَةِ قَبْلَهَا،
وَالْفَاعِلُ مُسْتَتِرٌ.

وقوله تعالى: "فَلْيَدْعُ نَادِيَهُ" (العلق: 17)

اللَّامُ لَامُ الْأَمْرِ حَرْفُ جَزْمٍ مَبْنِي لَا مَحَلَّ لَهُ مِنَ الْإِعْرَابِ،
و "يَدْعُ" فِعْلٌ مُضَارِعٌ مَجْزُومٌ بِلَامِ الْأَمْرِ وَعَلَامَةُ الْجَزْمِ
حَذْفُ الْوَاوِ مِنْ آخِرِهِ دَلِيلُ الضَّمَّةِ قَبْلَهَا، وَالْفَاعِلُ مُسْتَتِرٌ
تَقْدِيرُهُ هُوَ.

And His saying Almighty: "No! Man has not fulfilled what He commanded him." (Abasa: 23)

"Lamma" A particle of negation and jussive, indeclinable (based on sukun) and has no place in the sentence.

"Yaqdi": An imperfect verb made jussive by "lamma," and its jussive sign is the deletion of the weak letter from the end, which is the ya, indicated by the kasra before it.

وقوله تعالى "لَمَّا يَقْضِ مَا أَمَرُهُ" (عبس: 23)
و "لَمَّا" حَرْفُ نَفْيٍ وَجَزْمٍ مَبْنِي عَلَى السُّكُونِ لَا مَحَلَّ لَهُ مِنَ الأَعْرَابِ.

و "يَقْضِ" فِعْلٌ مُضَارِعٌ مَجْزُومٌ بِ "لَمَّا" وَعَلَامَةُ جَزْمِهِ
حَذْفُ حَرْفِ الْعِلَّةِ مِنْ آخِرِهِ وَهُوَ الْيَاءُ دَلِيلُ الْكَسْرِ قَبْلَهَا.

The Subject (Al-Fa'il)

What is the subject (Al-Fa'il) in language and terminology?

The subject (Al-Fa'il) in language: is the one who brings about the action, performs the action, or is characterized by the action.

Terminologically: It is a nominative noun preceded by a verb

The verb here is specified as being complete, not incomplete like "kana and its sisters". If an incomplete verb like "kana and its sisters" precedes the noun, then this is not a subject, as will be explained later

What are the types of the subject (Al-Fa'il)?

The subject can be an explicit noun, a pronoun, implicit, or a .derived verbal noun (masdar mu'awwal)

First: The Explicit Noun:

1- Zaid came (Jaa'a Zaidun).

.Jaa'a (came): A past tense verb, built on the apparent Fatha

Zaidun (Zaid): A nominative subject with the apparent Damma as its sign of nomination.

الفاعل

ما هو الفاعل لغةً واصطلاحاً ؟

الفاعل لغةً: هو مَنْ أُوْجِدَ الفِعْلُ، أَوْ قَامَ بِالفِعْلِ، أَوْ اتَّصَفَ بِالفِعْلِ.

واصطلاحاً: اسمٌ مَرْفُوعٌ تَقَدَّمَ عَلَيْهِ الفِعْلُ .
والفِعْلُ هُنَا مُقَيَّدٌ بِكُونِهِ تَامًّا لَا نَاقِصًا كـ "كَانَ وَأَخَوَاتِهَا"، فَإِذَا تَقَدَّمَ عَلَى الاسْمِ فِعْلٌ نَاقِصٌ كـ "كَانَ وَأَخَوَاتِهَا"، فَلَيْسَ هَذَا فَاعِلًا كَمَا سَيَأْتِي بَيَانُهُ.

مَا هِيَ أَنْوَاعُ الْفَاعِلِ ؟

الفاعل يَكُونُ اسْمًا صَرِيحًا، أَوْ ضَمِيرًا، أَوْ مُسْتَتِرًا، أَوْ مَصْدَرًا مُؤَوَّلًا

أولاً: الاسمُ الصريح:

1- جَاءَ زَيْدٌ

جَاءَ: فِعْلٌ مَاضٍ مَبْنِيٌّ عَلَى الْفَتْحِ الظَّاهِرِ.
زَيْدٌ: فَاعِلٌ مَرْفُوعٌ وَعَلَامَةٌ رَفَعِهِ الضَّمَّةُ الظَّاهِرَةُ.

2- "The Disciples said" (Al-Imran: 52)

"قَالَ": A past tense verb, built upon the apparent Fatha.

"الْحَوَارِثُونَ": Subject, nominative, and its sign of being nominative is the Waw, substituting for the Damma, because it is a sound masculine plural.

Secondly: Pronouns:

As the "Ta" of the Speaker (I read: "قَرَأْتُ", You two read: "قَرَأْتُمَا", You (masc. plural) read: "قَرَأْتُمْ", You (fem. plural) read: "قَرَأْتُنَّ")

The "Ta" of the Addressee (masculine and feminine) (You (masc. sing.) read: "قَرَأْتَ", You (fem. sing.) read: "قَرَأْتِ")

The Waw of the Plural (They wrote: "كَتَبُوا")

The Alif of the Dual (They two wrote: "كَتَبَا")

The Ya of the Addressee (You (fem. sing.) are writing: "تَكْتُبِينَ")

The "Na" of the Speakers (We wrote: "كَتَبْنَا")

The "Na" of Majesty, as in His saying, the Exalted: "And We have certainly created man" (Al-Hijr: 26)

Examples:

"They said, "We are only reformers." (Al-Baqara 11)

"قَالُوا": A past tense verb, built upon the Damma due to its connection with the Waw of the Plural, and the Waw is a detached pronoun, built upon [a vowel], in the nominative case as the subject.

2- "قَالَ الْحَوَارِيُّونَ" (ال عمران : ٥٢)

قَالَ: فِعْلٌ مَاضٍ مَبْنِي عَلَى الْفَتْحِ الظَّاهِرِ.

الْحَوَارِيُّونَ: فَاعِلٌ مَرْفُوعٌ وَعَلَامَةُ رَفْعِهِ الْوَأُو نِيَابَةٌ عَنِ الضَّمَّةِ لِأَنَّهُ جَمْعٌ مُذَكَّرٌ سَالِمٌ.

ثَانِيًا: الضَّمِيرُ:

كَتَأِ الْمُتَكَلِّمِ (قَرَأْتُ، قَرَأْتُمَا، قَرَأْتُمْ، قَرَأْتُنَّ)

تَاءِ الْمُخَاطَبِ وَالْمُخَاطَبَةِ (قَرَأْتُ، قَرَأْتَ، قَرَأْتِ)

وَأُو الْجَمَاعَةِ (كَتَبُوا)

أَلِفُ الْاِثْنَيْنِ (كَتَبَا)

يَاءُ الْمُخَاطَبَةِ (تَكْتَبِينَ)

نَا الْمُتَكَلِّمِينَ (كَتَبْنَا)

نَا الْعَظَمَةِ، كَقَوْلِهِ تَعَالَى : "وَلَقَدْ خَلَقْنَا الْإِنْسَانَ" (الحجر: 26)

أَمْثَلُهُ

- "قَالُوا إِنَّمَا نَحْنُ مُصْلِحُونَ" (البقرة 11)

"قَالُوا" فِعْلٌ مَاضٍ مَبْنِي عَلَى الضَّمِّ لِاتِّصَالِهِ بِوَاوِ الْجَمَاعَةِ، وَالْوَاوِ

ضَمِيرٌ مَبْنِي مُتَّصِلٌ فِي مَحَلِّ رَفْعٍ فَاعِلٍ.

- "And abide in your houses." (Al-Ahzab: 33)

(wa qarna): An imperative verb built on sukoon (zero وَقَرْنَ) vowel) because it is connected to the feminine plural suffix is a joined pronoun in the (ن) (noon an-niswah), and the noon nominative case as the subject.

You have said, 'That is what Allah willed.'" (Al-Kahf: 39)" -

(qulta): A past tense verb built on sukoon because it is (قُلْتَ) 'connected to the moving nominative pronoun, and the ta is a built-in joined pronoun in the nominative case as the subject.

Third: The Hidden Subject

An example of it is His saying, may He be exalted: "And remember your Lord much and exalt [Him] in the evening and the morning." (Al-Imran: 41)

(wa udhkur) (wa sabbih): Imperative verbs built on sukoon, and the subject is a hidden pronoun implied as "you".

Fourth: The Interpreted Noun

It consists of a masdari particle (that, that, in order to, if non-conditional, hamzat at-taswiya (the hamza of equality), ma al-masdariyyah (verbal "ma"), ma ath-tharfiyyah (temporal "ma") followed by a nominal or verbal sentence, which can be replaced by a clear noun that carries the same meaning.

- "وَقَرْنَ فِي بُيُوتِكُنَّ" (الأحزاب : 33)
 (وَقَرْنَ) فِعْلٌ أَمْرٌ مَبْنِي عَلَى السُّكُونِ لِاتِّصَالِهِ بِنُونِ النَّسْوَةِ وَالنُّونُ
 ضَمِيرٌ مُتَّصِلٌ فِي مَحَلِّ رَفْعٍ فَاعِلٍ.

- "قُلْتَ مَا شَاءَ اللَّهُ" (الكهف : ١٣٩)
 (قُلْتَ) فِعْلٌ مَاضٍ مَبْنِي عَلَى السُّكُونِ لِاتِّصَالِهِ بِضَمِيرِ الرَّفْعِ
 الْمُتَحَرِّكِ وَالتَّاءُ ضَمِيرٌ مَبْنِي مُتَّصِلٌ فِي مَحَلِّ رَفْعٍ فَاعِلٍ.

ثَالِثًا: الْفَاعِلُ الْمُسْتَتِرُّ
 وَمِثَالُهُ قَوْلُهُ تَعَالَى: "وَأَذْكُرْ رَبَّكَ كَثِيرًا وَسَبِّحْ بِالْعِشِيِّ وَالْإِبْكَرِ"
 (ال عمران: 41)
 "وَأَذْكُرْ" "وَسَبِّحْ" فِعْلٌ أَمْرٌ مَبْنِي عَلَى السُّكُونِ، وَالْفَاعِلُ ضَمِيرٌ
 مُسْتَتِرٌ تَقْدِيرُهُ أَنْتَ.

رَابِعًا: الْمَصْدَرُ الْمُؤَوَّلُ:
 يَتَكَوَّنُ مِنْ حَرْفٍ مَصْدَرِي (أَنْ، أَنَّ، كَيْ، لَوْ غَيْرِ الشَّرْطِيَّةِ، هَمْزَةٌ النَّسْوِيَّةِ، مَا الْمَصْدَرِيَّةِ، مَا الظَّرْفِيَّةِ) يَلِيهِ جُمْلَةٌ اسْمِيَّةٌ أَوْ فِعْلِيَّةٌ،
 صَالِحٌ لِأَنْ يَحِلَّ مَحَلُّهُ مَصْدَرٌ صَرِيحٌ يُؤَدِّي مَعْنَاهُ.

Example of this: "But to fast is better for you, if only you knew." (Al-Baqarah: 184).

In non-Quranic context, it is permissible to say: "And fasting is better for you".

- "As We have sent among you a messenger from yourselves" (Al-Baqarah: 151)

In non-Quranic context, it is permissible to say: "And Our sending among you...."

- "O you who have believed, it is not lawful for you to inherit women against their will." (An-Nisa: 19)

The construed noun phrase from "that" (an) and the imperfect verb "inherit" (tarithu) is in the position of subject (nominative case), and the implied meaning is: "It is not lawful for you [to take] the inheritance of women against their will".

مِثَالُ ذَلِكَ: " وَأَنْ تَصُومُوا خَيْرٌ لَّكُمْ " (البقرة: ١٨٤)
يَصِحُّ فِي غَيْرِ الْقُرْآنِ أَنْ نَقُولَ: وَالصَّيَامُ خَيْرٌ لَّكُمْ.

- "كَمَا أَرْسَلْنَا فِيكُمْ رَسُولًا مِنْكُمْ" (البقرة: ١٥١)
يَصِحُّ فِي غَيْرِ الْقُرْآنِ أَنْ نَقُولَ: "وَأَرْسَلْنَا فِيكُمْ"

- "لَا يَحِلُّ لَكُمْ أَنْ تَرِثُوا النِّسَاءَ كَرِهًا" (النساء: ١٩)
الْمَصْدَرُ الْمُؤَوَّلُ مِنْ أَنْ وَالْفِعْلُ الْمُضَارِعُ تَرِثُوا فِي مَحَلِّ
رَفْعِ فَاعِلٍ، وَالتَّقْدِيرُ: " لَا يَحِلُّ لَكُمْ مِيرَاثُ النِّسَاءِ كَرِهًا".

The Subject's Deputy (Na'ib al-Fa'il)

What is the Subject's Deputy?

It is a singular noun – meaning one word – which was originally in the accusative case, then the subject was omitted and it took its place and assumed its grammatical rulings.

For example, "زَيْدٌ ضُرِبَ" (Zayd was struck), its origin is "عَمْرًا زَيْدًا" (Amr struck Zayd). "ضُرِبَ" (Amr struck Zayd).

(عمرًا): is a subject in the nominative case, and its sign of nominative case is the damma. (زَيْدًا): is a direct object in the accusative case, and its sign of accusative case is the fatha. Then the nominative subject was omitted, so the direct object took its place and became nominative instead. It is then parsed as the Subject's Deputy. So you say "ضُرِبَ زَيْدٌ" (Zayd was struck). (ضُرِبَ) is a past tense verb whose subject was not named, built on the fatha. (زَيْدٌ) is the Subject's Deputy, in the nominative case, and its sign of nominative case is the damma.

Why did many scholars dislike saying "المبنى للمجهول" (built for the unknown)?

Most scholars dislike saying "المبنى للمجهول" (built for the unknown), and instead prefer saying "البناء لما لم يسم فاعله" (built for what its subject was not named), because the subject may be known but was omitted for rhetorical reasons, such as the saying of Allah the Almighty: "وَخُلِقَ الْإِنْسَانُ" (And mankind was created) (An-Nisa: 28).

"وَخُلِقَ" The waw is a commencing particle, a word built on the fatha, it has no place in parsing. "خُلِقَ" is a past tense verb whose subject was not named, built on the fatha.

"الْإِنْسَانُ": is the Subject's Deputy, in the nominative case, and its sign of nominative case is the apparent damma.

نَائِبُ الْفَاعِلِ

ما هو نَائِبُ الْفَاعِلِ ؟

هُوَ اسْمٌ مُفْرَدٌ - يَعْنِي كَلِمَةً وَاحِدَةً - كَانَ فِي الْأَصْلِ مَنْصُوبًا فَحُذِفَ الْفَاعِلُ وَحَلَّ مَكَانَهُ وَأَخَذَ أَحْكَامَهُ.

مَثَلًا "ضَرَبَ زَيْدٌ" أَصْلُهَا "ضَرَبَ عَمْرًا زَيْدًا"

(عَمْرًا): فَاعِلٌ مَرْفُوعٌ وَعَلَامَةٌ رَفَعِهِ الضَّمَّةُ، و(زَيْدًا): مَفْعُولٌ بِهِ مَنْصُوبٌ وَعَلَامَةٌ نَصْبِهِ الْفَتْحَةُ.

ثُمَّ حُذِفَ الْفَاعِلُ الْمَرْفُوعُ فَحَلَّ مَحَلَّهُ الْمَفْعُولُ بِهِ وَصَارَ مَرْفُوعًا مَكَانَهُ فَيَعْرَبُ نَائِبُ فَاعِلٍ فَتَقُولُ "ضَرَبَ زَيْدٌ" (ضَرَبَ) فِعْلٌ مَاضِي لَمْ يُسَمَّ فَاعِلُهُ مَبْنِي عَلَى الْفَتْحِ، (زَيْدٌ) نَائِبُ فَاعِلٍ مَرْفُوعٌ وَعَلَامَةٌ رَفَعِهِ الضَّمَّةُ.

لِمَاذَا كَرِهَ كَثِيرٌ مِنَ الْعُلَمَاءِ قَوْلَ "مَبْنِي لِلْمَجْهُولِ"؟

أَكْثَرُ الْعُلَمَاءِ عَلَى كَرَاهِيَةِ قَوْلِ "مَبْنِي لِلْمَجْهُولِ"، وَإِنَّمَا يُفَضَّلُونَ قَوْلَ "الْبِنَاءُ لِمَا لَمْ يُسَمَّ فَاعِلُهُ"، لِأَنَّ الْفَاعِلَ قَدْ يَكُونُ مَعْلُومًا وَإِنَّمَا حُذِفَ لِأَسْبَابٍ بَلَاغِيَّةٍ كَقَوْلِ اللَّهِ تَعَالَى "وَخُلِقَ الْإِنْسَانُ" (النساء: 28).

"وَخُلِقَ" الْوَأُو اسْتِثْنَائِيَّةٌ حَرْفٌ مَبْنِي عَلَى الْفَتْحِ لَا مَحَلَّ لَهُ مِنَ الْإِعْرَابِ. "خُلِقَ" فِعْلٌ مَاضِي لَمْ يُسَمَّ فَاعِلُهُ مَبْنِي عَلَى الْفَتْحِ. "الْإِنْسَانُ": نَائِبُ فَاعِلٍ مَرْفُوعٌ وَعَلَامَةٌ رَفَعِهِ الضَّمَّةُ الظَّاهِرَةُ.

The Subject and the Predicate

What are the Subject and the Predicate?

The Subject (Mubtada'): It is the noun that occurs at the beginning of a nominal sentence (a sentence that starts with a noun).

The Predicate (Khabar): It is the noun that occurs after it (the Subject), completing the meaning of the sentence, and it is appropriate to pause at it.

For example: "The Messenger is merciful," "Zaid is sleeping," "The man is sincere."

These sentences consist of the Subject and the Predicate, because the meaning is complete, and it is appropriate to pause at them.

What are the types of Subject?

The Subject is either an explicit noun or an interpreted verbal noun (masdar mu'awwal).

First: The Explicit Noun:

For example: 1- "Zaid is standing."

Zaid: Subject, nominative, and its nominative marker is the apparent damma (a diacritic mark indicating a short "u" sound, representing nominative case).

Standing: Predicate, nominative, and its nominative marker is the apparent damma.

المُبْتَدَأُ وَالْخَبَرُ

ما هما المُبْتَدَأُ وَالْخَبَرُ ؟

المُبْتَدَأُ: هو الاسم الواقع في أول الجملة الاسمية.
والْخَبَرُ: هو الاسم الواقع بعده المَتَمِّم لِمَعْنَى الجملة، وَيَصِحُّ الوقوف عنده.
 مثلاً: "الرَّسُولُ رَحِيمٌ"، «زَيْدٌ نَائِمٌ»، "الرَّجُلُ مُخْلِصٌ".
 فهذه الجمل تَتَكَوَّنُ مِنَ المُبْتَدَأِ وَالْخَبَرِ، لِأَنَّ المَعْنَى تَامٌ، وَيَصِحُّ الوقوف عَلَيْهَا.

ما هي أنواع المُبْتَدَأِ ؟

المُبْتَدَأُ إمَّا أَنْ يَكُونَ اسْمًا صَرِيحًا، أَوْ مَصْدَرًا مُؤَوَّلًا.

أَوَّلًا: الاسم الصريح:

مثاله:

1- "زَيْدٌ قَائِمٌ"

زَيْدٌ: مُبْتَدَأٌ مَرْفُوعٌ وَعَلَامَةُ رَفْعِهِ الضَّمَّةُ الظَاهِرَةُ.
 قَائِمٌ: خَبَرٌ مَرْفُوعٌ وَعَلَامَةُ رَفْعِهِ الضَّمَّةُ الظَاهِرَةُ.

2- His saying, may He be exalted: "(He is the Forgiving, the Merciful)" (Az-Zumar: 53).

He: A demonstrative pronoun, built on Fatha, in the nominative case as the subject (Mubtada).

The Forgiving (Al-Ghafoor): A predicate (Khabar) in the nominative case, and its nominative marker is the apparent Damma. The Merciful (Ar-Raheem): An adjective in the nominative case, and its nominative marker is the apparent Damma.

Secondly: The interpreted source (Al-Masdar Al-Mu'awwal).

Like His saying, may He be exalted: "But to fast is better for you, if you only knew." (Al-Baqarah: 184). The meaning of the verse: And your fasting is better for you.

And to fast (Wa An Tasoomu): "An" is an infinitival and accusative particle, built on Sukoon, having no place in declension.

To fast (Tasoomu): A present tense verb, in the accusative case by "An," and its accusative marker is the omission of the Noon (n), because it is) is a connected pronoun, built on ʾone of the Five Verbs. And the Waw (Sukoon, in the nominative case as the subject (Fa'il). The interpreted source from "An" and the present tense verb is in the nominative case as the subject (Mubtada).

Better (Khairun): A predicate (Khabar) in the nominative case, and its nominative marker is the apparent Damma.

What are the types of predicates (Khabar)?

The predicate (Khabar) is either single, a sentence, or a quasi-sentence.

Firstly: The single predicate (Khabar Al-Mufrad):

The meaning of the single predicate is that it consists of one word; so, it is not a sentence or a quasi-sentence.

2- قوله تعالى : (هُوَ الْغَفُورُ الرَّحِيمُ) (الزمر : ٥٣).

هُوَ: اسْمُ إِشَارَةٍ مَبْنِي عَلَى الْفَتْحِ فِي مَحَلِّ رَفْعٍ مُبْتَدَأً.
الْغَفُورُ: خَبَرٌ مَرْفُوعٌ وَعَلَامَةٌ رَفَعَهُ الضَّمَّةُ الظَّاهِرَةُ.
الرَّحِيمُ: نَعْتٌ مَرْفُوعٌ وَعَلَامَةٌ رَفَعَهُ الضَّمَّةُ الظَّاهِرَةُ.

ثَانِيًا: الْمَصْدَرُ الْمُؤَوَّلُ.

كَقَوْلِهِ تَعَالَى: "وَأَنْ تَصُومُوا خَيْرٌ لَكُمْ" (البقرة: ١٨٤).

وَتَقْدِيرُ الْآيَةِ: وَصِيَامُكُمْ خَيْرٌ لَكُمْ..

وَأَنْ: أَنْ حَرْفٌ مَصْدَرِي وَنَضْبٌ مَبْنِي عَلَى السُّكُونِ لَا مَحَلَّ لَهُ مِنَ الْإِعْرَابِ.

تَصُومُوا: فِعْلٌ مُضَارِعٌ مَنْصُوبٌ بِـ "أَنْ" وَعَلَامَةٌ نَضَبِهِ حَذْفُ النُّونِ لِأَنَّهُ مِنَ الْأَمْثَلَةِ الْخَمْسَةِ، وَالْوَاوُ ضَمِيرٌ مُتَّصِلٌ مَبْنِي عَلَى السُّكُونِ فِي مَحَلِّ رَفْعٍ فَاعِلٍ.

الْمَصْدَرُ الْمُؤَوَّلُ مِنْ أَنْ وَالْفِعْلُ الْمُضَارِعُ فِي مَحَلِّ رَفْعٍ مُبْتَدَأً.
خَيْرٌ: خَبَرٌ مَرْفُوعٌ وَعَلَامَةٌ رَفَعَهُ الضَّمَّةُ الظَّاهِرَةُ.

مَا هِيَ أَنْوَاعُ الْخَبَرِ؟

الْخَبَرُ إمَّا أَنْ يَكُونَ مُفْرَدًا، وَإِمَّا جُمْلَةً، وَإِمَّا شِبْهَ جُمْلَةٍ.

أَوَّلًا: الْخَبَرُ الْمُفْرَدُ:

وَمَعْنَى الْخَبَرِ الْمُفْرَدِ أَيِ يَتَكَوَّنُ مِنْ كَلِمَةٍ وَاحِدَةٍ، فَلَيْسَ بِجُمْلَةٍ، أَوْ شِبْهَ جُمْلَةٍ .

Its example:

"Zaid is standing," "The two men are standing," "The Muslims are victorious."

The predicate in the three examples is mufrad (single word) because it is one word.

Secondly: The predicate as a sentence:

It can be a nominal sentence or a verbal sentence.

Example of a nominal sentence predicate:

Zaid, his morals are good.

Zaid: First mibtada'at (subject) in the nominative case, and its nominative marker is the apparent damma.

His morals: Second mibtada'at in the nominative case, and its nominative marker is the apparent damma. And it is mudaf (genitive construction), and the ha' (his): an attached pronoun, built on the damma in the place of the genitive mudaf ilayh (possessive noun).

Good: khabar (predicate) of the second mibtada'at, in the nominative case, and its nominative marker is the apparent damma. And the nominal sentence composed of the second mibtada'at and its khabar is in the place of the nominative khabar for the first mibtada'at.

Example of a verbal sentence predicate:

Zaid studies the lesson.

Zaid: mibtada'at in the nominative case, and its nominative marker is the apparent damma.

Studies: Present tense verb in the nominative case, and its nominative marker is the apparent damma, and the subject is a hidden pronoun, estimated as "he."

مثاله:

"زَيْدٌ قَائِمٌ"، «الرَّجُلَانِ قَائِمَانِ»، "المسلمون منتصرون".
فَالْخَبَرُ فِي الْأُمْتِلَةِ الثَّلَاثَةِ مُفْرَدٌ لِأَنَّهُ كَلِمَةٌ وَاحِدَةٌ.

ثانيًا: الْخَبَرُ الْجُمْلَةُ:

وقد يكونُ جُمْلَةً اسْمِيَّةً أَوْ فِعْلِيَّةً.

مِثَالُ خَبَرِ الْجُمْلَةِ الْاسْمِيَّةِ:

زَيْدٌ أَخْلَاقُهُ حَسَنَةٌ.

زَيْدٌ: مُبْتَدَأٌ أَوَّلُ مَرْفُوعٌ وَعَلَامَةُ رَفْعِهِ الضَّمَّةُ الظَّاهِرَةُ.

أَخْلَاقُهُ: مُبْتَدَأٌ ثَانٍ مَرْفُوعٌ وَعَلَامَةُ رَفْعِهِ الضَّمَّةُ الظَّاهِرَةُ. وَهُوَ

مُضَافٌ وَالْهَاءُ: ضَمِيرٌ مُتَّصِلٌ مَبْنِيٌّ عَلَى الضَّمِّ فِي مَحَلِّ جَرٍّ

مُضَافٍ إِلَيْهِ.

حَسَنَةٌ: خَبَرٌ لِلْمُبْتَدَأِ الثَّانِي مَرْفُوعٌ وَعَلَامَةُ رَفْعِهِ الضَّمَّةُ الظَّاهِرَةُ.

وَالْجُمْلَةُ الْاسْمِيَّةُ الْمُؤَلَّفَةُ مِنَ الْمُبْتَدَأِ الثَّانِي وَخَبَرِهِ فِي مَحَلِّ

رَفْعٍ خَبَرٌ لِلْمُبْتَدَأِ الْأَوَّلِ.

مِثَالُ خَبَرِ الْجُمْلَةِ الْفِعْلِيَّةِ:

زَيْدٌ يُذَاكِرُ الدَّرْسَ

زَيْدٌ: مُبْتَدَأٌ مَرْفُوعٌ وَعَلَامَةُ رَفْعِهِ الضَّمَّةُ الظَّاهِرَةُ.

يُذَاكِرُ: فِعْلٌ مُضَارِعٌ مَرْفُوعٌ وَعَلَامَةُ رَفْعِهِ الضَّمَّةُ الظَّاهِرَةُ،

وَالْفَاعِلُ ضَمِيرٌ مُسْتَتِرٌ تَقْدِيرُهُ هُوَ.

The Lesson: maf'ool bihi (direct object), accusative case, and its accusative marker is the visible fatha (short 'a' vowel). And the sentence "He studies the lesson" is in the nominative case as a predicate.

Thirdly: A predicate as a quasi-sentence (shibhu jumla)

As in the Almighty's saying: "This is from the favor of my Lord" (An-Naml: 40)

"This": A demonstrative pronoun, indeclinable on the sukoon (absence of a vowel), in the nominative case as a subject .

"From": A preposition, indeclinable on the sukoon, with no grammatical function.

"Favor": A noun governed by "from," and its genitive marker is the visible kasra (short 'i' vowel), and it is in the genitive construct.

"My Lord" (Lord): A noun in the genitive construct, governed, and its genitive marker is the visible kasra, and it is in the genitive construct (), and the yaa (my) is a connected pronoun, indeclinable, in the genitive case as a genitive construct.

And the phrase "from the favor of my Lord" is in the nominative case as a predicatequasi-sentence (shibhu jumla).

الدَّرسُ : مَفْعُولٌ بِهِ مَنْصُوبٌ وَعَلَامَةٌ نَصْبِهِ الْفَتْحَةُ الظَّاهِرَةُ.
و جُمْلَةٌ " يُذَاكِرُ الدَّرْسَ " فِي مَحَلِّ رَفْعٍ خَبَرٍ.

ثَالِثًا: خَبَرُ شِبْهِ جُمْلَةٍ

كَقَوْلِهِ تَعَالَى: " هَذَا مِنْ فَضْلِ رَبِّي " (النمل: 40)
" هَذَا " اسْمٌ إِشَارَةٌ مَبْنِي عَلَى السُّكُونِ فِي مَحَلِّ رَفْعٍ مُبْتَدَأٌ.
" مِنْ ": حَرْفٌ جَرٌّ مَبْنِي عَلَى السُّكُونِ لَا مَحَلَّ لَهُ مِنَ الْإِعْرَابِ.
" فَضْلٍ " اسْمٌ مَجْرُورٌ بِ (مِنْ) وَعَلَامَةُ جَرِّهِ الْكَسْرَةُ
الظَّاهِرَةُ، وَهُوَ مُضَافٌ.
" رَبِّي " (رَبِّ) : مُضَافٌ إِلَيْهِ مَجْرُورٌ وَعَلَامَةُ جَرِّهِ الْكَسْرَةُ
الظَّاهِرَةُ، وَهُوَ مُضَافٌ، وَالْيَاءُ ضَمِيرٌ مَبْنِي مُتَّصِلٌ فِي مَحَلِّ جَرٍّ
مُضَافٍ إِلَيْهِ.
و جُمْلَةٌ " مِنْ فَضْلِ رَبِّي " فِي مَحَلِّ رَفْعٍ خَبَرُ شِبْهِ جُمْلَةٍ.

Kana and its Sisters

Kana and its sisters enter the nominal sentence, raising the subject and it becomes the name of Kana, and making the predicate accusative, and it is called the predicate of Kana.

Why is Kana called an abrogating, incomplete verb?

An abrogating verb because it enters the nominal sentence, so its ruling changes to another ruling. It raises the subject and it is called its name, and it makes the predicate accusative and it is called its predicate. And an incomplete verb because it only indicates time, meaning that it does not indicate an event, so it does not need a doer (subject), unlike complete verbs which indicate time and event, like: "He fasted" which indicates time, which is the past, and on the event, which is fasting.

What are the sisters of Kana?

Thirteen verbs: "Kana, Zhalla, Bata, Adha, Asbaha, Amsa, Sara, Laysa, Zala, Bariha, Fati'a, Infakka."

كَانَ وَأَخَوَاتُهَا

كَانَ وَأَخَوَاتُهَا تَدْخُلُ عَلَى الْجُمْلَةِ الاسْمِيَّةِ، فَتَرْفَعُ الْمُبْتَدَأَ وَيُصْبِحُ اسْمُ كَانٍ وَتَنْصِبُ الْخَبَرَ، وَيُسَمَّى خَبَرُ كَانٍ.

لِمَاذَا سُمِّيَتْ كَانٌ فِعْلاً نَاسِخًا نَاقِصًا ؟

فِعْلٌ نَاسِخٌ لِأَنَّهَا تَدْخُلُ عَلَى الْجُمْلَةِ الاسْمِيَّةِ فَيَتَغَيَّرُ حُكْمُهَا بِحُكْمٍ آخَرَ، فَتَرْفَعُ الْمُبْتَدَأَ وَيُسَمَّى اسْمُهَا وَتَنْصِبُ الْخَبَرَ وَيُسَمَّى خَبَرُهَا. وَفِعْلٌ نَاقِصٌ لِأَنَّهَا تَدُلُّ عَلَى زَمَانٍ فَقَطْ، أَيْ أَنَّهَا لَا تَدُلُّ عَلَى حَدَثٍ فَلَا تَحْتَاجُ إِلَى فَاعِلٍ، بِخِلَافِ الْأَفْعَالِ التَّامَّةِ تَدُلُّ عَلَى الزَّمَانِ وَالْحَدَثِ، مِثْلُ: «صَامَ» يَدُلُّ عَلَى الزَّمَانِ وَهُوَ الْمَاضِي، وَعَلَى الْحَدَثِ وَهُوَ الصَّيَامُ.

مَا هِيَ أَخَوَاتُ كَانٍ ؟

ثَلَاثَةٌ عَشَرَ فِعْلاً: "كَانَ ، ظَلَّ، بَاتَ، أَضْحَى، أَصْبَحَ، أَمْسَى، صَارَ، لَيْسَ، زَالَ، بَرِحَ، فَتِيَ، انْفَلَكَ، دَامَ".

What are its divisions?

It has three divisions:

The first: It operates without a condition, and these are the first eight verbs: "kana (was/is), dhalla (remained/continued during the day), bata (spent the night), adha (became in the morning), asbaha (became), amsa (became in the evening), sara (became/turned into), laysa (is not)."

The second: It is conditional that it be preceded by a negation, prohibition, or supplication, and these are four: "zala (ceased/ended), bariha (ceased/departed), fatia (ceased/tired), infakka (separated/unfastened)."

The third: It is conditional that it be preceded by "ma" al-masdariyya (the gerundive "ma") which stands in place of an adverb of time, and it is "dama (lasted/continued)."

The First Division:

1- Kana (was/is) "Mankind was one community" (Al-Baqarah: 213)

"Kana": A past tense verb, a defective copula, built on the apparent fatha.

"Al-Naasu (Mankind)": The subject of kana, nominative, and its nominative sign is the apparent damma.

"Ummatan (a community)": The predicate of kana, accusative, and its accusative sign is the apparent fatha.

"Wahidatan (one)": An adjective, accusative, and its accusative sign is the apparent fatha.

"And the Messenger be a witness over you" (Al-Baqarah: 143)

"Wa yakunu (and be)": A present tense verb, defective, nominative, and its nominative sign is the apparent damma.

"Al-Rasulu (The Messenger)": The subject of yakunu, nominative, and its nominative sign is the apparent damma.

ما هي أقسامها ؟

هي ثلاثة أقسام:

الأول: يَعْمَلُ بِلَا شَرْطٍ، وهي الأفعال الثمانية الأولى " كان، ظلَّ، باتَ، أضحى، أصبح، أمسى، صار، ليس".

الثاني: يُشْتَرَطُ أَنْ يَتَقَدَّمَ عَلَيْهِ نَفِيٌّ أَوْ نَهْيٌ أَوْ دُعَاءٌ، وهي أربعة: "زَالَ، بَرَحَ، فَتِيَ، انْفَكَ"

الثالث: يُشْتَرَطُ أَنْ يَتَقَدَّمَ عَلَيْهِ «مَا» الْمَصْدَرِيَّةُ النَّائِبَةُ عَنْ ظَرْفِ الزَّمَانِ، وَهُوَ "دَامَ"

القِسْمُ الأولُ:

1- كَانْ

"كَانَ النَّاسُ أُمَّةً وَاحِدَةً" (البقرة: 213)

"وَاحِدَةً" : نِعْتُ مَنْصُوبٌ وَعَلَامَةٌ نَصْبِهِ الْفَتْحَةُ الظَّاهِرَةُ.

"وَيَكُونُ الرَّسُولُ عَلَيْكُمْ شَهِيدًا" (البقرة: ١٤٣)

"وَيَكُونُ" : فِعْلٌ مُضَارِعٌ نَاقِصٌ مَرْفُوعٌ وَعَلَامَةٌ رَفَعِهِ الضَّمَّةُ الظَّاهِرَةُ.

"الرَّسُولُ" : اسْمٌ وَيَكُونُ مَرْفُوعٌ وَعَلَامَةٌ رَفَعِهِ الضَّمَّةُ الظَّاهِرَةُ.

"Alaykum": "Ala": a preposition, indeclinable, built on sukun (absence of vowel), with no grammatical function. "Kum" (the suffix): a pronoun, attached, indeclinable, built on dhammah, in the genitive case due to the preposition. The "meem" is for the plural masculine rational beings, a letter indeclinable built on sukun, with no grammatical function.

"Shaheedan" (a witness): The Khabar (predicate) of "yakoonu" (to be) (accusative), and its sign of accusative case is the apparent Fatha.

It indicates the meaning of continuation.

Like Allah says: "Dhalla wajhuhu muswaddan" (his face remained blackened) (An-Nahl: 58). "Dhalla": a past tense verb, copying verb, defective, indeclinable, built on the apparent Fatha.

"Wajhuhu" (his face): "Wajhu" is the Ism (subject) of "Dhalla" (nominative), and the sign of its nominative case is the apparent Dhammah. And it is (in construct). And the "haa" is a pronoun, attached, indeclinable, built on dhammah, in the genitive case (mahall jarr) of (genitive construct).

"Muswaddan" (blackened): The Khabar (predicate) of "Dhalla" (accusative), and the sign of its accusative case is the apparent Fatha.

3- "Baata" (spent the night/remained until morning)

It indicates the occurrence of the Khabar (predicate) during the night.

"Baata al-muslimu musalliyan" (The Muslim spent the night praying).

"Baata": a past tense verb, copying verb, defective, indeclinable, built on the apparent Fatha.

"Al-muslimu" (the Muslim): The Ism (subject) of "Baata" (nominative), and the sign of its nominative case is the apparent Dhammah.

"Musalliyan" (praying): The Khabar (predicate) of "Baata" (accusative), and the sign of its accusative case is the apparent Fatha.

"عَلَيْكُمْ" عَلَي: حَرْفُ جَرٍّ مَبْنِي عَلَى السُّكُونِ لَا مَحَلَّ لَهُ مِنْ
 الإِعْرَابِ وَالْكَافُ ضَمِيرٌ مُتَّصِلٌ مَبْنِي عَلَى الضَّمِّ فِي مَحَلِّ جَرٍّ بِحَرْفِ
 الْجَرِّ، وَالْمِيمُ لِجَمْعِ الذُّكُورِ الْعُقَلَاءِ، حَرْفٌ مَبْنِي عَلَى السُّكُونِ لَا
 مَحَلَّ لَهُ مِنَ الإِعْرَابِ.
شَهِيدًا": خَبَرٌ يَكُونُ مَنْصُوبٌ وَعَلَامَةٌ نَصْبِهِ الْفَتْحَةُ الظَّاهِرَةُ.

2- ظَلَّ

تُفِيدُ مَعْنَى الْاسْتِمْرَارِ.
 كَقَوْلِهِ تَعَالَى: "ظَلَّ وَجْهُهُ مُسَوِّدًا" (النَّحْلُ: ٥٨).
ظَلَّ: فِعْلٌ مَاضٍ نَاسِخٌ نَاقِصٌ مَبْنِي عَلَى الْفَتْحِ الظَّاهِرِ.
وَجْهُهُ: اسْمٌ ظَلَّ مَرْفُوعٌ وَعَلَامَةٌ رَفْعِهِ الضَّمَّةُ الظَّاهِرَةُ.
 وَهُوَ مُضَافٌ.
 وَالْهَاءُ ضَمِيرٌ مُتَّصِلٌ مَبْنِي عَلَى الضَّمِّ فِي مَحَلِّ جَرٍّ مُضَافٍ إِلَيْهِ.
"مُسَوِّدًا": خَبَرٌ ظَلَّ مَنْصُوبٌ وَعَلَامَةٌ نَصْبِهِ الْفَتْحَةُ الظَّاهِرَةُ.

3- بَاتَ

تُفِيدُ وَقُوعَ الْخَبَرِ فِي وَقْتِ اللَّيْلِ.
"بَاتَ الْمُسْلِمُ مُصَلِّيًا."
بَاتَ: فِعْلٌ مَاضٍ نَاسِخٌ نَاقِصٌ مَبْنِي عَلَى الْفَتْحِ الظَّاهِرِ.

2- بَرَحَ

كَقَوْلِهِ تَعَالَى: "لَنْ نَبْرَحَ عَلَيْهِ عَكِيفِينَ" (طه: 91)

"لَنْ نَبْرَحَ": فِعْلٌ مُضَارِعٌ نَاقِصٌ مَنْصُوبٌ بِـ "لَنْ" وَعَلَامَةُ نَصْبِهِ الْفَتْحَةُ الظَاهِرَةُ، وَاسْمُهُ ضَمِيرٌ مُسْتَتِرٌ تَقْدِيرُهُ نَحْنُ.
عَلَيْهِ: جَارٌ وَمَجْرُورٌ.

عَكِيفِينَ: خَبَرٌ لَنْ نَبْرَحَ مَنْصُوبٌ وَعَلَامَةُ نَصْبِهِ الْيَاءُ نِيَابَةً عَنِ
الْفَتْحَةِ لِأَنَّهُ جُمِعَ مُذَكَّرٌ سَالِمٌ.

3- فَتَى

وَمَعْنَاهَا مَا زَالَ، وَتُفِيدُ الِاسْتِمْرَارَ.
يُقَالُ: «لَا يَفْتَأُ الْمُسْلِمُ ذَاكِرًا»، أَي: لَا يَزَالُ الْمُسْلِمُ ذَاكِرًا.

4- انْفَكَّتْ

وَمَعْنَاهَا مَا زَالَ، وَتُفِيدُ الِاسْتِمْرَارَ.
مَا انْفَكَّتِ السَّمَاءُ مُتَلَبِّدَةً بِالْغُيُومِ.
مَا: حَرْفٌ نَفْيٌ مَبْنِيٌّ عَلَى السُّكُونِ لَا مَحَلَّ لَهُ مِنَ الْإِعْرَابِ.
انْفَكَّتْ: فِعْلٌ مَاضٍ نَاقِصٌ مَبْنِيٌّ عَلَى الْفَتْحِ الظَّاهِرِ، وَالتَّاءُ لِلتَّأْنِيثِ
حَرْفٌ مَبْنِيٌّ عَلَى السُّكُونِ لَا مَحَلَّ لَهُ مِنَ الْإِعْرَابِ، وَقَدْ حُرِّكَ
بِالْكَسْرِ مَنَعًا مِنَ التِّقَاءِ السَّاكِنَيْنِ.
السَّمَاءُ: اسْمٌ انْفَكَّتْ مَرْفُوعٌ وَعَلَامَةُ رَفْعِهِ الضَّمَّةُ الظَّاهِرَةُ،
مُتَلَبِّدَةً: خَبَرٌ انْفَكَّتْ مَنْصُوبٌ وَعَلَامَةُ نَصْبِهِ الْفَتْحَةُ الظَّاهِرَةُ.
بِالْغُيُومِ: جَارٌ وَمَجْرُورٌ وَشَبَّهِ الْجُمْلَةِ مُتَعَلِّقٌ بِالْخَبَرِ (مُتَلَبِّدَةً).

The third category of the sisters of "Kana" is what requires the preceding of "Ma" Al-Masdariyyah Az-Zarfiyyah (the adverbial infinitival "Ma"), which is the verb: "Dama" (to last, to continue). With it, the verb is only ever in the past tense.

The meaning of "Masdariyyah" is that it is valid to interpret it with its verb "Dama" as the infinitive of duration (Al-Dawaam). With it, the verb is only ever in the past tense.

It is said: "Laa tusalli ma dumtu junuban" (Do not pray as long as I am impure/in a state of ritual impurity). The intended meaning is the time of the duration of impurity.

Its conditions for operating (grammatically) are two:

First: That it is preceded by "Ma" Al-Masdariyyah Az-Zarfiyyah.

Second: That it is a past tense verb.

An example of it is the saying of God Almighty: "And He has enjoined upon me prayer and charity as long as I remain alive" (Maryam: 31).

Meaning: the time of my remaining alive. Ma: An adverbial infinitival particle, built on sukoon (vowellessness), with no grammatical function.

Dumtu: A past tense deficient verb built on sukoon due to its attachment to the moving nominative pronoun. The "Ta" (Tu) is an attached pronoun in the nominative case, the subject (ism) of "Ma Dama." Hayyan: The predicate (khabar) of "Ma Dumtu," accusative, and its accusative marker is the visible Fatha.

القِسْمُ الثَّالِثُ من أَخَوَاتِ كَانَ هو ما يُشْتَرَطُ أَنْ يَتَقَدَّمَ عَلَيْهِ «مَا» المَصْدَرِيَّةُ الظَّرْفِيَّةُ ، وَهُوَ الْفِعْلُ: « دَامَ » ، وَلَا يَكُونُ مَعَهَا الْفِعْلُ إِلَّا مَاضِيًا.

وَمَعْنَى الْمَصْدَرِيَّةِ أَيُّ أَنَّهُ يَصِحُّ تَأْوِيلُهَا مَعَ فِعْلِهَا « دَامَ » بِمَصْدَرِ الدَّوَامِ ، وَلَا يَكُونُ مَعَهَا الْفِعْلُ إِلَّا مَاضِيًا . يُقَالُ: «لَا تُصَلِّيْ مَا دُمْتُ جُنُبًا»، فَالْمُرَادُ زَمَنُ دَوَامِ الْجَنَابَةِ.

شَرْطُ عَمَلِهَا أَمْرَانِ:

الأولُ: أَنْ يَتَقَدَّمَ عَلَيْهِ «مَا» الْمَصْدَرِيَّةُ الظَّرْفِيَّةُ.

الثَّانِي: أَنْ تَكُونَ فِعْلًا مَاضِيًا.

وَمِثَالُهُ: قَوْلُهُ تَعَالَى: "وَأَوْصَانِي بِالصَّلَاةِ وَالزَّكَاةِ مَا دُمْتُ حَيًّا" (مريم: ٣١) أَي : زَمَنُ دَوَامِي حَيًّا.

مَا: حَرْفٌ مَصْدَرِي ظَرْفِي مَبْنِي عَلَى السُّكُونِ لَا مَحَلَّ لَهُ مِنَ الإِعْرَابِ.

دُمْتُ: فِعْلٌ مَاضٍ نَاقِصٌ مَبْنِي عَلَى السُّكُونِ لِاتِّصَالِهِ بِضَمِيرِ الرَّفْعِ الْمُتَحَرِّكِ ، وَالتَّاءُ ضَمِيرٌ مُتَّصِلٌ فِي مَحَلِّ رَفْعِ اسْمٍ مَا دَامَ .
حَيًّا: خَبَرٌ مَا دُمْتُ مَنْصُوبٌ وَعَلَامَةٌ نَصْبِهِ الْفَتْحَةُ الظَّاهِرَةُ.

Inna and its Sisters

How do Inna and its sisters operate within a nominal sentence (a sentence that starts with a noun)?

They work opposite to how Kana and its sisters operate in a nominal sentence.

Inna and its sisters are modifying particles that enter nominal sentences, so they put the subject (Mubtada) into the accusative case, and it is called its noun (ismuha), and raise the predicate (Khabar) to the nominative case, and it is called its predicate (khabaruha).

What are the sisters of "Inna" and what do they signify?

They are six particles: "Inna, Anna, Ka'anna, Lakinna, Layta, La'alla."

Inna, Anna: They signify emphasis. "Indeed, Allah is over all things competent." (Al-Baqarah: 20).

Ka'anna: It signifies comparison (simile). "As if in his ears was deafness." (Luqman: 7).

Lakinna: It signifies correction/but. "And they swear by Allah that they are from you, while they are not from you; but they are a people who are afraid." (At-Tawbah: 56).

Layta: It signifies wishing.

La'alla: It signifies hope and apprehension.

إِنَّ وَأَخَوَاتِهَا

كَيْفَ تَعْمَلُ إِنَّ وَأَخَوَاتِهَا فِي الْجُمْلَةِ الْأَسْمِيَّةِ ؟
عَكْسُ مَا تَفْعَلُهُ كَانَ وَأَخَوَاتُهَا فِي الْجُمْلَةِ الْأَسْمِيَّةِ.
وَأَنَّ وَأَخَوَاتِهَا حُرُوفٌ نَاسِخَةٌ تَدْخُلُ عَلَى الْجُمْلَةِ الْأَسْمِيَّةِ، فَتَنْصِبُ
الْمُبْتَدَأَ وَيُسَمَّى اسْمُهَا وَتَرْفَعُ الْخَبَرَ وَيُسَمَّى خَبَرُهَا.

مَا هِيَ أَخَوَاتُ « إِنَّ »، وَمَاذَا يُفْعَلُ ؟
وَهِيَ سِتَّةُ حُرُوفٍ : "إِنَّ، أَنْ، كَأَنَّ، لَكِنَّ، لَيْتَ، لَعَلَّ".
إِنَّ، أَنْ : يُفِيدَانِ التَّوَكِيدَ، "إِنَّ اللَّهَ عَلَى كُلِّ شَيْءٍ قَدِيرٌ" (البقرة : ٢٠).

كَأَنَّ : تُفِيدُ التَّشْبِيهَ، "كَأَنَّ فِي أُذُنَيْهِ وَقْرًا" (لقمان : ٧) .
لَكِنَّ : تُفِيدُ الْإِسْتِدْرَاكَ، "وَيَحْلِفُونَ بِاللَّهِ إِنَّهُمْ لَمِنْكُمْ وَمَا هُمْ مِنْكُمْ وَلَكِنَّهُمْ قَوْمٌ يَفْرَقُونَ" (التوبة : ١٥٦).
لَيْتَ : تُفِيدُ التَّمَنِّيَ.
لَعَلَّ : تُفِيدُ التَّرَجِّيَ وَالْإِشْفَاقَ.

Here are examples of "Inna" and its sisters :

1- His saying, may He be exalted: "Indeed, Allah is Forgiving and Merciful." (Al-Baqarah 173)

Inna: An emphatic particle, built on Fatha, has no place in grammatical parsing (i'rab).

Allah: The Name of Majesty, the name of "Inna," accusative, and its accusative marker is the apparent Fatha.

Ghafur (Forgiving): The predicate (khabar) of "Inna," nominative, and its nominative marker is the apparent Dhamma.

Rahim (Merciful): An adjective, nominative, and its nominative marker is the apparent Dhamma.

2- His saying, may He be exalted: "But Allah killed them." (Al-Anfal: 17)

Walakinna: A restrictive (corrective) particle, governing, built on Fatha, has no place in grammatical parsing (i'rab).

Allah: The Name of Majesty, the name of "Lakinna," accusative, and its accusative marker is the apparent Fatha.

Qatalahum (killed them): A past tense verb, built on the apparent Fatha. Its subject is a pronoun that is necessarily implied (mustatir wujuban), estimated as "He." And "hum" is a attached pronoun, built on Dhamma, in the accusative case as an object. And the "meem" is for the plural of intelligent males, a particle built on Sukun, has no place in grammatical parsing (i'rab). The verbal sentence is in the nominative case as the predicate (khabar) of "Lakinna."

3- His saying, may He be exalted: "Indeed, as-Safa and al-Marwah are among the symbols of Allah..." (Al-Baqarah 158).

Inna: An incomplete emphatic particle, built on Fatha, has no place in grammatical parsing (i'rab).

As-Safa: The name of "Inna," accusative, and its accusative marker is the implied Fatha, prevented from appearing by impossibility (ta'azur).

Wal-Marwah: The "waw" (and) is a conjunction particle, built on Fatha, has no place in grammatical parsing (i'rab).

وَالْمَرْوَةُ: الواو حَرْفٌ عَطْفٍ مَبْنِي عَلَى الْفَتْحِ لَا مَحَلَّ لَهُ مِنَ الْإِعْرَابِ.

Al-Marwa: A noun that is governed accusative, and its accusative marker is the apparent fatha.

Min (from): A preposition that is built on sukoon and has no place in declension.

Sha'a'iri (rites): A noun that is governed genitive, and its genitive marker is the apparent kasra, and it is mudaf (possessive noun).

Allah: The Name of Majesty, mudaf ilayh (possessed noun) that is governed genitive, and its genitive marker is the apparent kasra. And the quasi-sentence "min sha'a'iri" is in the position of nominative as the khabar (predicate) of inna, a quasi-sentence khabar.

What is the ruling of inna and its sisters when "ma" is attached to them?

The particle "ma," which is extra, is attached to inna and its sisters, nullifying their effect. It is called ma kafah and makfufah (preventive and prevented) because it nullifies their effect and makes them suitable for entering verbal sentences.

"Indeed, Allah is but one God." (An-Nisa: 171)

Innama: Inna is a defective particle of emphasis built on fatha and has no place in declension. Its effect is nullified by the entry of ma kafah upon it. Ma is an extra preventive particle built on sukoon and has no place in declension.

Allah: The Name of Majesty, a mubtada (subject) that is nominative, and its nominative marker is the apparent damma.

Ilahun (God): A khabar (predicate) that is nominative, and its nominative marker is the apparent damma.

Wahidun (One): An adjective that is nominative, and its nominative marker is the apparent damma.

الْمَرْوَةُ : اسْمٌ مَعْطُوفٌ مَنْصُوبٌ وَعَلَامَةٌ نَضْبِهِ الْفَتْحَةُ الظَّاهِرَةُ.
مِنْ : حَرْفٌ جَرٌّ مَبْنِيٌّ عَلَى السُّكُونِ لَا مَحَلَّ لَهُ مِنَ الْإِعْرَابِ .
شَعَائِرُ : اسْمٌ مَجْرُورٌ وَعَلَامَةُ جَرِّهِ الْكَسْرَةُ الظَّاهِرَةُ، وَهُوَ مُضَافٌ.
اللَّهُ : اسْمُ الْجَلَالَةِ مُضَافٌ إِلَيْهِ مَجْرُورٌ وَعَلَامَةُ جَرِّهِ الْكَسْرَةُ الظَّاهِرَةُ
 وَ شِبْهُ جُمْلَةٍ مِنْ شَعَائِرٍ فِي مَحَلِّ رَفْعٍ خَبَرٍ إِنَّ ، خَبَرُ شِبْهِ جُمْلَةٍ.

مَا حُكْمُ إِنَّ وَأَخَوَاتِهَا إِذَا دَخَلَ عَلَيْهَا «مَا»؟
 يَدْخُلُ عَلَى إِنَّ وَأَخَوَاتِهَا حَرْفٌ زَائِدٌ هُوَ مَا، فَيُبْطَلُ عَمَلُهَا، وَيُسَمَّى:
 مَا كَافَّةً وَمَكْفُوفَةً، وَذَلِكَ لِأَنَّهُ أَبْطَلَ عَمَلُهَا، وَجَعَلَهَا صَالِحَةً
 لِلدُّخُولِ عَلَى الْجُمْلَةِ الْفِعْلِيَّةِ.

"إِنَّمَا اللَّهُ إِلَهُ وَاحِدٌ" (النساء: 171)
إِنَّمَا : إِنَّ حَرْفٌ تَوْكِيدٌ نَاقِصٌ مَبْنِيٌّ عَلَى الْفَتْحِ لَا مَحَلَّ لَهُ مِنَ الْإِعْرَابِ .
 بَطَلَ عَمَلُهُ دُخُولُ مَا الْكَافَّةِ عَلَيْهِ، مَا حَرْفٌ كَافٍ زَائِدٌ مَبْنِيٌّ عَلَى
 السُّكُونِ لَا مَحَلَّ لَهُ مِنَ الْإِعْرَابِ.
اللَّهُ : اسْمُ الْجَلَالَةِ مُبْتَدَأٌ مَرْفُوعٌ وَعَلَامَةُ رَفْعِهِ الضَّمَّةُ الظَّاهِرَةُ.
إِلَهُ : خَبَرٌ مَرْفُوعٌ وَعَلَامَةُ رَفْعِهِ الضَّمَّةُ الظَّاهِرَةُ.
وَاحِدٌ : نَعْتٌ مَرْفُوعٌ وَعَلَامَةُ رَفْعِهِ الضَّمَّةُ الظَّاهِرَةُ.

Laa Naafiyah Lil-Jins (Negating Particle of Genus/Kind)

What is the ruling regarding "Laa" used to negate a genus, and what are the conditions for it to operate?

"Laa" used to negate a genus/kind enters nominal sentences (Jumla Ismiyya), and it works like "Inna" (a strengthening particle), so it puts the Muftada' (subject) in the accusative case, and it is called its noun (Ismuha), and it puts the Khabar (predicate) in the nominative case, and it is called its predicate (Khabaruha).

The meaning of negating the genus is that it negates the entire genus of its noun, as in the statement: "Laa ilaaha illallaah" (There is no god but Allah). Here, "Laa" negates the right to divinity from everything other than Allah.

"Laa taalibun fil fasli" (There is no student in the class) is a negation of the genus of students, meaning there is no one who belongs to this genus present.

In order for it to operate like "Inna," four conditions must be met:

- 1- Its noun (Ismuha) and predicate (Khabaruha) must be indefinite (Nakirah).
- 2- Its noun must precede its predicate.
- 3- There should be no separation between it and its noun.
- 4- A preposition (harf jarr) should not precede it.

Examples:

"Laa 'ilma lanaa" (No knowledge have we) (Al-Baqarah: 32)

Laa: Negating particle of genus/kind, an indeclinable particle built on sukoon (absence of a vowel sound), having no place in grammatical parsing.

لَا النَّافِيَةِ لِلْجِنْسِ

ما حُكْمُ «لَا» النَّافِيَةِ لِلْجِنْسِ وَمَا شُرُوطُ عَمَلِهَا ؟

تَدْخُلُ لَا النَّافِيَةِ لِلْجِنْسِ عَلَى الْجُمْلَةِ الاسْمِيَّةِ، فَتَعْمَلُ عَمَلَ «إِنَّ»، فَتَنْصِبُ الْمُبْتَدَأَ وَيُسَمِّي اسْمُهَا وَتَرْفَعُ الْخَبَرَ وَيُسَمِّي خَبَرَهَا. وَمَعْنَى نَفْيِ الْجِنْسِ، أَنَّهَا تَنْفِي جِنْسَ اسْمِهَا بِأَجْمَعِهِ، كَقَوْلِكَ: "لَا إِلَهَ إِلَّا اللَّهُ"، فَنَفَتْ "لَا" الْأُلُوْهِيَّةَ بِحَقِّ عَنِ الْكُلِّ سِوَى اللَّهِ. "لَا طَالِبٌ فِي الْفَصْلِ" نَفْيٌ لِجِنْسِ الطُّلَابِ، يَعْنِي لَا يُوجَدُ أَحَدٌ مِمَّنْ يَنْتَمِي إِلَى هَذَا الْجِنْسِ.

وَلِكَيْ تَعْمَلَ عَمَلُ «إِنَّ»، لَا بُدَّ مِنْ أَرْبَعَةِ شُرُوطٍ:

- 1- أَنْ يَكُونَ اسْمُهَا وَخَبَرُهَا نَكِرَتَيْنِ.
- 2- أَنْ يَتَقَدَّمَ اسْمُهَا عَلَى خَبَرِهَا.
- 3- أَلَّا يُفْصَلَ بَيْنَهَا وَبَيْنَ اسْمِهَا.
- 4- أَلَّا يَدْخُلَ عَلَيْهَا حَرْفُ جَرٍّ.

أَمْثَلَةٌ:

"لَا عِلْمَ لَنَا" (البقرة: ٣٢)

لَا: نَافِيَةٌ لِلْجِنْسِ حَرْفُ مَبْنِي عَلَى السُّكُونِ لَا مَحَلَّ لَهُ مِنَ الْإِعْرَابِ.

'Ilma: The name of "la" (no) negating the genus, built on Fatha (accusative case ending) in the accusative position.

Lana: Preposition and its object, in the nominative position as the predicate of "la" negating the genus.

"No repeller is there of His decree." (Al-Kahf: 41)

La: Negating the genus, an indeclinable particle built on Sukun (quiescence) with no grammatical function.

Mu'aqqiba: The name of "la" negating the genus, built on Fatha (accusative case ending) in the accusative position.

Li hukmihi: Preposition and its object, in the nominative position as the predicate of "la" negating the genus.

If a condition is dropped from the conditions, its function is nullified, like in the saying: "It will neither harm 'them' " (As-Saffat: 47)

La: Negating particle, ineffective (ignored), built on Sukun (quiescence) with no grammatical function.

Fiha: Preposition and its object, in the nominative position as the advanced predicate.

Ghawln: Delayed subject, in the nominative case, and its sign is the apparent Damma (nominative case ending).

What are the categories of abrogators (grammatical modifiers)?

The abrogators are three categories:

First: Kana and its sisters (verbs with similar function).

Second: Inna and its sisters (particles with similar function).

Third: Dhanna and its sisters (verbs with similar function).

عِلْمٌ: اسْمُ لَا النَّافِيَةِ لِلْجِنْسِ مَبْنِي عَلَى الْفَتْحِ فِي مَحَلِّ نَصْبٍ.
لَنَّا جَارَ وَمَجْرُورٌ فِي مَحَلِّ رَفْعٍ خَبَرِ لَا النَّافِيَةِ لِلْجِنْسِ.

"لَا مُعَقَّبَ لِحُكْمِهِ" (الكهف: 41)

لَا: نَافِيَةٌ لِلْجِنْسِ حَرْفٌ مَبْنِي عَلَى السُّكُونِ لَا مَحَلَّ لَهُ مِنَ الْإِعْرَابِ

مُعَقَّبٌ: اسْمُ لَا النَّافِيَةِ لِلْجِنْسِ مَبْنِي عَلَى الْفَتْحِ فِي مَحَلِّ نَصْبٍ.
لِحُكْمِهِ: جَارَ وَمَجْرُورٌ فِي مَحَلِّ رَفْعٍ خَبَرِ لَا النَّافِيَةِ لِلْجِنْسِ.

فَإِنْ سَقَطَ شَرْطُ مِنَ الشُّرُوطِ أُلْغِيَ عَمَلُهَا، كَقَوْلِهِ: "لَا فِيهَا غَوْلٌ"
(الصافات: ١٧)

لَا: حَرْفٌ نَفْيٌ مُهْمَلٌ مَبْنِي عَلَى السُّكُونِ لَا مَحَلَّ لَهُ مِنَ الْإِعْرَابِ.
فِيهَا: جَارَ وَمَجْرُورٌ فِي مَحَلِّ رَفْعٍ خَبَرٍ مُقَدَّمٍ.
غَوْلٌ: مُبْتَدَأٌ مُؤَخَّرٌ مَرْفُوعٌ وَعَلَامَةٌ رَفْعِهِ الضَّمَّةُ الظَّاهِرَةُ.

مَا هِيَ أَقْسَامُ النَّوَاسِخِ ؟

النَّوَاسِخُ ثَلَاثَةٌ أَقْسَامٍ:

الأَوَّلُ: كَانَ وَأَخَوَاتُهَا

الثَّانِي: إِنَّ وَأَخَوَاتُهَا

الثَّالِثُ: ظَنَّ وَأَخَوَاتُهَا

Verbs of Supposition and Their Sisters (Similar Verbs)

Verbs of supposition and their sisters are divided into two categories: verbs of the heart (or mental state) and verbs of transformation.

First: Verbs of the Heart, and they are divided into two categories:

1- Verbs of Certainty: These are verbs indicating the definite occurrence of the second object, such as "saw (meaning knew), knew, found, learned."

2- Verbs of Preference (or Inclination): These indicate a preference for the occurrence of the second object, such as "thought, reckoned, claimed, counted, imagined."

Second: Verbs of Transformation, such as "made, turned (into), granted, took (as), adopted, left."

Examples:

1- Zaid thought Khalid trustworthy.

(Thanna - thought): A past tense verb that modifies the sentence, incomplete, built on the apparent Fatha.

(Zaid): Subject, nominative, and its nominative marker is the apparent Damma.

(Khalidan - Khalid): First object, accusative, and its accusative marker is the apparent Fatha.

- أَهْلِيهَا: مُضَافٌ إِلَيْهِ مَجْرُورٌ وَعَلَامَةٌ جَرِّهِ الْكَسْرَةُ الظَاهِرَةُ
- أَذِلَّةٌ: مَفْعُولٌ بِهِ ثَانٍ مَنْصُوبٌ وَعَلَامَةٌ نَصْبِهِ الْفَتْحَةُ
الظَاهِرَةُ.

The Adjective (Na't)

What is an Adjective?

It serves to describe, clarify, praise, or dispraise its subject (the noun it modifies). It agrees with the noun it modifies in grammatical case, definiteness or indefiniteness, gender (masculine or feminine), and number (singular, dual, or plural).

Examples: "I saw Zaid, the student," "I passed by Zaid, the generous," "Zaid, the lazy one, came."

The words "the student," "the generous," and "the lazy" agree with the noun they modify, "Zaid," in definiteness, singularity, masculinity, and grammatical case.

Allah Almighty said: "Indeed, Allah does not guide the wrongdoing people." (Al-Qasas: 50)

Indeed (Inna): An emphatic particle, incomplete, built on فتح (fatha), it has no grammatical function.

Allah (Allah): The name of majesty, the name of "Inna," منصوب (accusative case), and its accusative marker is the apparent فتح (fatha).

Not (La): A negation particle built on سكون (sukoon), it has no grammatical function.

Guides (Yahdi): A present tense verb, مرفوع (nominative case), and its nominative marker is the implied الضمة (damma), its appearance is prevented by التعذر (inability), and the subject is a hidden pronoun, estimated as "He."

The People (Al-Qawm): An object of the verb, منصوب (accusative case), and its accusative marker is the apparent فتحة (fatha).

The Wrongdoing (Adh-Dhaalimeen): An adjective, منصوب (accusative case), and its accusative marker is the ياء (yaa) in place of the فتحة (fatha) because it is a masculine plural sound noun.

النَّعْتُ

مَا هُوَ النَّعْتُ؟

يُفِيدُ وَصْفَ مَثْبُوعِهِ أَوْ تَوْضِيحَهُ أَوْ مَدْحَهُ أَوْ ذَمَّهُ، وَيَتَّبَعُهُ فِي
الإِعْرَابِ، وَفِي التَّعْرِيفِ أَوْ التَّنْكِيرِ، وَفِي التَّذْكِيرِ أَوْ التَّأْنِيثِ، وَفِي
الإِفْرَادِ أَوْ التَّثْنِيَةِ أَوْ الْجَمْعِ.
مثاله: «رَأَيْتُ زَيْدًا الطَّالِبَ»، «مَرَرْتُ بِزَيْدِ الْكَرِيمِ»، «جَاءَ زَيْدُ
الْكُسُولِ».

فَكَلِمَةُ "الطَّالِبِ، الْكَرِيمِ، الْكُسُولِ" وَافَقَتْ الْمَنْعُوتُ «زَيْدٌ» فِي
التَّعْرِيفِ وَالْإِفْرَادِ، وَالتَّذْكِيرِ، وَالإِعْرَابِ.

قَالَ تَعَالَى: "إِنَّ اللَّهَ لَا يَهْدِي الْقَوْمَ الظَّالِمِينَ" (القصص: ٥٠)
إِنَّ: حَرْفٌ تَوْكِيدٌ نَاقِصٌ مَبْنِي عَلَى الْفَتْحِ لَا مَحَلَّ لَهُ مِنَ الإِعْرَابِ.
اللَّهُ: اسْمُ الْجَلَالَةِ، اسْمٌ إِنَّ مَنْصُوبٌ وَعَلَامَةٌ نَصْبِهِ الْفَتْحَةُ
الظَّاهِرَةُ.

لَا: حَرْفٌ نَفْيٌ مَبْنِي عَلَى السُّكُونِ لَا مَحَلَّ لَهُ مِنَ الإِعْرَابِ.
يَهْدِي: فِعْلٌ مُضَارِعٌ مَرْفُوعٌ وَعَلَامَةٌ رَفْعِهِ الضَّمَّةُ الْمُقَدَّرَةُ، مُنْعٍ مِنْ
ظُهُورِهَا التَّعَذُّرُ، وَالْفَاعِلُ ضَمِيرٌ مُسْتَتِرٌ تَقْدِيرُهُ هُوَ.
الْقَوْمَ: مَفْعُولٌ بِهِ مَنْصُوبٌ وَعَلَامَةٌ نَصْبِهِ الْفَتْحَةُ الظَّاهِرَةُ.
الظَّالِمِينَ: نَعْتُ مَنْصُوبٌ وَعَلَامَةٌ نَصْبِهِ الْيَاءُ نِيَابَةً عَنِ الْفَتْحَةِ لِأَنَّهُ
جُمِعَ مُذَكَّرٌ سَالِمٌ.

Coordination (Grammar)

What are the coordinating conjunctions and what do they indicate?

The most famous coordinating conjunctions are: "and, fa (then/so), then, or, am (or), but"

1- "And": Indicates absolute participation, meaning that the coordinated element shares the ruling with the element it is coordinated with, without any chronological order. This is the opinion of the majority. A group, like Imam Al-Shafi'i, believed that "and" indicates order.

Example: "Zaid and Amr attended."

Amr: Coordinated by the conjunction "and," indicating the absolute participation of Zaid and Amr in attending, without indicating order.

2- Fa (Then/So): Indicates order and immediacy; meaning that the ruling applies to the element being coordinated with first, without a long period for the coordinated element.

Example: "Zaid attended, then Amr."

Here, "fa" indicates that Zaid attended first, then Amr immediately after him, i.e., after him with a short period.

3- Then: Indicates order and delay, meaning that the ruling applies to the element being coordinated with first, then it applies to the coordinated element with the existence of a non-short period, such as: "Zaid attended, then Amr."

Here, "then" indicated the presence of Zaid first, and the presence of Amr after him with a period, i.e., with some delay.

العطف

مَا هِيَ حُرُوفُ الْعُطْفِ وَمَا تُفِيدُ ؟

حُرُوفُ الْعُطْفِ أَشْهَرُهَا: "الْوَاوُ، الْفَاءُ، ثُمَّ، أَوْ، أَمْ، بَلْ"

1- الْوَاوُ: تُفِيدُ مُطْلَقَ الْمُشَارَكَةِ أَيْ أَنَّ الْمَعْطُوفَ يُشَارِكُ

الْمَعْطُوفَ عَلَيْهِ فِي الْحُكْمِ دُونَ تَرْتِيبِ زَمَنِ وَهَذَا مَذْهَبُ الْجُمْهُورِ، وَذَهَبَ فَرِيقٌ كَالِإِمَامِ الشَّافِعِيِّ أَنَّ الْوَاوَ تُفِيدُ التَّرْتِيبَ.

مِثَالُهُ: "حَضَرَ زَيْدٌ وَعَمْرُو"

عَمْرُو: مَعْطُوفٌ بِحَرْفِ الْوَاوِ، يُفِيدُ مُطْلَقَ اشْتِرَاكِ زَيْدٍ وَعَمْرُو فِي الْحُضُورِ دُونَ دَلَالَةٍ عَلَى التَّرْتِيبِ.

2- الْفَاءُ: تُفِيدُ التَّرْتِيبَ وَالتَّعْقِيبَ؛ أَيْ أَنَّ الْحُكْمَ يَكُونُ لِلْمَعْطُوفِ عَلَيْهِ أَوَّلًا دُونَ أَنْ تَكُونَ هُنَاكَ فِتْرَةٌ طَوِيلَةٌ لِلْمَعْطُوفِ.

مِثَالُهُ: "حَضَرَ زَيْدٌ فَعَمْرُو"

فَالْفَاءُ هُنَا أَفَادَتْ حُضُورَ زَيْدٍ أَوَّلًا ثُمَّ عَمْرُو فِي عَقِبِهِ، أَيْ بَعْدَهُ بِفِتْرَةٍ وَجِيزَةٍ.

3- ثُمَّ: تُفِيدُ التَّرْتِيبَ وَالتَّرَاخِيَّ، أَيْ أَنَّ الْحُكْمَ يَكُونُ لِلْمَعْطُوفِ عَلَيْهِ أَوَّلًا ثُمَّ يَكُونُ لِلْمَعْطُوفِ مَعَ وُجُودِ فِتْرَةٍ غَيْرِ وَجِيزَةٍ، مِثْلُ: "حَضَرَ زَيْدٌ ثُمَّ عَمْرُو".

أَفَادَتْ ثُمَّ هُنَا حُضُورَ زَيْدٍ أَوَّلًا ، وَحُضُورَ عَمْرُو بَعْدَهُ بِفِتْرَةٍ أَيْ مَعَ شَيْءٍ مِنَ التَّرَاخِيِّ.

And of it, is the saying of Allah Almighty: "Then We created you from dust, then from a sperm-drop, then from a clot, then from a lump of flesh, formed and unformed - that We may show you. And We settle in the wombs whom We will for a specified term, then We bring you out as a child, and then [We develop you] that you may reach your [time of] maturity." (Al-Hajj: 5).

4- Or: It indicates "permission" or "choice," and other things.

Permission: It is choosing one from the conjoined or that which is conjoined to, or combining them. Like the saying of Allah Almighty: "But whoever fears from a testator any injustice or wrongdoing and thereupon amends [the situation] between them, then there is no sin upon him." (Al-Baqarah: 182). Choice: It is choosing only one, like the saying of Allah Almighty: "Divorce is [permissible] twice; then keep [her] in good manner or let [her] go with good conduct." (Al-Baqarah: 229).

5- Or: It indicates equality between two things, and other things. It indicates equality if it comes with the hamza of equality, which is a hamza that does not indicate interrogation, like the saying of Allah Almighty: "Indeed, those who disbelieve - it is all the same for them whether you warn them or do not warn them - they will not believe." (Al-Baqarah: 6).

6- Rather: It indicates affirmation of the opposite of what precedes it, and it is conjoined with it after negation or prohibition, like the saying of Allah Almighty: "And do not say of those who are killed in the way of Allah, 'They are dead.' Rather, they are alive, but you perceive [it] not." (Al-Baqarah: 154).

وَمِنْهُ قَوْلُهُ تَعَالَى: "فَإِنَّا خَلَقْنَاكُمْ مِّنْ تُرَابٍ ثُمَّ مِّنْ نُطْفَةٍ ثُمَّ مِّنْ عَلَقَةٍ ثُمَّ مِّنْ مُّضْغَةٍ مُّخَلَّقَةٍ وَغَيْرِ مُخَلَّقَةٍ لِّنُبَيِّنَ لَكُمْ وَنُقَرِّ فِي الْأَرْحَامِ مَا نَشَاءُ إِلَى أَجَلٍ مُّسَمًّى ثُمَّ نُخْرِجُكُمْ طِفْلًا ثُمَّ لِّتَبْلُغُوا أَشَدَّكُمْ" (الحج: 5).

4- أَوْ: وتُفِيدُ «الِابَّاحَةَ» أَوْ «التَّخْيِيرَ»، وَغَيْرَ ذَلِكَ.
الِابَّاحَةُ: هِيَ اخْتِيَارُ وَاحِدٍ مِنَ الْمَعْطُوفِ أَوْ الْمَعْطُوفِ عَلَيْهِ أَوْ الْجَمْعِ بَيْنَهُمَا.

كَقَوْلِهِ تَعَالَى: "فَمَنْ خَافَ مِنْ مُّوصٍ جَنَفًا أَوْ إِثْمًا فَأَصْلَحَ بَيْنَهُمْ فَلَا إِثْمَ عَلَيْهِ" (البقرة: ١٨٢).

التَّخْيِيرُ: هِيَ اخْتِيَارُ وَاحِدٍ فَقَطْ، كَقَوْلِهِ تَعَالَى: "الطَّلَقُ مَرَّتَانٍ فَإِمْسَاكٌ بِمَعْرُوفٍ أَوْ تَسْرِيحٌ بِإِحْسَنٍ" (البقرة: ٢٢٩).

5- أَمْ: تُفِيدُ التَّسْوِيَةَ بَيْنَ شَيْئَيْنِ، وَغَيْرَ ذَلِكَ.
تُفِيدُ التَّسْوِيَةَ إِذَا وُرِدَتْ مَعَ هَمْزَةِ التَّسْوِيَةِ، وَهِيَ هَمْزَةٌ لَا تُفِيدُ الِاسْتِفْهَامَ كَقَوْلِهِ تَعَالَى: "إِنَّ الَّذِينَ كَفَرُوا سَوَاءٌ عَلَيْهِمْ ءَأَنذَرْتَهُمْ أَمْ لَمْ تُنذِرْهُمْ لَا يُؤْمِنُونَ" (البقرة: 6).

6 - بَل: وتُفِيدُ إِثْبَاتَ نَقِيضِ مَا قَبْلَهَا، وَيُعْطَفُ بِهَا بَعْدَ النَّفْيِ أَوْ النَّهْيِ، كَقَوْلِهِ تَعَالَى: "وَلَا تَقُولُوا لِمَنْ يُقْتَلُ فِي سَبِيلِ اللَّهِ أَمْوَاتٌ بَلْ أَحْيَاءٌ وَلَكِنْ لَا تَشْعُرُونَ" (البقرة: ١٥٤).

The Substitute (Al-Badal)

What are the types of the substitute (Al-Badal)?

1- Badal Kul Min Kul (Substitute of the Whole from the Whole):

It is also called Badal Al-Mutabaqah (Substitute of Identity), which is the substitute that matches the Mubdal Minhu (the noun it substitutes) and is equal to it in meaning.

An example is His saying, may He be exalted: "Guide us to the straight path, the path of those upon whom You have bestowed favor" (Al-Fatiha 6-7).

So, the straight path is the path of those upon whom He has bestowed favor, and the path of those upon whom He has bestowed favor is the straight path.

Guide us: A verb of supplication (out of politeness with God), built on the omission of the vowel letter from its end, and its subject is a pronoun hidden within it obligatorily, estimated as "You," and "us" is an attached pronoun built on the standstill in the place of the accusative of the first object.

The straight path: Accusative of the second object, (mansub, accusative case), and the sign of its (nasb, accusative case) is the apparent (fatha, accusative case marker).

The straight: Adjective, (mansub, accusative case), and the sign of its (nasb, accusative case) is the apparent (fatha, accusative case marker).

Path: Badl kul min kul (substitute of the whole from the whole) of "the straight path," (mansub, accusative case), and the sign of its (nasb, accusative case) is the apparent (fatha, accusative case marker), and it is a (mudaf, possessive noun).

Those: A relative pronoun built on the (fath, accusative case marker) in the place of the genitive (mudaf ilayhi, possessive noun).

البَدَل

مَا هِيَ أَنْوَاعُ الْبَدَلِ ؟

1- بَدَلُ كُلِّ مِنْ كُلٍّ:

وَيُسَمَّى أَيْضًا بَدَلُ الْمُطَابَقَةِ، وَهُوَ الْبَدَلُ الْمُطَابِقُ لِلْمُبْدَلِ مِنْهُ
وَالْمُسَاوِي لَهُ فِي الْمَعْنَى.

مِثَالُهُ قَوْلُهُ تَعَالَى: "اهْدِنَا الصِّرَاطَ الْمُسْتَقِيمَ صِرَاطَ الَّذِينَ أَنْعَمْتَ

عَلَيْهِمْ" (الفاتحة 6-7)

فَالصِّرَاطُ الْمُسْتَقِيمُ هُوَ صِرَاطُ الَّذِينَ أَنْعَمْتَ عَلَيْهِمْ ، وَصِرَاطُ
الَّذِينَ أَنْعَمْتَ عَلَيْهِمْ هُوَ الصِّرَاطُ الْمُسْتَقِيمُ.

اهْدِنَا: فِعْلٌ دُعَاءٌ (تَأْدُبًا مَعَ اللَّهِ) مَبْنِي عَلَى حَذْفِ حَرْفِ الْعِلَّةِ مِنْ

آخِرِهِ وَفَاعِلُهُ ضَمِيرٌ مُسْتَتِرٌ فِيهِ وَجُوبًا تَقْدِيرُهُ أَنْتَ وَ"نَا" ضَمِيرٌ
مُتَّصِلٌ مَبْنِي عَلَى السُّكُونِ فِي مَحَلِّ نَصْبِ مَفْعُولٍ بِهِ أَوَّلٍ.

الصِّرَاطُ: مَفْعُولٌ بِهِ ثَانٍ مَنْصُوبٌ وَعَلَامَةُ نَصْبِهِ الْفَتْحَةُ الظَّاهِرَةُ.

الْمُسْتَقِيمُ: نَعْتُ مَنْصُوبٌ وَعَلَامَةُ نَصْبِهِ الْفَتْحَةُ الظَّاهِرَةُ.

صِرَاطُ: بَدَلُ كُلِّ مِنْ كُلٍّ مِنَ الصِّرَاطِ مَنْصُوبٌ وَعَلَامَةُ نَصْبِهِ
الْفَتْحَةُ الظَّاهِرَةُ وَهُوَ مُضَافٌ.

2- Partitive Apposition (Badal Ba'dh min Kul):

This is when the apposition is a real part of the replaced noun.

As in the saying of God Almighty: "Has there not come to them the news of those before them, the people of Noah?" (At-Tawbah: 70).

* أَلَمْ (Has not): The hamza is for declarative interrogation, (lam) is a negation and jussive particle, indeclinable and has no place in the sentence's syntax.

* يَأْتِهِمْ (come to them): a jussive verb in the imperfect tense, made jussive by "lam" and its jussive sign is the omission of the weak verb ending. And (him) is an attached pronoun, indeclinable, in the accusative case as the object of the verb.

* نَبَأٌ (news): a nominative subject, and its nominative sign is the apparent damma.

* الَّذِينَ (those): a relative pronoun, indeclinable on the فتح, in the genitive case as a possessive noun.

* مِنْ قَبْلِهِمْ (from before them): مِنْ قَبْلِ (from before): preposition and noun in the genitive case, related to an omitted relative clause. And (him) is an attached pronoun, indeclinable, in the genitive case as a possessive noun.

* قَوْمٌ (the people of): apposition of the relative pronoun, in the genitive case, and its genitive sign is the apparent kasra.

* نُوحٌ (Noah): possessive noun in the genitive case, and its genitive sign is the apparent kasra.

2- بَدَلُ بَعْضٍ مِنْ كُلِّ : وهو الذي يَكُونُ جُزْءًا حَقِيقِيًّا مِنْ الْمُبْدَلِ مِنْهُ.

كَقَوْلِهِ تَعَالَى: " أَلَمْ يَأْتِهِمْ نَبَأُ الَّذِينَ مِنْ قَبْلِهِمْ قَوْمِ نُوحٍ " (التوبة: ٧٠).

أَلَمْ : الهمزة للإستفهام التَّقْرِيري، (لَمْ) حَرْفُ نَفْيٍ وَجَزْمٍ مَبْنِي لَا مَحَلَّ لَهُ مِنْ الإِعْرَابِ.

يَأْتِهِمْ : فِعْلٌ مُضَارِعٌ مَجْرُومٌ بِ " لَمْ " وَعَلَامَةُ جَزْمِهِ حَذْفُ حَرْفِ الْعِلَّةِ ، و (هَمْ) ضَمِيرٌ مُتَّصِلٌ مَبْنِي فِي مَحَلِّ نَصْبٍ مَفْعُولٍ بِهِ نَبَأٌ : فَاعِلٌ مَرْفُوعٌ وَعَلَامَةُ رَفْعِهِ الضَّمَّةُ الظَّاهِرَةُ.

الَّذِينَ : اسْمٌ مَوْصُولٌ مَبْنِي عَلَى الْفَتْحِ فِي مَحَلِّ جَرِّ مُضَافٍ إِلَيْهِ.
مِنْ قَبْلِهِمْ : مِنْ قَبْلِ : جَارٌّ وَمَجْرُورٌ مُتَعَلِّقٌ بِمَحْذُوفٍ صِلَةٍ و (هَمْ) ضَمِيرٌ مُتَّصِلٌ مَبْنِي فِي مَحَلِّ جَرِّ مُضَافٍ إِلَيْهِ.
قَوْمٌ : بَدَلٌ مِنَ الْاسْمِ الْمَوْصُولِ مَجْرُورٌ وَعَلَامَةُ جَرِّهِ الْكَسْرَةُ الظَّاهِرَةُ.

نُوحٌ : مُضَافٌ إِلَيْهِ مَجْرُورٌ وَعَلَامَةُ جَرِّهِ الْكَسْرَةُ الظَّاهِرَةُ.

3- Apposition of مشتمل (Badal Ishtimal): It is the apposition of something from what it contains, provided that it is not a part of it. An example is God Almighty's saying: "They ask you about the sacred month - about fighting therein." (Al-Baqarah: 217). Fighting is not a part of the sacred month, but rather something that the month contains.

They ask you: a present tense verb, مرفوع (nominative case), and the sign of its رفع (nomination) is the presence of the نون (nun) because it is one of the الأَمْثَلَةُ الْخَمْسَةُ (the five examples), and the و (waw) is a connected pronoun based on sukun (quiescence) in the place of رفع (nomination) as a subject, and the ك (kaf) is a connected pronoun based on fatha (فتحة diacritic) in the place of نصب (accusative case) as an object.

About the month: جار ومجرور (preposition and noun it governs) related to the verb يَسْأَلُونَكَ (they ask you).

الْحَرَامِ (the sacred): an adjective مجرور (genitive case) and the sign of its جر (genitive case) is the apparent kasra (كسرة diacritic).

المبطل منه (fighting): بدل اشتمال (appositive of inclusive relation) of the (noun it refers to) الشَّهْرِ (the month), مجرور (genitive case) and the sign of its جر (genitive case) is the apparent kasra (كسرة diacritic). فِيهِ

(in it): شبه جملة (prepositional phrase) is related to a محذوف (deleted) adjective in the place of جر (genitive case) (the fighting is not the month itself or part of it, but it occurs in it, meaning it includes it).

3- بَدَلُ اشْتِمَالٍ: وَهُوَ بَدَلُ الشَّيْءِ مِمَّا يَشْتَمِلُ عَلَيْهِ، بِشَرْطِ أَنْ لَا يَكُونَ جُزْءًا.

مِثَالُهُ قَوْلُهُ تَعَالَى: "يَسْأَلُونَكَ عَنِ الشَّهْرِ الْحَرَامِ قِتَالٍ فِيهِ" (البقرة: ٢١٧) فَالْقِتَالُ لَيْسَ جُزْءًا مِنَ الشَّهْرِ الْحَرَامِ، وَإِنَّمَا مِمَّا يَشْتَمِلُ عَلَيْهِ.

يَسْأَلُونَكَ: فِعْلٌ مُضَارِعٌ مَرْفُوعٌ وَعَلَامَةُ رُفْعِهِ ثُبُوتُ النُّونِ لِأَنَّهُ مِنَ الْأُمْتِلَةِ الْخَمْسَةِ، وَالْوَاوُ ضَمِيرٌ مُتَّصِلٌ مَبْنِي عَلَى السُّكُونِ فِي مَحَلِّ رَفْعٍ فَاعِلٍ، وَالْكَافُ ضَمِيرٌ مُتَّصِلٌ مَبْنِي عَلَى الْفَتْحِ فِي مَحَلِّ نَصْبٍ مَفْعُولٍ بِهِ.

عَنِ الشَّهْرِ: جَارٌ وَمَجْرُورٌ مُتَعَلِّقٌ بِالْفِعْلِ يَسْأَلُونَكَ

الْحَرَامِ: نَعْتُ مَجْرُورٌ وَعَلَامَةُ جَرِّهِ الْكَسْرُ الظَّاهِرَةُ.

قِتَالٍ: بَدَلُ اشْتِمَالِ الْمُبْدَلِ مِنْهُ الشَّهْرِ مَجْرُورٌ وَعَلَامَةُ جَرِّهِ الْكَسْرُ الظَّاهِرَةُ.

فِيهِ: جَارٌ وَمَجْرُورٌ وَشَبُّهُ الْجُمْلَةِ مُتَعَلِّقٌ بِمَحْذُوفٍ نَعْتُ فِي مَحَلِّ جَرٍّ (لَيْسَ الْقِتَالُ الشَّهْرَ نَفْسَهُ أَوْ بَعْضَهُ وَلَكِنَّهُ يَقَعُ فِيهِ أَيْ يَشْتَمِلُ عَلَيْهِ).

Affirmation (Emphasis)

What are the types of affirmation?

It is of two types:

- 1- Semantic (Meaning-based) Affirmation.
- 2- Verbal (Word-based) Affirmation.

What are the most well-known words of semantic affirmation?

The most well-known words are: "self, عين (ayn - literally 'eye', but used for emphasis), both (masculine), both (feminine), all, general" provided that the affirmed precedes them, and that the affirmed is definite, and that it agrees with it in declension, and that it is added to a pronoun that refers back to the affirmed.

An example is His saying, may He be exalted: "Indeed, the whole matter belongs to Allah." (Al Imran: 154)

"Indeed": an affirmation particle built on the فتحة (fatha - a diacritic indicating an 'a' sound), it has no place in the declension.

"The matter": the name of "Indeed" منصوب (mansub - in the accusative case) and its sign of نصب (nasb - accusative case) is the apparent فتحة (fatha).

"Whole": semantic affirmation منصوب (mansub - in the accusative case) and its sign of نصب (nasb - accusative case) is the apparent فتحة (fatha).

"To Allah": the ل (lam - to/for) is a preposition, and the Name of Majesty is مجرور (majroor - in the genitive case), in the place of رفع (raf - nominative case) as the خبر (khabar - predicate/information) of "Indeed."

التَّوكِيد

مَا أَنْوَاعُ التَّوكِيدِ؟

هُوَ نَوْعَانُ:

1- تَوَكِيدٌ مَعْنَوِيٌّ.

2- تَوَكِيدٌ لَفْظِيٌّ .

مَا أَشْهُرُ أَلْفَاظِ التَّوكِيدِ الْمَعْنَوِيِّ؟

أَشْهُرُ أَلْفَاظِهِ: "نَفْسٌ، عَيْنٌ، كِلَا، كِلْتَا، جَمِيعٌ، عَامَّةٌ" بِشَرْطِ أَنْ يَسْبِقَهَا الْمُؤَكَّدُ، وَأَنْ يَكُونَ الْمُؤَكَّدُ مَعْرِفَةً، وَأَنْ تُطَابِقَهُ فِي الْإِعْرَابِ، وَأَنْ تُضَافَ إِلَى ضَمِيرٍ يَعُودُ إِلَى الْمُؤَكَّدِ.

مِثَالُهُ قَوْلُهُ تَعَالَى: "إِنَّ الْأَمْرَ كُلَّهُ لِلَّهِ" (ال عمران : ١٥٤)

إِنَّ حَرْفُ تَوَكِيدٍ مَبْنِي عَلَى الْفَتْحِ لَا مَحَلَّ لَهُ مِنَ الْإِعْرَابِ.

الْأَمْرُ: اسْمٌ إِنَّ مَنْصُوبٌ وَعَلَامَةُ نَصْبِهِ الْفَتْحَةُ الظَّاهِرَةُ

كُلَّهُ: تَوَكِيدٌ مَعْنَوِيٌّ مَنْصُوبٌ وَعَلَامَةُ نَصْبِهِ الْفَتْحَةُ الظَّاهِرَةُ

لِلَّهِ: اللَّامُ حَرْفُ جَرٍ ، وَاسْمُ الْجَلَالَةِ مَجْرُورٌ فِي مَحَلِّ رَفْعٍ خَبَرٌ إِنَّ

What is verbal emphasis (tawkid lafzi)?

It is the repetition of the emphasized word with its exact wording or with a synonym.

Allah the Almighty said: "And the forerunners, the forerunners - Those are the ones brought near [to Allah]" (Al-Waqi'ah: 10-11).

"Al-Sabiqun" (the forerunners): a nominative (marfu') subject (mubtada') with the sign of being nominative being the "waw" in place of the "dammah" because it is a masculine plural.

"Al-Sabiqun" (the forerunners): verbal emphasis (tawkid lafzi) nominative (marfu') with the sign of being nominative being the "waw" in place of the "dammah" because it is a masculine plural.

"Ula'ika" (Those): a demonstrative pronoun, fixed in the position of being a nominative subject (mubtada').

"Al-Muqarrabun" (the ones brought near): a nominative (marfu') predicate (khabar) with the sign of being nominative being the "waw" in place of the "dammah" because it is a masculine plural.

And the phrase "Ula'ika Al-Muqarrabun" (Those are the ones brought near) is in the position of being a nominative predicate (khabar) of the subject (mubtada') "Al-Sabiqun" (the forerunners).

مَا هُوَ التَّوْكِيدُ اللَّفْظِيُّ ؟

هُوَ تَكَرُّرُ الْمُؤَكَّدِ بِلَفْظِهِ، أَوْ بِمُرَادِفِهِ.

قَالَ تَعَالَى : "وَالسَّابِقُونَ السَّابِقُونَ. أُولَئِكَ الْمُقَرَّبُونَ" (الواقعة :

١٠-١١)

وَالسَّابِقُونَ : مُبْتَدَأٌ مَرْفُوعٌ وَعَلَامَةٌ رَفَعِهِ الْوَإُ نِيَابَةٌ عَنِ الضَّمَّةِ لِأَنَّهُ جُمِعَ مُذَكَّرٌ سَالِمٌ.

السَّابِقُونَ : تَوْكِيدٌ لَفْظِيٌّ مَرْفُوعٌ وَعَلَامَةٌ رَفَعِهِ الْوَإُ نِيَابَةٌ عَنِ الضَّمَّةِ لِأَنَّهُ جُمِعَ مُذَكَّرٌ سَالِمٌ.

أُولَئِكَ : اسْمٌ إِشَارَةٌ مَبْنِيٌّ فِي مَحَلِّ رَفْعٍ مُبْتَدَأٌ.

الْمُقَرَّبُونَ : خَبَرٌ مَرْفُوعٌ وَعَلَامَةٌ رَفَعِهِ الْوَإُ نِيَابَةٌ عَنِ الضَّمَّةِ لِأَنَّهُ جُمِعَ مُذَكَّرٌ سَالِمٌ.

وجملة "أُولَئِكَ الْمُقَرَّبُونَ" فِي مَحَلِّ رَفْعٍ خَبَرٌ لِلْمُبْتَدَأِ السَّابِقُونَ.

The Mafā'il (Objects)

How many Mafā'il are there?

There are five Maf'ūlāt (types of Objects), and they are:

1- Al-Maf'ūl al-Muṭlaq (The Absolute Object): derived from the same verb.

2- Al-Maf'ūl bihi (The Direct Object): the object upon which the action of the subject occurs.

3- Al-Maf'ūl fih (The Object of Time or Place/The Adverbial Object): the ظرف (adverb of time or place) occurs within it.

4- Al-Maf'ūl lahu (The Object for which/The Object of Purpose/The Cause): the action occurs for its sake.

5- Al-Maf'ūl ma'ahu (The Object with which/The Object of Accompaniment): the action occurs with it, not upon it.

المَفَاعِيل

كَمْ عَدَدَ الْمَفَاعِيلِ ؟

المَفْعُولَاتُ خَمْسَةٌ، وَهِيَ.

- 1- المَفْعُولُ الْمُطْلَقُ مِنْ نَفْسِ الْفِعْلِ الْوَاقِعِ.
- 2- المَفْعُولُ بِهِ يَقَعُ عَلَيْهِ فِعْلُ الْفَاعِلِ.
- 3- المَفْعُولُ فِيهِ، يَقَعُ الظَّرْفُ فِيهِ.
- 4- المَفْعُولُ لَهُ، يَقَعُ الْفِعْلُ لِأَجْلِهِ.
- 5- المَفْعُولُ مَعَهُ، يَقَعُ الْفِعْلُ مَعَهُ لَا عَلَيْهِ.

The Absolute Object (Al-Maf'ool Al-Mutlaq)

What is the absolute object (Al-Maf'ool Al-Mutlaq) and what is its purpose?

It is a verbal noun (Masdar) mentioned after a verb of the same root to confirm its meaning, indicate its number, or indicate its type.

1- Allah Almighty's saying: "And Allah spoke to Moses with [direct] speech." (An-Nisa: 164).

(And spoke): past tense verb, built on the apparent

(Allah): the name of Majesty, subject, raised, الله Fatha. and the sign of its being raised is the apparent Damma.

(Moses): object, (accusative), and the sign of its being is the estimated Fatha, its appearance was prevented by (inability).

(speech): absolute object (Maf'ool Mutlaq), (accusative), and the sign of its being is the apparent Fatha.

المَفْعُولُ الْمُطْلَقُ

ما هُوَ الْمَفْعُولُ الْمُطْلَقُ وَمَاذَا يُفِيدُ ؟

مَصْدَرٌ يُذَكِّرُ بَعْدَ فِعْلِ مِنْ لَفْظِهِ تَأْكِيدًا لِمَعْنَاهُ، أَوْ بَيَانًا لِعَدَدِهِ، أَوْ بَيَانًا لِنَوْعِهِ.

1- قوله تعالى : "وَكَلَّمَ اللَّهُ مُوسَى تَكْلِيمًا" (النساء: ١٦٤).

وَكَلَّمَ : فِعْلٌ مَاضٍ مَبْنِي عَلَى الْفَتْحِ الظَّاهِرِ.
اللَّهُ : اسْمُ الْجَلَالَةِ فَاعِلٌ مَرْفُوعٌ وَعَلَامَةٌ رَفَعَهُ الضَّمَّةُ الظَّاهِرَةُ.

مُوسَى : مَفْعُولٌ بِهِ مَنْصُوبٌ وَعَلَامَةٌ نَصَبِهِ الْفَتْحَةُ الْمُقَدَّرَةُ مَنَعَ مِنْ ظُهُورِهَا التَّعَدُّرُ.
تَكْلِيمًا : مَفْعُولٌ مُطْلَقٌ مَنْصُوبٌ وَعَلَامَةٌ نَصَبِهِ الْفَتْحَةُ الظَّاهِرَةُ.

2- His saying (Exalted is He): "So We seized them with the seizure of One Mighty, Perfect in Ability." (Allah 142) "

(So We seized them): A past tense verb, built on sukoon (quiescence) due to its connection to the moving subject pronoun. The "taa" is a built, connected pronoun in the place of a subject in the nominative case.

And the "noon": A connected pronoun, built on sukoon, in the place of a subject in the nominative case.

And the "haa": Built on dhamma, in the place of an object in the accusative case.

And the "meem" for the (jama') of intelligent males: A letter built on sukoon, it has no place in the declension.

(seizure): An absolute object (accusative), and its sign of (accusative) is the apparent (fatha). And it is a (possessive construction/genitive case). "

" (Mighty): (genitive case), (genitive), and its sign of (genitive) is the apparent (kasra). "

" (Perfect in Ability): An adjective, (genitive), and its sign of (genitive) is the apparent (kasra).

2- قوله تعالى : " فَأَخَذْنَاهُمْ أَخَذَ عَزِيزٌ مُّقْتَدِرٌ " (اللهم

١٤٢

فَأَخَذْنَاهُمْ : فِعْلٌ مَاضٍ مَبْنِيٌّ عَلَى السُّكُونِ لِاتِّصَالِهِ بِضَمِيرِ
الرَّفْعِ الْمُتَحَرِّكِ وَالتَّاءِ ضَمِيرٌ مَبْنِيٌّ مُتَّصِلٌ فِي مَحَلِّ رَفْعٍ فَاعِلٍ.
وَالنُّونُ: ضَمِيرٌ مُتَّصِلٌ مَبْنِيٌّ عَلَى السُّكُونِ فِي مَحَلِّ رَفْعٍ فَاعِلٍ،
وَالهَاءُ: مَبْنِيٌّ عَلَى الضَّمِّ فِي مَحَلِّ نَصْبٍ مَفْعُولٍ بِهِ وَالْمِيمُ

الظَاهِرَةُ، وَهُوَ مُضَافٌ.

عَزِيزٌ : مُضَافٌ إِلَيْهِ مَجْرُورٌ وَعَلَامَةُ جَرِّهِ الْكَسْرَةُ الظَاهِرَةُ.
مُّقْتَدِرٌ : نَعْتُ مَجْرُورٌ وَعَلَامَةُ جَرِّهِ الْكَسْرَةُ الظَاهِرَةُ.

The Object (Al-Maf'ool Bihi)

What is the object (Al-Maf'ool Bihi) and what are its types?

It is the accusative noun on which the verb of the subject acts, and its occurrence is either in the direction of affirmation or in the direction of negation.

As in the saying of God Almighty: "Let them worship the Lord of this House" (Quraysh: 3).

Let them worship: "Laam" is the "Laam al-Amr" (the command "Laam", and it never comes except after a "waw" or a "faa", like in this verse and like in the saying of God Almighty: "And let a group come" (An-Nisa: 102). If a "waw" or a "faa" is absent, the "Laam" is with a kasrah, as in the saying of God Almighty: "Let a man of wealth spend from his wealth" (At-Talaq: 7).

Worship: A present tense verb, jussive with "Laam al-Amr," and its jussive sign is the deletion of the "noon" because it is from the "Five Examples" (al-Amthilah al-Khamsah), and the "waw" is a connected pronoun, built on sukoon, in the position of subject.

Lord: Object (Maf'ool Bihi), accusative, and its accusative sign is the apparent Fatha, and it is a Mudhaf (possessive construction, first noun).

This: An indicative noun, built on sukoon, in the position of genitive Mudhaf (possessive construction, second noun).

House: (substitute/appositive), genitive, and its genitive sign is the apparent kasrah.

المفعول به

مَا هُوَ الْمَفْعُولُ بِهِ وَمَا أَنْوَاعُهُ ؟

هُوَ الْاسْمُ الْمَنْصُوبُ الَّذِي يَقَعُ عَلَيْهِ فِعْلُ الْفَاعِلِ، وَإِمَّا أَنْ يَكُونَ وَقُوعُهُ عَلَى جِهَةِ الثُّبُوتِ، وَإِمَّا أَنْ يَكُونَ وَقُوعُهُ عَلَى جِهَةِ النِّفْيِ.

كَقَوْلِهِ تَعَالَى: "فَلْيَعْبُدُوا رَبَّ هَذَا الْبَيْتِ" (قريش : ٣).

فَلْيَعْبُدُوا: «اللام» لَامُ الْأَمْرِ وَهِيَ لَا تَأْتِي أَبَدًا إِلَّا بَعْدَ وَאוٍ أَوْ فَاءٍ

كَهَذِهِ الْآيَةِ وَكَقَوْلِهِ تَعَالَى: "وَلَتَأْتِ طَائِفَةٌ" (النساء: ١٠٢)، فَإِنْ

سَعَةٍ مِّن سَعَتِهِ» (الطلاق: ٧).

يَعْبُدُوا: فِعْلٌ مُضَارِعٌ مُجْزُومٌ بِلَامِ الْأَمْرِ وَعَلَامَةٌ جَزْمِهِ حَذْفُ النُّونِ

لَأَنَّهُ مِنَ الْأَمْثَلَةِ الْخَمْسَةِ، وَالْوَاوُ ضَمِيرٌ مُتَّصِلٌ مَبْنِي عَلَى السُّكُونِ

فِي مَحَلِّ رَفْعِ فَاعِلٍ.

رَبَّ: مَفْعُولٌ بِهِ مَنْصُوبٌ وَعَلَامَةٌ نَصْبِهِ الْفَتْحَةُ الظَّاهِرَةُ، وَهُوَ

مُضَافٌ.

هَذَا: اسْمٌ إِشَارَةٌ مَبْنِي عَلَى السُّكُونِ فِي مَحَلِّ جَرِّ مُضَافٍ إِلَيْهِ.

الْبَيْتِ: بَدَلٌ مُجْرُورٌ وَعَلَامَةٌ جَرِّهِ الْكَسْرَةُ الظَّاهِرَةُ.

And His saying, the Most High: "Indeed, good deeds do away with misdeeds." (Hud: 114).

Indeed: An emphatic particle for emphasis, built on sukoon, it has no place in the parsing.

"Good deeds" (al-hasanat): The noun of "indeed," accusative case marked by a kasrah substituting for the fathah because it is a sound feminine plural. "Will erase"

(yudhhibna): A present tense verb built on silence due to its connection with the feminine plural suffix, and the feminine plural suffix is an attached pronoun built on the fathah in the position of the subject. The clause "will erase" is in the position of a predicate for "indeed".

"Bad deeds" (al-sayyi'at): A direct object in the accusative case marked by a kasrah substituting for the fathah because it is a sound feminine plural.

What are the pronouns that occur in the position of accusative case?

The attached pronouns that occur in the position of an accusative direct object are:

The ya' (i) for the speaker: Such as "Muhammad visited me," where "ya'" is an attached pronoun built on Sukun in the position of an accusative direct object.

And "na" for speakers (first-person plural): Such as "Muhammad visited us," where "na" is an attached pronoun built on Sukun in the position of an accusative direct object.

And the kaf for the addressed male and female: Such as "Muhammad visited you (male)," where "kaf" is an attached pronoun built on Fatha in the position of an accusative direct object.

وقوله تعالى: "إِنَّ الْحَسَنَاتِ يُذْهِبْنَ السَّيِّئَاتِ" (هود: ١١٤).

"The detached pronoun is used to begin a sentence. The detached pronoun that is in the accusative case as an object is the pronoun "iyya," which must be followed by a marker indicating to whom it refers. Thus, you say: iyyaaya (me) - iyyaanaa (us) - iyyaaka (you, masculine singular) - iyyaakumaa (you, masculine dual) - iyyaakum (you, masculine plural) - iyyaakun (you, feminine plural) - iyyaahaa (her) - iyyaahumaa (them, dual) - iyyaahum (them, masculine plural) - iyyaahun (them, feminine plural).

As in His saying, may He be exalted: "It is You we worship" (Al-Fatiha: 5).

iyya: detached pronoun, indeclinable, in the accusative case as an object.

kaaf: pronoun of address, attached, indeclinable, with a fatha, has no grammatical function.

na'budu: present tense verb, in the nominative case, and its nominative marker is the apparent damma, and the subject is an implied pronoun, 'we.'

والمُنْفَصِلُ يُبْتَدَأُ بِهِ الْكَلَامُ، وَالضَّمِيرُ الْمُنْفَصِلُ الَّذِي يَقَعُ فِي مَحَلِّ نَصْبِ مَفْعُولٍ بِهِ هُوَ الضَّمِيرُ «إِيَّا»، الَّذِي لَا بُدَّ أَنْ تَلْحَقَهُ عَلَامَةٌ تَدُلُّ عَلَى مَنْ هُوَ لَهُ، فَتَقُولُ: إِيَّاي - إِيَّانَا - إِيَّاكَ - إِيَّاكُمَا - إِيَّاكُمْ - إِيَّاكُنَّ - إِيَّاهَا - إِيَّاهُمَا - إِيَّاهُمْ - إِيَّاهُنَّ.

كَقَوْلِهِ تَعَالَى: «إِيَّاكَ نَعْبُدُ» (الفاتحة: ٥).

إِيَّا: ضَمِيرٌ مُتَّصِلٌ مَبْنِيٌّ عَلَى السُّكُونِ فِي مَحَلِّ نَصْبِ مَفْعُولٍ بِهِ. الْكَافُ ضَمِيرٌ خِطَابٌ مُتَّصِلٌ مَبْنِيٌّ عَلَى الْفَتْحِ لَا مَحَلَّ لَهُ مِنَ الْإِعْرَابِ.

نَعْبُدُ: فِعْلٌ مُضَارِعٌ مَرْفُوعٌ وَعَلَامَةٌ رَفَعِهِ الضَّمَّةُ الظَّاهِرَةُ، وَالْفَاعِلُ ضَمِيرٌ مُسْتَتِرٌ تَقْدِيرُهُ أَنْتَ.

The Adverbial Object (Al-Maf'ool Feeh)

What is the adverbial object, and what is its purpose?

It is what is mentioned to indicate the time or place in which an action occurred. The term “dharf” translated here as 'adverbial object' in the language means "container." Times and places are called “dhuroof” plural of dharf because actions occur within them, so they are like containers for those actions.

The adverbial object is mentioned to clarify the time or place of the action, provided that it includes the meaning of "in."

For example: "I fasted on Thursday." Meaning that the fasting happened on this day. "I sat in front of the Kaaba." Meaning that the sitting happened in this place.

And from this is His saying, the Most High: "Allah will judge between them on the Day of Resurrection." (Al-Baqarah 113)

(Yawm, meaning 'day'): adverbial object, adverb of time, related to "will judge," (mansoob, i.e., in the accusative case), (fatha, diacritical فتحة and its accusative marker is the apparent mark indicating the short 'a' sound).

And likewise, His saying: "He will precede his people on the Day of Resurrection." (Hud: 98)

(Yawm, meaning 'day'): adverbial object, adverb of time, related to "He will precede," (mansoob, i.e., in the accusative case), and its accusative marker is the apparent (fatha, diacritical mark indicating the short 'a' sound).

المَفْعُولُ فِيهِ

مَا هُوَ الْمَفْعُولُ فِيهِ وَمَا فَايِدَتْهُ ؟

هُوَ مَا ذُكِرَ لِأَجْلِ أَمْرٍ وَقَعَ فِيهِ مِنْ ظَرْفِ الزَّمَانِ أَوْ ظَرْفِ الْمَكَانِ.
وَالظَرْفُ فِي اللُّغَةِ هُوَ الْوِعَاءُ، فَسُمِّيَتِ الْأَزْمِنَةُ وَالْأَمَكِنَةُ ظُرُوفًا لِأَنَّ
الْأَفْعَالَ تَحْصِلُ فِيهَا، فَصَارَتْ كَالْأَوْعِيَةِ لَهَا.

فَالْمَفْعُولُ فِيهِ يُذَكِّرُ لِبَيَانِ زَمَانِ الْفِعْلِ أَوْ مَكَانِهِ، بِشَرْطِ أَنْ يَتَّصِفَ
مَعْنَى "فِي"

يُقَالُ: "صُمْتُ يَوْمَ الْخَمِيسِ"، أَيَّ أَنَّ الصِّيَامَ حَدَثَ فِي هَذَا الْيَوْمِ.
"جَلَسْتُ أَمَامَ الْكُعْبَةِ" أَيَّ أَنَّ الْجُلُوسَ حَدَثَ فِي هَذَا الْمَكَانِ.

وَمِنْهُ قَوْلُهُ تَعَالَى: "فَاللَّهُ يَحْكُمُ بَيْنَهُمْ يَوْمَ الْقِيَامَةِ" (البقرة ١١٣)
يَوْمَ: مَفْعُولٌ فِيهِ ظَرْفُ زَمَانٍ مُتَعَلِّقٌ بِـ "يَحْكُمُ" مِنْصُوبٌ وَعَلَامَةٌ
نُصِبَهُ الْفَتْحَةُ الظَّاهِرَةُ.

وكَذَلِكَ قَوْلُهُ: "يَقْدُمُ قَوْمَهُ يَوْمَ الْقِيَامَةِ" (هود: ٩٨)
يَوْمَ: مَفْعُولٌ فِيهِ ظَرْفُ زَمَانٍ مُتَعَلِّقٌ بِـ "يَقْدُمُ" مِنْصُوبٌ وَعَلَامَةٌ
نُصِبَهُ الْفَتْحَةُ الظَّاهِرَةُ.

What is the Ma'aool Ma'ah, and what are its conditions?

It is the (accusative) noun that is mentioned to clarify who the action was done with. It is (singular), so it is not a (sentence) or (phrase). It must be preceded by the waw of accompaniment or association (waw al-muṣāḥabah or al-ma'iyyah).

Example: (I came with the Nile.

Meaning: I came with the Nile, meaning that it was accompanying the Nile during the period of my coming.

(Ji'tu - I came): A past tense verb built on sukoon due to its connection to the (mutaharrik - mobile) (nominative) pronoun. The (ta - I) is a (pronoun) built and attached in the nominative case in the position of the subject (- fa'il).

(wa waw al-ma'iyyah - and the waw of accompaniment): A letter built on (fatha - vowel mark indicating the 'a' sound), it has no grammatical function in the sentence.

(an-Nile - the Nile): Ma'aool Ma'ah (accusative), and its (sign) of (accusative case) is the (visible) (fatha).

المَفْعُولُ مَعَهُ

مَا هُوَ الْمَفْعُولُ مَعَهُ وَمَا شَرْطُهُ ؟

هُوَ الْاسْمُ الْمَنْصُوبُ الَّذِي يُذَكَّرُ لِبَيَانِ مَنْ فَعَلَ مَعَهُ الْفِعْلَ، وَيَكُونُ مُفْرَدًا، فَلَيْسَ بِجُمْلَةٍ وَلَا شِبْهَ جُمْلَةٍ، وَلَا بُدَّ أَنْ تَسْبِقَهُ وَאוּ الْمَصَاحِبَةُ أَوْ الْمَعِيَّةُ.

مِثَالُهُ: جِئْتُ وَالنَّيْلَ.

أَي: جِئْتُ مَعَ النَّيْلِ، أَيْ أَنَّهُ كَانَ مُصَاحِبًا لِلنَّيْلِ مُدَّةَ مَجِيئِهِ.

جِئْتُ: فِعْلٌ مَاضٍ مَبْنِي عَلَى السُّكُونِ لَا تَتَّصَالُهُ بِضَمِيرِ الرَّفْعِ الْمُتَحَرِّكِ وَالتَّاءُ ضَمِيرٌ مَبْنِي مُتَّصِلٌ عَلَى الضَّمِّ فِي مَحَلِّ رَفْعٍ فَاعِلٍ.

وَوَاوُ الْمَعِيَّةِ: حَرْفٌ مَبْنِي عَلَى الْفَتْحِ لَا مَحَلَّ لَهُ مِنَ الْإِعْرَابِ.

النَّيْلُ: مَفْعُولٌ مَعَهُ مَنْصُوبٌ وَعَلَامَةٌ نَصْبِهِ الْفَتْحَةُ الظَّاهِرَةُ.

The Maful Lahu (Object for Which)

What is the Maful Lahu and what is its benefit?

It is also called: Al-Maful Li Ajlih (Object for the Sake Of) or Al-Maful Min Ajlih (Object From the Sake Of). It is a "heartfelt" source, meaning originating in the heart, not the limbs, such as fear and love. It is in the accusative case and comes to explain the reason for the occurrence of the verb. It must share the same time and subject as the verb.

Allah said: "They put their fingers in their ears from the thunderbolts, fearing death." (Al-Baqarah: 19).

"Fearing" (Hathar): Maful Li Ajlih, in the accusative case, and its accusative marker is the apparent Fatha.

"Fearing" is a source that clarifies the reason for the verb "they put," and it shares the same time with the verb "they put," because putting fingers in the ears and fearing are happening at the same time. It also shares the same subject, because those who put their fingers in their ears from the thunderbolts are the ones who feared death.

المَفْعُولُ لَهُ

ما هو المَفْعُولُ لَهُ وَمَا فَايِدَتُهُ ؟

يُقَالُ لَهُ: المَفْعُولُ لِأَجْلِهِ أَوِ المَفْعُولُ مِنْ أَجْلِهِ وَهُوَ مَصْدَرٌ قَلْبِي أَيْ: مَنَشَوُءُ الْقَلْبِ لَا الْجَوَارِحَ كَالْخَوْفِ وَالْحُبِّ وَهُوَ مَنْصُوبٌ يَأْتِي لِبَيَانِ سَبَبِ وَقُوعِ الْفِعْلِ، وَلَا بُدَّ أَنْ يُشَارِكَهُ فِي الزَّمَانِ وَفِي الْفَاعِلِ.

قَالَ تَعَالَى: "يَجْعَلُونَ أَصْبِعَهُمْ فِيْٓ ءَاذَانِهِمْ مِّنَ الصَّوَاعِقِ حَذَرَ الْمَوْتِ" (البقرة: ١٩).

حَذَرَ: مَفْعُولٌ لِأَجْلِهِ مَنْصُوبٌ وَعَلَامَةُ نَصْبِهِ الْفَتْحَةُ الظَّاهِرَةُ. حَذَرَ مَصْدَرٌ مُبَيَّنٌ لِسَبَبِ الْفِعْلِ يَجْعَلُونَ، وَهُوَ مُشَارِكٌ لِلْفِعْلِ يَجْعَلُونَ فِي الْوَقْتِ لِأَنَّ جَعَلَ الْأَصَابِعِ فِي الْأَذَانِ وَالْحَذَرَ حَدَثًا فِي وَقْتٍ وَاحِدٍ، وَمُشَارِكٌ لَهُ أَيْضًا فِي الْفَاعِلِ لِأَنَّ الَّذِينَ جَعَلُوا أَصْبِعَهُمْ فِيْٓ ءَاذَانِهِمْ مِّنَ الصَّوَاعِقِ هُمُ الَّذِينَ حَذَرُوا الْمَوْتَ

The Vocative

What is the vocative, and what are the particles of address?

The vocative is a type of object (of a verb). So, your saying: "O servant of God" (Ya `Abd Allah) originates from: "O I call upon the servant of God," or "O I summon the servant of God." And since the necessity called for using the vocative frequently, grammarians mandated the omission of the verb.

The particles of address are: "Ya, Ay, A, Hayya" for the distant, and the hamza for the near.

Know that the vocative in the Quran only occurs with "Ya."

What are the types of vocatives, and what is the ruling for each type?

The vocative: it is either a single word, a definite (intended) noun in the indefinite state, an indefinite (unintended) noun in the indefinite state, a genitive construction, or similar to a genitive construction.

As for the single word and the definite noun in the indefinite state, they are built on what they are raised with, in the place of accusative.

As for the indefinite noun in the indefinite state, the genitive construction, and that which is similar to the genitive construction, they are (accusative) with the (fat-ha).

المُنَادِي

مَا هُوَ الْمُنَادِي، وَمَا هِيَ أَدَوَاتُ النَّدَاءِ ؟

الْمُنَادِي نَوْعٌ مِنَ الْمَفْعُولِ بِهِ.
فَقَوْلُكَ: يَا عَبْدَ اللَّهِ أَصْلُهُ: يَا أَدْعُو عَبْدَ اللَّهِ ، أَوْ يَا أَنَادِي عَبْدَ اللَّهِ ،
وَلَمَّا كَانَتْ الضَّرُورَةُ دَاعِيَةً إِلَى اسْتِعْمَالِ النَّدَاءِ كَثِيرًا أَوْجَبَ النُّحَاةُ
حَذْفَ الْفِعْلِ.

وَأَدَوَاتُ النَّدَاءِ هِيَ: يَا، أَيُّ، آ، هَيَّا لِلْبَعِيدِ، وَالْهَمْزَةُ لِلْقَرِيبِ.
وَاعْلَمْ أَنَّ النَّدَاءَ لَمْ يَقَعْ فِي الْقُرْآنِ إِلَّا بِـ " يَا "

مَا هِيَ أَنْوَاعُ الْمُنَادِي ، وَمَا حُكْمُ كُلِّ نَوْعٍ ؟

الْمُنَادِي: إمَّا أَنْ يَكُونَ مُفْرَدًا، أَوْ نَكِرَةً مَقْصُودَةً أَوْ نَكِرَةً غَيْرَ
مَقْصُودَةٍ، أَوْ مُضَافًا، أَوْ شَبِيهًا بِالْمُضَافِ.
فَأَمَّا الْمُفْرَدُ وَالنَّكِرَةُ الْمَقْصُودَةُ ، فَيُبْنَى عَلَى مَا يُرْفَعُ بِهِ فِي مَحَلِّ
نَصْبٍ.

وَأَمَّا النَّكِرَةُ الْغَيْرُ مَقْصُودَةٍ ، وَالْمُضَافُ وَالشَّبِيهُ بِالْمُضَافِ ،
فَيُنْصَبُ عَلَى الْفَتْحِ.

First: The Single Proper Noun (Munadaa Al-Mufrad Al-Alam)

It is what is neither an addendum (Mudhaf) nor similar to an addendum (Shabih bil-Mudhaf), and the author has exemplified it with his saying: "Ya Imam (O Imam)."

It is constructed on what it would be raised by, in the place of accusative of the vocative.

"Ya Adam (O Adam)" Al-Baqarah 133

Ya: A particle of calling (Nidaa) built on sukun, it has no place in the declension (I'rab).

Adam: A single proper noun vocative, built on the dammah in the place of accusative.

Second: The Intended Indefinite Noun (Nakirah Maqsoodah).

It is the indefinite noun that you intend specifically in the calling.

An example of it: The saying of the Prophet, peace and blessings be upon him, to Abdullah bin Abbas, may God be pleased with them: "Ya Ghulam (O boy)! I will teach you some words:...."

In "Ghulam" (boy) is an indefinite noun, but the Prophet intended Abdullah bin Abbas by it.

And its ruling is like the single proper noun; it is constructed on what it is raised by, and it is in the place of accusative.

So it is said in the declension of "Ghulam": An intended indefinite noun vocative, built on the dammah in the place of accusative.

أولاً: المُنَادِي المُمَفَّر العَلَم

وَهُوَ مَا لَيْسَ مُضَافاً وَلَا شَبِيهاً بِالْمُضَافِ ، وَقَدْ مَثَّلَ النَّاطِمُ بِقَوْلِهِ:
"يَا إِمَامُ."

وَيُنَبِّئُ عَلَى مَا كَانَ مُرْتَفِعاً بِهِ فِي مَحَلِّ نَصْبِ مُنَادَى.
"يَأَدَمُ" البقرة ١٣٣

يَا: حَرْفُ نِدَاءٍ مَبْنِي عَلَى السُّكُونِ لَا مَحَلَّ لَهُ مِنَ الْإِعْرَابِ.
أَدَمُ: مُنَادَى مُفَرَّدٌ عَلَمٌ مَبْنِي عَلَى الضَّمِّ فِي مَحَلِّ نَصْبٍ.

الثاني: النِّكَرَةُ المَقْصُودَةُ.

هِيَ النِّكَرَةُ الَّتِي تَقْصِدُ قَصْداً فِي النِّدَاءِ.
مِثَالُهُ: قَوْلُ النَّبِيِّ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ لِعَبْدِ اللَّهِ بْنِ عَبَّاسٍ رَضِيَ
اللَّهُ عَنْهُمَا: يَا غُلَامُ ! إِنِّي أَعَلَّمْتُكَ كَلِمَاتٍ.....
فِي « غُلَامُ » نِكْرَةٌ، وَلَكِنَّ النَّبِيَّ كَانَ يَقْصِدُ بِهَا عَبْدُ اللَّهِ بْنَ عَبَّاسٍ
وَحُكْمُهُ كَالْمُفَرَّدِ الْعَلَمِ يُبْنَى عَلَى مَا يُرْفَعُ بِهِ وَيَكُونُ فِي مَحَلِّ نَصْبٍ.
فَيُقَالُ فِي إِعْرَابِ "غُلَامُ": مُنَادَى نِكْرَةٌ مَقْصُودَةٌ مَبْنِي عَلَى الضَّمِّ فِي
مَحَلِّ نَصْبٍ.

The Third: Unspecified Indefinite Noun

This refers to a noun where a specific individual is not intended, like when a speaker says on the pulpit: "O heedless one, awaken! O sinner, repent!"

He is not calling out to a specific sinner, but rather intends all sinners in general, without singling out anyone in particular. It is marked by the accusative case (fatha).

"Ghafilan (heedless one)," "Muthniban (sinner)": Unspecified indefinite noun in the accusative case, marked by the visible fatha.

The Fourth: The Addressed Possessive Construction (al-Mudaaf)

"O company of jinn..." (Al-An'am: 130)

"Ma'shara (company)": Addressed possessive construction in the accusative case, marked by the visible fatha, and it is a possessive.

"Al-Jinn (of jinn)": Possessed, in the genitive case, marked by the visible kasra.

The Fifth: The Addressed Noun Similar to Possessive Construction (al-Shabih bil-Mudaaf)

"O Merciful to us."

"Rahiman (Merciful)": Addressed noun similar to possessive construction, in the accusative case, marked by the visible fatha

الثالث: النكرة الغير مقصودة

وهي التي لا يُرادُ بها واحدٌ بعينه، كقولِ الخطيبِ على المنبرِ: "يا غافلاً تنبّه، يا مُذنباً تُب".
فهو لا يُنادي مُذنباً بعينه، وإنّما يُقصدُ عمومُ المُذنبين، من غيرِ تعيينٍ لواحدٍ بعينه وتُنصبُ بالفتح.
غافلاً، مُذنباً: مُنادى نكرةٌ غيرُ مقصودةٍ منصوبٌ وَعَلامةُ نصبه الفتحُ الظاهرةُ.

الرابع: المضاف.

"يَمْعَشَرُ الْجَنُّ" (الأنعام: ١٣٠)

مَعَشَرَ: مُنادى مُضافٌ منصوبٌ وَعَلامةُ نصبه الفتحُ الظاهرةُ، وهو مُضافٌ.

الْجَنُّ: مُضافٌ إليه مجرورٌ وَعَلامةُ جرّه الكسرةُ الظاهرةُ.

الخامس: الشبيه بالمضاف.

"يا رَحِيماً بنا".

رَحِيماً: مُنادى شبيهٌ بالمُضافِ، منصوبٌ وَعَلامةُ نصبه الفتحُ الظاهرةُ.

The Adverbial Clause of Manner (al-Ḥāl)

What is the adverbial clause of manner (al-Ḥāl), and what is its function?

Al-Ḥāl: It is a non-essential, accusative noun that clarifies the state or condition of the subject, the object, or both together.

"Non-essential noun" means it is not a core element of the sentence; that is, it is not a subject, a predicate, a verb, or an agent (subject performing the action).

As in the saying of God Almighty: "That day mankind will issue forth in scattered groups" (Al-Zalzalah: 6)

"Scattered" (Ashtata): An accusative al-Ḥāl, with the accusative marker being the visible فتحه (fatḥah).

And His saying Almighty: "He will send [rain from] the sky upon you in showers" (Noah: 11)

"In showers" (Midraran): An accusative al-Ḥāl, with the accusative marker being the visible فتحه (fatḥah).

الحَالُ

مَا هُوَ الْحَالُ ، وَمَا فَائِدَتُهُ ؟

الحَالُ: اسْمٌ فَضْلَةٌ مَنْصُوبٌ يُبَيِّنُ هَيْئَةَ الْفَاعِلِ، أَوْ الْمَفْعُولِ بِهِ، أَوْ كِلَاهُمَا مَعًا.

اسْمٌ فَضْلَةٌ: يَعْنِي لَيْسَ عُمْدَةً، يَعْنِي لَيْسَ هُوَ مُبْتَدَأً، وَلَا خَبَرًا، وَلَا فِعْلًا، وَلَا فَاعِلًا.

كَقَوْلِهِ تَعَالَى: "يَصْدُرُ النَّاسُ أَشْتَاتًا" (الزلزلة: ٦)

أَشْتَاتًا: حَالٌ مَنْصُوبٌ وَعَلَامَةٌ نَصْبِهِ الْفَتْحَةُ الظَّاهِرَةُ.

وَقَوْلُهُ تَعَالَى: "يُرْسِلُ السَّمَاءُ عَلَيْكُمْ مِدْرَارًا" (نوح:

(١١)

مِدْرَارًا: حَالٌ مَنْصُوبٌ وَعَلَامَةٌ نَصْبِهِ الْفَتْحَةُ الظَّاهِرَةُ.

Distinction (Tamyeez)

What is Tamyeez and what are its types?

Tamyeez: It is an indefinite accusative noun that comes to explain the ambiguity of entities or relations.

Accordingly, it is divided into two types: Tamyeez of entity (Dhat) and Tamyeez of relation (النسبة).

1- Tamyeez of entity (Dhat).

What is Tamyeez of entity (Dhat) and where does it occur?

It is what clarifies an ambiguous word, and it is also called Tamyeez Mufrad (single) or Tamyeez Malfuz (explicit). This type of Tamyeez occurs after numbers, measures, or what resembles measures.

1 - After numbers: This includes numbers falling between eleven and ninety-nine.

As in the verse: "Indeed, I saw eleven stars" (Yusuf: 4).

Indeed (Inna): A particle of emphasis built on Fatha, it has no place in declension, and the Ya (my) pronoun is in the place of accusative of Inna...

I saw (Ra'aytu): A past verb built on Sukoon because it is connected to a moving nominative pronoun, and the Taa (I) pronoun is a built-in connected pronoun on Damma in the place of nominative subject, and the sentence is in the place of nominative of Inna's predicate.

Eleven (Ahada Ashara): A noun built on the opening of the two parts in the place of accusative object.

التَّمْيِيزُ

ما هو التَّمْيِيزُ وما أَقْسَامُهُ ؟

التَّمْيِيزُ: هُوَ اسْمٌ نَكْرَةٌ مَنْصُوبٌ يَأْتِي تَفْسِيرًا لِلْمُبْهَمِ مِنَ الذَّوَاتِ أَوْ النَّسَبِ.

وَعَلَى ذَلِكَ فَهُوَ قِسْمَانِ: تَمْيِيزُ الذَّاتِ وَتَمْيِيزُ النَّسَبَةِ.

1- تَمْيِيزُ الذَّاتِ.

مَا هُوَ تَمْيِيزُ الذَّاتِ وَأَيْنَ يَقَعُ ؟

وَهُوَ الَّذِي يُفَسِّرُ كَلِمَةً مُبْهَمَةً، وَيُسَمَّى أَيْضًا تَمْيِيزُ مُفْرَدٍ أَوْ تَمْيِيزُ مَلْفُوظٍ وَيَقَعُ هَذَا النَّوعُ مِنَ التَّمْيِيزِ بَعْدَ الْأَعْدَادِ أَوْ الْمَقَادِيرِ، أَوْ مَا يُشَبِّهُ الْمَقَادِيرَ.

1 - بَعْدَ الْأَعْدَادِ:

وَيَشْمَلُ الْأَعْدَادَ الْوَاقِعَةَ بَيْنَ أَحَدٍ عَشَرَ إِلَى تِسْعَةٍ وَتِسْعِينَ.

كَقَوْلِهِ تَعَالَى: " إِنِّي رَأَيْتُ أَحَدَ عَشَرَ كَوْكَبًا " (يوسف: 4).

إِنَّ: حَرْفٌ نَاسِخٌ مَبْنِي عَلَى الْفَتْحِ لَا مَحَلَّ لَهُ مِنَ الْإِعْرَابِ، وَبَاءُ الْمُتَكَلِّمِ فِي مَحَلِّ نَصْبِ اسْمٍ إِنَّ...

رَأَيْتُ: فِعْلٌ مَاضٍ مَبْنِي عَلَى السُّكُونِ لَا تَصَالِهِ بِضَمِيرِ الرَّفْعِ الْمُتَحَرِّكِ وَالتَّاءُ ضَمِيرٌ مَبْنِي مُتَّصِلٌ عَلَى الضَّمِّ فِي مَحَلِّ رَفْعِ فَاعِلٍ، وَالْجُمْلَةُ فِي مَحَلِّ رَفْعِ خَبَرٍ إِنَّ.

أَحَدَ عَشَرَ: اسْمٌ مَبْنِي عَلَى فَتْحِ الْجَزَيْنِ فِي مَحَلِّ نَصْبِ مَفْعُولٍ بِهِ.

كَوْكَبًا: تَمْيِيزٌ مَنْصُوبٌ وَعَلَامَةٌ نَصْبِهِ الْفَتْحَةُ الظَّاهِرَةُ.

2 - After Quantities:

This includes what indicates weight, area, or capacity.

Allah the Almighty said: "So whoever does an atom's weight of good will see it."

(whoever): A conditional noun in the accusative case, built on sukoon, in the subject position.

(does): A present tense verb in the jussive case because it is the verb of the condition, and its jussive marker is sukoon. The subject is a hidden pronoun, estimated as "he," and the verbal sentence is in the nominative case as the predicate.

(weight): An object of the verb, in the accusative case, and its accusative marker is the apparent fatha, and it is a mudhaf (possessive construction, i.e., followed by a noun in genitive case).

(atom's): A mudhaf ilayh (noun in genitive case), in the genitive case, and its genitive marker is the apparent kasra.

(good): A tamyiz (distinguishing specification), in the accusative case, and its accusative marker is the apparent fatha.

(will see it): A present tense verb in the jussive case because it is the answer to a conditional clause, and its jussive marker is the omission of the last letter of the verb, and the subject is a hidden pronoun, estimated as "he." The verbal sentence has no place in declension because it is the answer to a conditional clause that is not associated with "fa" or "idha al-fuja'iyya" (sudden if).

2 - بَعْدَ الْمَقَادِيرِ:

وَيَشْمَلُ مَا يَدُلُّ عَلَى الْوُزْنِ، أَوِ الْمِسَاحَةِ، أَوِ الْكَثَلِ.

قَالَ تَعَالَى: "فَمَنْ يَعْمَلْ مِثْقَالَ ذَرَّةٍ خَيْرًا يَرَهُ."

فَمَنْ: اسْمٌ شَرْطٌ جَازِمٌ مَبْنِي عَلَى السُّكُونِ فِي مَحَلِّ رَفْعٍ مُبْتَدَأٍ.

يَعْمَلُ: فِعْلٌ مُضَارِعٌ مَجْزُومٌ لِأَنَّهُ فِعْلٌ الشَّرْطِ وَعَلَامَةُ جَزْمِهِ

السُّكُونُ ، وَالْفَاعِلُ ضَمِيرٌ مُسْتَتِرٌ تَقْدِيرُهُ هُوَ ، وَالْجُمْلَةُ الْفِعْلِيَّةُ فِي مَحَلِّ رَفْعٍ خَبَرٍ.

مِثْقَالٌ: مَفْعُولٌ بِهِ مَنْصُوبٌ وَعَلَامَةُ نَصْبِهِ الْفَتْحَةُ الظَّاهِرَةُ، وَهُوَ مُضَافٌ.

ذَرَّةٌ: مُضَافٌ إِلَيْهِ مَجْرُورٌ وَعَلَامَةُ جَرِّهِ الْكَسْرَةُ الظَّاهِرَةُ.

خَيْرًا: تَمْيِيزٌ مَنْصُوبٌ وَعَلَامَةُ نَصْبِهِ الْفَتْحَةُ الظَّاهِرَةُ.

يَرَهُ: فِعْلٌ مُضَارِعٌ مَجْزُومٌ لِأَنَّهُ جَوَابُ شَرْطٍ جَازِمٍ وَعَلَامَةُ جَزْمِهِ

حَذْفُ حَرْفِ الْعِلَّةِ مِنْ آخِرِهِ ، وَالْفَاعِلُ ضَمِيرٌ مُسْتَتِرٌ تَقْدِيرُهُ

هُوَ ، وَالْجُمْلَةُ الْفِعْلِيَّةُ لَا مَحَلَّ لَهَا مِنَ الْإِعْرَابِ لِأَنَّهَا جَوَابُ شَرْطٍ

جَازِمٍ غَيْرِ مُقْتَرِنٍ بِالْفَاءِ أَوْ إِذَا الْفُجَائِيَّةِ.

What is the accusative of specification (tamyiz)?

It is that which clarifies the ambiguity contained in a sentence, and it is called: accusative of specification (tamyiz) of the sentence, or the perceived.

As in the saying of God: "And the head was set ablaze with grey hair."

So, it is valid in other than the Quran to say: "And grey hair set the head ablaze." Grey hair: accusative of specification (tamyiz), (accusative case), and its sign of (accusative case) is the apparent (fatha).

مَا هُوَ تَمْيِيزُ النَّسْبَةِ؟

وهو الذي يوضح الإيهام المتضمن في جملة ويقال له: تمييز النسبة أو الجملة أو الملحوظ.

كقوله تعالى: "وَأَشْتَعَلَ الرَّأْسُ شَيْبًا"

فيصح في غير القرآن أن تقول: "وَأَشْتَعَلَ شَيْبُ الرَّأْسِ".
شَيْبٌ: تمييز منصوب وعلامة نصبه الفتحة الظاهرة.

Exclusion (Exception)

What is Exclusion (Exception)? Exclusion (Exception):

It is the removal of what comes after the exclusion particle from the ruling of what precedes it, such as "The students attended except Zaid."

The noun from which something is excluded is the "excluded from" (the students).

The noun being excluded is the "excluded" (Zaid).

Exception tools such as "except, other than, Siwa, except, empty, Hasha"

What are the states of the exclusion (exception) sentence?

The exclusion (exception) sentence has three states:

1. Complete Affirmative Sentence: If the "excluded from" is mentioned, and the exclusion sentence is free of negation, prohibition, or interrogation, as in the Almighty's saying: "And they drank from it, except for a few of them" (Al-Baqarah: 249). This type is called: Complete Affirmative Exception.

2. Complete Non-Affirmative Sentence: If the "excluded from" exists, and the sentence is preceded by a negation, prohibition, or interrogation, such as: "The students did not attend except Zaid." This type is called: Complete Negative Exception.

الإِسْتِثْنَاءُ

ما هُوَ الإِسْتِثْنَاءُ ؟

الإِسْتِثْنَاءُ : هُوَ إِخْرَاجُ مَا بَعْدَ أَدَاةِ الإِسْتِثْنَاءِ مِنْ حُكْمِ مَا قَبْلَهُ نَحْوَ "حَضَرَ الطُّلَّابُ إِلَّا زَيْدًا".

فَالِإِسْمُ الْمُخْرَجُ مِنْهُ هُوَ الْمُسْتَثْنَى مِنْهُ (الطُّلَّابُ).

وَالِإِسْمُ الْمُخْرَجُ هُوَ الْمُسْتَثْنَى ، (زَيْدًا).

وَأَدَوَاتُ الإِسْتِثْنَاءِ كَ " إِلَّا ، غَيْرَ ، سِوَى ، عَدَا ، خَلَا ، حَاشَا "

مَا هِيَ أَحْوَالُ جُمْلَةِ الإِسْتِثْنَاءِ ؟

جُمْلَةُ الإِسْتِثْنَاءِ لَهَا ثَلَاثَةُ أَحْوَالٍ :

- 1- جُمْلَةٌ تَامَّةٌ مُوجِبَةٌ : إِذَا كَانَ الْمُسْتَثْنَى مِنْهُ مَذْكُورًا، وَجُمْلَةُ الإِسْتِثْنَاءِ خَالِيَةً مِنَ النَّفْيِ أَوْ النَّهْيِ أَوْ الإِسْتِفْهَامِ، كَقَوْلِهِ تَعَالَى: "فَشَرِبُوا مِنْهُ إِلَّا قَلِيلًا مِنْهُمْ" (البقرة: ٢٤٩) ، وَيُقَالُ لِهَذَا النَّوعِ: إِسْتِثْنَاءٌ تَامٌّ مُثَبَّتٌ.

- 2- جُمْلَةٌ تَامَّةٌ غَيْرُ مُوجِبَةٍ : إِذَا كَانَ الْمُسْتَثْنَى مِنْهُ مَوْجُودًا، وَكَانَتِ الْجُمْلَةُ مَسْبُوقَةً بِنَفْيٍ أَوْ نَهْيٍ أَوْ اسْتِفْهَامٍ، مِثْلُ: "مَا حَضَرَ الطُّلَّابُ إِلَّا زَيْدًا". وَيُقَالُ لِهَذَا النَّوعِ: إِسْتِثْنَاءٌ تَامٌّ مَنْفِي.

3- An incomplete negative sentence: when the subject from which the exception is made is not mentioned, and the sentence is preceded by a negation, prohibition, or interrogation, as in the saying of God Almighty: "Muhammad is but a messenger" (Al Imran: 144). This type is called: a negative incomplete exception.

If the exception is of the same type as the subject from which the exception is made, it is a connected attribution, such as "The students attended except Zaid."

If the exception is not of the same type as the subject from which the exception is made, it is a disconnected attribution, such as "The travelers arrived except for their luggage."

What is the ruling on the exception with "except" (illa)?

It has three cases:

The first case: If the exception sentence is complete and affirmative, then the exception must be in the accusative case .

God Almighty said: "Stand [in prayer] all night, except a little."

Stand: imperative verb, built on sukoon, and the end is kasra to prevent two silent letters from meeting, and the subject is an implied pronoun, its estimation is "you".

The night: an object in the accusative case, and its accusative marker is the apparent fatha.

Except: an exception particle built on sukoon, it has no place in the parsing.

A little: exception in the accusative case, and its accusative marker is the apparent fatha.

3- جُمْلَةٌ غَيْرُ تَامَّةٍ غَيْرُ مُوجِبَةٍ: إِذَا كَانَ الْمُسْتَثْنَى مِنْهُ غَيْرُ مَذْكُورٍ، وَكَانَتِ الْجُمْلَةُ مَسْبُوقَةً بِنَفْيٍ أَوْ نَهْيٍ أَوْ اسْتِفْهَامٍ، كَقَوْلِهِ تَعَالَى: " وَمَا مُحَمَّدٌ إِلَّا رَسُولٌ " (ال عمران: 144) وَيُقَالُ لِهَذَا النَّوعِ: إِسْتِثْنَاءٌ نَاقِصٌ مَنْفِيٌّ.

وَإِذَا كَانَ الْمُسْتَثْنَى مِنْ جِنْسِ الْمُسْتَثْنَى مِنْهُ فَهُوَ اسْنَادٌ مُتَّصِلٌ نَحْوُ "حَضَرَ الطُّلَّابُ إِلَّا زَيْدًا"
وَإِذَا كَانَ الْمُسْتَثْنَى مِنْ جِنْسِ الْمُسْتَثْنَى مِنْهُ فَهُوَ اسْنَادٌ مُنْقَطِعٌ نَحْوُ "وَصَلَ الْمَسَافِرُونَ إِلَّا أَمْتِعَتِهِمْ".

ما حُكِمَ الْمُسْتَثْنَى بِهِ "إِلَّا":

لَهُ ثَلَاثَةُ أَحْوَالٍ:

الحالة الأولى: إِذَا كَانَتْ جُمْلَةُ الْإِسْتِثْنَاءِ تَامَّةً مُوجِبَةً ، فَيَجِبُ نَصْبُ الْمُسْتَثْنَى.

قَالَ تَعَالَى: " قُمْ آلَيْلٍ إِلَّا قَلِيلًا "

قُمْ: فِعْلٌ أَمْرٌ مَبْنِي عَلَى السُّكُونِ ، وَكُسِرَ آخِرُهُ لِالْتِقَاءِ السَّاكِنَيْنِ، وَالْفَاعِلُ ضَمِيرٌ مُسْتَتِرٌ تَقْدِيرُهُ أَنْتَ.

آلَيْلٍ: مَفْعُولٌ بِهِ مَنْصُوبٌ وَعَلَامَةٌ نَصْبِهِ الْفَتْحَةُ الظَّاهِرَةُ.

إِلَّا: حَرْفٌ إِسْتِثْنَاءٍ مَبْنِي عَلَى السُّكُونِ لَا مَحَلَّ لَهُ مِنَ الْإِعْرَابِ قَلِيلًا: مُسْتَثْنَى مَنْصُوبٌ وَعَلَامَةٌ نَصْبِهِ الْفَتْحَةُ الظَّاهِرَةُ.

The second case: If the exception sentence is complete and negative, then it is permissible to use the accusative case, and it is permissible to follow the noun being excepted from, and it is parsed as a (substitute) of part of the whole.

As in the saying of God Almighty: "And let not anyone among you look back, except your wife." (Hud: 8)

(wa la): la al-nahia (the prohibitive la), a letter built on the sukun, it has no place in parsing.

(yaltafit): a present tense verb, jussive with "la," and its jussive sign is the sukun.

(ahad): a subject, nominative, and its nominative sign is the apparent damma.

(illa): An exception particle built on the sukun, it has no place in parsing.

(imra'atak): An excepted noun, accusative, and its accusative sign is the apparent fatha, and it is a mudaf (possessive noun), and the kaf is a connected pronoun built in the genitive case, mudaf (possessed noun).

The third case: If the exception sentence is incomplete and not affirmative, then (illa) is canceled, and what comes after it is parsed according to its position in the sentence. This type is known as the "unfilled exception," meaning that what precedes the exception particle is free to act on what comes after it.

Such as the saying of God Almighty: "Muhammad is but a messenger." (Al Imran: 144)

(wa ma): negating and ignored, a letter built on the sukun, it has no place in parsing.

(Muhammad): A subject, nominative, and its nominative sign is the apparent damma.

الحالة الثانية: إذا كانت جملة الاستثناء تامة منفيّة، فيجوز النصب، ويجوز اتّباعه للمستثنى منه، وإعرابه بدل بعض من كل.

كقوله تعالى: "وَلَا يَلْتَفِتْ مِنْكُمْ أَحَدٌ إِلَّا أَمْرَاتُكَ" (هود: ٨) وَلَا: لا الناهية، حرف مبني على السكون لا محلّ له من الإعراب.

يَلْتَفِتُ: فعل مضارع مجزوم بـ "لَا" وعلامة جزمه السكون. أَحَدٌ: فاعل مرفوع وعلامة رفعه الضمة الظاهرة.

إِلَّا: حرف استثناء مبني على السكون لا محلّ له من الإعراب. أَمْرَاتُكَ: مستثنى منصوب وعلامة نصبه الفتحة الظاهرة، وهو مضاف والكاف ضمير متصل مبني في محلّ جرّ مضاف إليه. الحالة الثالثة: إذا كانت جملة الاستثناء غير تامة غير موجبة، فتلغى (إلا) ويعرب ما بعدها حسب موقعه من الجملة، وهذا النوع يُعرف بالاستثناء المفرغ أي ما قبل حرف الاستثناء تفرغ للعمل فيما بعده.

نحو قوله تعالى: "وَمَا مُحَمَّدٌ إِلَّا رَسُولٌ" (ال عمران: 144) وَمَا: نافية مهيّئة حرف مبني على السكون لا محلّ له من الإعراب.

مُحَمَّدٌ: مبتدأ مرفوع وعلامة رفعه الضمة الظاهرة.

(illa): A canceled exception particle or a restriction particle built on the sukun, it has no place in parsing.

(rasul): A predicate, nominative, and its nominative sign is the apparent damma.

What is the ruling regarding the exception made with "ghayr , siwa"? The word following them is always a genitive (possessive case) noun in the genitive case (i.e. possessing the quality of being in the genitive case), while "ghayr" and "siwa" themselves are declined like the noun that comes after "illa", according to the types of the exception clause, as previously explained:

1- The accusative case (i.e. possessing the quality of being in the accusative case) is obligatory if the exception is complete and affirmative.

"The students succeeded, except Zaid "

Ghayr : Exceptive, in the accusative case, with the apparent accusative marker, and it is a construct (muḍāf).

Zaid: Genitive noun in the genitive case (muḍāf ilayhi majrūr), with the apparent genitive marker. "The students succeeded, except Siwa Zaid "

Siwa : Exceptive, in the accusative case, with the implied accusative marker, prevented from being apparent due to impossibility, and it is a construct (muḍāf).

Zaid : Genitive noun in the genitive case (muḍāf ilayhi majrūr), with the apparent genitive marker.

2- The accusative or the (substitute) is permissible if the exception clause is complete and negative. God Almighty said: "Not equal are those believers remaining [at home] - other than those of injury/disability." (Quran, 4:95)

إِلَّا: حَرْفٌ اسْتِثْنَاءٌ مَلغى أَوْ حَرْفٌ حَصْرٌ مَبْنِي عَلَى السُّكُونِ لَا مَجْلَ لَهُ مِنَ الْإِعْرَابِ.

رَسُولٌ: خَبَرٌ مَرْفُوعٌ وَعَلَامَةٌ رَفَعِهِ الضَّمَّةُ الظَّاهِرَةُ.

ما حُكِّمَ الْمُسْتَثْنَى بِ " غَيْرَ ، سِوَى " ؟

وَيُعْرَبُ مَا بَعْدَهُمَا مُضَافًا إِلَيْهِ مَجْرُورًا أَبَدًا، أَمَّا هُمَا فَيُعْرَبَانِ إِعْرَابَ الْأَسْمِ الْوَاقِعِ بَعْدَ إِلَّا تَبَعًا لِأَنْوَاعِ جُمْلَةِ الْإِسْتِثْنَاءِ كَمَا سَبَقَ:

1- يَجِبُ النَّصْبُ إِذَا كَانَ الْإِسْتِثْنَاءُ تَامًا مُثَبَّتًا.

"نَجَحَ الطُّلَّابُ غَيْرَ زَيْدٍ"

غَيْرَ: مُسْتَثْنَى مَنْصُوبٌ وَعَلَامَةُ نَصْبِهِ الْفَتْحَةُ الظَّاهِرَةُ، وَهُوَ مُضَافٌ .

زَيْدٍ: مُضَافٌ إِلَيْهِ مَجْرُورٌ وَعَلَامَةُ جَرِّهِ الْكَسْرَةُ الظَّاهِرَةُ.

"نَجَحَ الطُّلَّابُ سِوَى زَيْدٍ"

سِوَى: مُسْتَثْنَى مَنْصُوبٌ وَعَلَامَةُ نَصْبِهِ الْفَتْحَةُ الْمُقَدَّرَةُ مَنَعَ مِنْ ظُهُورِهَا التَّعَذُّرُ وَهُوَ مُضَافٌ.

زَيْدٍ: مُضَافٌ إِلَيْهِ مَجْرُورٌ وَعَلَامَةُ جَرِّهِ الْكَسْرَةُ الظَّاهِرَةُ.

2- يَجُوزُ النَّصْبُ، أَوِ الْبَدَلِيَّةُ إِذَا كَانَتْ جُمْلَةُ الْإِسْتِثْنَاءِ تَامَةً مَنْفِيَّةً.

قَالَ تَعَالَى: "لَا يَسْتَوِي الْقَاعِدُونَ مِنَ الْمُؤْمِنِينَ غَيْرُ أُولِي

الضَّرَرِ" (النساء: ١٩٥)

"Ghayr" was read in the nominative case (i.e. possessing the quality of being in the nominative case), and it is a (substitute) of "the remainers/those who stay behind ", in the nominative case, with the apparent nominative marker.

"Ghayr " was read in the accusative case based on the exception.

3- It is declined according to its position in the sentence in the case of incomplete negative exception.

God Almighty said: "And they did not increase them except in ruin." (Hud 101)

(maa): Negating particle, neglected, a letter built on sukun, it has no place in the declension.

(zaadoohum): A past tense verb built on the damma due to its connection with the group waw, and the waw is a pronoun built and connected in the place of raising a subject. And (them) is a connected pronoun built on the sukun in the place of accusative as a first object.

(ghair): An object accusative, and the sign of its accusative is the apparent fatha, and it is a genitive construct (mudaf).

(tatbeeb): Genitive construct complement (mudaf ilayhi) genitive, and the sign of its genitive is the apparent kasra.

What is the ruling on the exceptive with "khala," "ada," and "hasha"?

Both accusative and genitive are permissible with it.

For example, in the accusative case: "The students succeeded except Zaid."

"ada": A past tense verb built on an implied fatha on the alif, prevented from appearing by impossibility, and its subject is a pronoun hidden within it obligatorily, estimated as "he."

(Zaidan): An object accusative, and the sign of its accusative is the apparent fatha.

قُرِئَ "غَيْرَ" بِالرَّفْعِ، وَتُعْرَبُ بَدَلًا مِنَ الْقَاعِدُونَ مَرْفُوعٌ وَعَلَامَةُ رَفْعِهِ الضَّمَّةُ الظَّاهِرَةُ.
قُرِئَ "غَيْرَ" بِالنَّصْبِ عَلَى الْإِسْتِثْنَاءِ.

3- تُعْرَبُ حَسَبَ مَوْقِعِهَا فِي الْجُمْلَةِ فِي حَالَةِ الْإِسْتِثْنَاءِ النَاقِصِ الْمَنْفِيِّ.

قَالَ تَعَالَى: "وَمَا زَادُوهُمْ غَيْرَ تَتْبِيبٍ" (مرد ١٠١)
مَا: نَافِيَةٌ مُهْمَلَةٌ حَرْفٌ مَبْنِيٌّ عَلَى السُّكُونِ لَا مَحَلَّ لَهُ مِنَ الْإِعْرَابِ.
زَادُوهُمْ: فِعْلٌ مَاضٍ مَبْنِيٌّ عَلَى الضَّمِّ لِاتِّصَالِهِ بِوَاوِ الْجَمَاعَةِ، وَالْوَاوُ ضَمِيرٌ مَبْنِيٌّ مُتَّصِلٌ فِي مَحَلِّ رَفْعٍ فَاعِلٍ.
و (هُمْ) ضَمِيرٌ مُتَّصِلٌ مَبْنِيٌّ عَلَى السُّكُونِ فِي مَحَلِّ نَصْبٍ مَفْعُولٍ بِهِ أَوَّلٌ.

غَيْرَ: مَفْعُولٌ بِهِ مَنْصُوبٌ وَعَلَامَةُ نَصْبِهِ الْفَتْحَةُ الظَّاهِرَةُ، وَهُوَ مُضَافٌ.

تَتْبِيبٍ: مُضَافٌ إِلَيْهِ مَجْرُورٌ وَعَلَامَةُ جَرِّهِ الْكَسْرَةُ الظَّاهِرَةُ.
مَا حُكِّمَ الْمُسْتَثْنَى بِ « خَلَا » وَ « عَدَا » وَ « حَاشَا »؟
يَجُوزُ فِيهِ النَّصْبُ وَالْجَرُّ.

فَمِثَالُ النَّصْبِ: "نَجَحَ الطُّلَّابُ عَدَا زَيْدًا"
عَدَا: فِعْلٌ مَاضٍ مَبْنِيٌّ عَلَى الْفَتْحِ الْمُقَدَّرِ عَلَى الْأَلِفِ مَنَعَ مِنْ ظُهُورِهِ التَّعَذُّرُ، وَفَاعِلُهُ ضَمِيرٌ مُسْتَتِرٌ فِيهِ وَجُوبًا تَقْدِيرُهُ هُوَ.
زَيْدًا: مَفْعُولٌ بِهِ مَنْصُوبٌ وَعَلَامَةُ نَصْبِهِ الْفَتْحَةُ الظَّاهِرَةُ.

Example of genitive case: "The students succeeded except for Zaid."

‘Adā’: A preposition, indeclinable on the vowel-less letter, has no grammatical function in the sentence.

Zaid: A noun in the genitive case, and its genitive marker is the visible kasra.

The same grammatical analysis applies to "khalā" and "hāshā."

If "khalā," "‘adā," or "hāshā" are followed by "mā" the (verbal noun indicator), then the word following them must be in the accusative case, because "mā" al-masdariyya does not precede (prepositions/particles).

"The students succeeded except what exceeded Zaid."

Mā: A verbal noun indicator, indeclinable on the vowel-less letter, has no grammatical function in the sentence.

‘Adā’: A past tense verb, indeclinable on the implied fatha on the alif, prevented from appearing by (impossibility), and its subject is an obligatory hidden pronoun within it, whose estimation is "he."

وَمِثَالُ الْجَرِّ: "نَجَحَ الطُّلَابُ عَدَا زَيْدٍ"
 عَدَا: حَرْفُ جَرٍّ مَبْنِي عَلَى السُّكُونِ لَا مَحَلَّ لَهُ مِنَ الْإِعْرَابِ.
 زَيْدٍ: اسْمٌ مَجْرُورٌ وَعَلَامَةُ جَرِّهِ الْكَسْرَةُ الظَّاهِرَةُ،

وَنَفْسُ الْإِعْرَابِ يُقَالُ فِي «خَلَا» وَ «حَاشَا»
 وَإِذَا اقْتَرَنْتَ «خَلَا» أَوْ «عَدَا» أَوْ «حَاشَا» بِ «مَا»
 الْمَصْدَرِيَّةِ، فَيَجِبُ نَضْبُ مَا بَعْدَهَا، لِأَنَّ مَا الْمَصْدَرِيَّةَ لَا
 تَسْبِقُ الْحُرُوفَ.

"نَجَحَ الطُّلَابُ مَا عَدَا زَيْدٍ"
 مَا : حَرْفٌ مَصْدَرِي مَبْنِي عَلَى السُّكُونِ لَا مَحَلَّ لَهُ مِنَ
 الْإِعْرَابِ.

عَدَا: فِعْلٌ مَاضٍ مَبْنِي عَلَى الْفَتْحِ الْمُقَدَّرِ عَلَى الْأَلِفِ مَنَعَ مِنْ
 ظُهُورِهِ التَّعَذُّرُ، وَفَاعِلُهُ ضَمِيرٌ مُسْتَتِرٌ فِيهِ وَجُوبًا تَقْدِيرُهُ هُوَ.

Prepositions

What are prepositions?

Prepositions are: min (from), ila (to), 'an (about/from), 'ala (on/upon), fi (in), rubba (perhaps), al-baa (by/with), al-kaaf (like/as), al-laam (to/for), and the letters of swearing, which are: al-waw (by), al-baa (by), and at-taa (by).

"So shun the abomination of idols" (Al-Hajj: 30)

"Fajtanibu (So shun)": an imperative verb built on the deletion of the nun (n) because it is connected to the waw (waw of the group). The waw is a connected pronoun built on the sukun (silent sign) in the place of the subject (actor). The alif al-fariqa (distinguishing alif) between the noun and the verb is a letter built on the sukun, it has no place in the declension (grammar).

"Ar-rijsa (the abomination)": an object (of the verb) in the accusative case, and its accusative sign is the apparent fatha (a short vowel mark).

"Min (from)": a preposition built on the sukun, it has no place in the declension. It was moved with a fatha to prevent the meeting of two silent letters.

"Al-awthani (idols)": a noun in the genitive case, and its genitive sign is the apparent kasra (a short vowel mark). The sentence is related to a deleted adjective in the place of the accusative.

حُرُوفُ الْجَرِّ

مَا هِيَ حُرُوفُ الْجَرِّ ؟

حُرُوفُ الْجَرِّ وَهِيَ مِنْ، وَإِلَى، وَعَنْ، وَعَلَى، وَفِي، وَرُبَّ،

حَرْفٌ مَبْنِي عَلَى السُّكُونِ لَا مَحَلَّ لَهُ مِنَ الْإِعْرَابِ.
الرَّجْسَ : مَفْعُولٌ بِهِ مَنْصُوبٌ وَعَلَامَةٌ نَصْبِهِ الْفَتْحَةُ
الظَّاهِرَةُ.

مِنْ : حَرْفٌ جَرٌّ مَبْنِي عَلَى السُّكُونِ لَا مَحَلَّ لَهُ مِنَ
الْإِعْرَابِ، وَقَدْ حُرِّكَ بِالْفَتْحِ مَنَعًا مِنَ التِّقَاءِ السَّاكِنَيْنِ.
الْأَوْثَانِ : اسْمٌ مَجْرُورٌ وَعَلَامَةٌ جَرُّهُ الْكَسْرَةُ الظَّاهِرَةُ ،
وَشَبْهُ الْجُمْلَةِ مُتَعَلِّقٌ بِمَحْذُوفٍ نَعْتٍ فِي مَحَلِّ نَصْبِ.

Allah the Almighty said: "By Allah, we were in clear error." (Ash-Shu'ara: 97)

"Tallahi (By Allah)": at-taa (the letter taa) is the taa of swearing, a preposition built on the fatha, it has no place in the declension.

"Allah": The Name of Majesty: a noun in the genitive case, and its genitive sign is the apparent kasra. The شبه sentence is related to a deleted verb, estimated as "I swear."

قَالَ تَعَالَى: "تَاللَّهِ إِنْ كُنَّا لَفِي ضَلَالٍ مُّبِينٍ" (الشعراء

تَاللَّهِ: التَّاءُ تَاءُ الْقَسَمِ حَرْفٌ جَرُّ مَبْنِي عَلَى الْفَتْحِ لَا مَحَلَّ لَهُ مِنَ الْإِعْرَابِ.

اللَّهِ: اسْمُ الْجَلَالَةِ: اسْمٌ مَجْرُورٌ وَعَلَامَةٌ جَرُّهُ الْكَسْرَةُ الظَّاهِرَةُ وَشِبْهُ الْجُمْلَةِ مُتَعَلِّقٌ بِمَحذُوفٍ فِعْلٍ تَقْدِيرُهُ أَقْسِمُ.
